The sisters also wish to express their sincere gratitude to Mr. Reis, who so kindly donated the Lyceum for the lecture and to A. J. Duffy for active services, and to the generous purchasers of the boxes and logs.
One Cent Too High.
Only one bid was received yesterday for the laying of five-foot flagstone sidewalks on both sides of Scranton street between the Lackawanna railroad tracks and South Main avenue, and that was too high. This was the bid of John Flanagan & Co., of River street, who offered to lay the sidewalk for sixteen cents per square foot. The engineer's estimate filed with Director Roche is fifteen cents per square foot. Director Roche will endeavor to have the firm reduce its bid one cent, and failing in this will re-tender.

FOUR LISTS OF WORDS.
Tribune's Junior Educational Contest Is Attractive to Young People.
Four more lists of words were received yesterday in The Tribune's Junior Educational contest, from the following:
Emma Holderman, Elmhurst, Pa.
Esther Hopewell, 1757 Sanderson avenue.
Reed Creider, Bainbridge, Pa.
H. D. Coston, 522 Madison avenue.
This contest has now been running three weeks and there are four more weeks left before its close. Since its beginning a large number of boys and girls have sent in lists to The Tribune office, some of which are very commendable specimens of spelling and writing.
Parents should encourage their children to enter the Junior Educational contest. There are twenty prizes offered to the twenty young people, who, under the rules of the contest, get the largest number of correct words from the phrase, "The Home Paper." Of course all who send in lists cannot obtain one of these prizes, but the effort to do so will be beneficial to the word builder in many ways.
The rules of the contest are published on the fourth page of this morning's Tribune.

OPENING OF THIRD WEEK
ONLY ONE CASE WAS TRIED YESTERDAY.

It Was That of Mrs. Ida Campbell Against L. A. Lange and Constables Ira Mitchell and W. S. Bartlett—Verdicts Were Taken by Agreement in Two Other Cases—Judge Kelly Declares There Must Be a More Specific Declaration in the Skivington Case.

Only one case was called for trial in Common Pleas court yesterday. It was that of Mrs. Ida Campbell against L. A. Lange and Constables Ira Mitchell and W. S. Bartlett. Mrs. Campbell sued a house from Mr. Lange in 1900 and towards the close of that year left the house and moved to Adams avenue where on Dec. 3, 1900, the constable levied on her goods for rent. She alleges that the seizure of her goods was without warrant, but this is denied by the defendants, who allege that they were well within their rights in the matter.

The case is being heard before Judge E. C. Newcomb in No. 2 and was adjourned when court adjourned for the day. In the case of the German Building association, No. 8, against Mary A. Sweeney, executrix, a judgment in favor of the plaintiff in the sum of $4,717.75 was entered by agreement. In another case between the same parties a judgment in the sum of $3,785.41 was also entered by agreement.

The trespass case of Peter Lipowicz against William Jergis was referred to former Judge J. W. Carpenter, by agreement. There was no appearance for the plaintiff when the case of Tunstoft & Wolf against the city of Scranton was called, and a non-suit was allowed. When the list for the week was called after court opened in the morning, cases were set out upon as follows:
Continued—Connor Cargile company against William McBride, appeal; C. H. Welles against A. Pritchingham, executrix; J. J. Neill against M. V. Paul and others, trespass; J. L. Jones against W. W. Williams, appeal; A. Richards against A. Hohenlock, appeal; Hies & Johnson against Henry Shafter, appeal.
Settled—Mary Gavin against Scranton Railway company, trespass; Mary E. Martyn against Henry Martyn, divorce.

Must Declare More Specifically.
In the case of H. W. Skivington against H. W. Palmer, and others, executors of John Handley estate, Judge Kelly yesterday handed down an opinion in the matter of the demurrer to the plaintiff's statement. Among other things he said:
It is not clear from a reading of the statement that the plaintiff seeks to hold the estate of John Handley responsible for his injury. He seeks to hold the executors responsible individually, only; or that he attempts to hold the executors liable as individuals, jointly with the estate. There should be no ambiguity about a statement. It should set forth clearly and distinctly the facts of the plaintiff's complaint, so that on demurrer the court may pass upon its sufficiency.

We are not now required to declare the law as to whether the estate can be held legally liable for the accident complained of. When the plaintiff declares against the estate as such, distinctly and unambiguously, if he so desires, we may be called upon to do so. Or, if it is the intention to seek recovery from the executors as individuals, let the plaintiff so declare.
The facts and circumstances of the accident should be set forth with reasonable certainty, and we think the statement is insufficient in this regard also. In order that no injustice may be done we will allow the plaintiff to file a more specific statement, within a thirty day otherwise judgment will be entered for the defendant on the demurrer.

Divorce Is Refused.
Judge J. P. Kelly handed down an opinion yesterday in the divorce proceedings of Agnes Hallock Barry against Thomas Barry, in which he refused to grant a divorce on the ground that Mrs. Barry seeks a divorce on the ground of desertion, which is alleged to

A PLEASANT SURPRISE
In Store for Those Who Doubt.

When you read that a sufferer of many years' standing has been completely restored to health by using Smith's Careful, you are inclined to doubt the statement and, in fact, have no belief in it whatever. The reason for this is that so much is claimed for the Cure-all it is impossible for anyone to believe it; if the advertiser confined his claims to the curing of one disease, as do the proprietors of Pyramid Pile Cure, readers would have much more faith in published testimonials. Those familiar with this great remedy know that testimonials as to its merit may be relied upon implicitly, also that the cures brought about by its use are little short of marvelous. The genuineness of the testimonial here given is vouched for and is but one of thousands received.
"I had a friend who had used one box of 50 cent Pyramid Pile Cure that entirely cured her. I saw the good effect on her, and thought I would try it, as I had not so I could not sit down with my feet so sore and getting up was just as bad. The first box nearly cured me; I got the second box and have had no trouble since. Pyramid Pile Cure does all that it claims to do, and I never miss an opportunity to tell its merits. I speak from observation, and personal benefit. Two boxes cured me over a year ago, and no return of the trouble since." Mrs. M. Mooney, 6000 Sangamon street, Chicago, Ill.
Pyramid Pile Cure is sold by druggists at fifty cents a package, or will be mailed to any address upon receipt of price by Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich. Write this firm for their book describing the cause and cure of piles.

have taken place in Albany, New York, in 1894, while the parties were domiciled there. The requisite one year's residence in Pennsylvania of the libellant previous to the presentation of her libel was shown, but the respondent was never a resident of Pennsylvania, so far as the testimony disclosed, and had not been served personally. In his opinion Judge Kelly says:
"This decree must be refused for want of jurisdiction, regardless of the strength or weakness of the proofs. This court has already passed upon this question more than once. We do not doubt but that if a subpoena was duly and legally served upon the respondent we would have jurisdiction to decree a divorce, even though the cause arose outside of our own state. What we hold is that for cause occurring outside of the state, the domicile of the respondent being outside of the state, and there being no personal service upon him, we have no jurisdiction. The rule to show cause why the divorce should not be decreed is discharged, and the libel is dismissed at the cost of the libellant."
