The Bon Ton Social Club

WILL ENTERTAIN AT A MATINEE AN EVENING DANCE TODAY. ORCHESTRA MUSIC Admission, afternoon, 25c; evening, 50c.

THANKSGIVING EVE NUPTIALS AT ST. ROSE

Miss Nellie V. Farrell and John J. McNulty, Chief of the Carbondale Fire Department, Wedded Before Large Gathering in the Beautiful Sacred Edifice Yesterday Forenoon. Marriage of Miss Sadie Wisely and John Kelly Later in the day.

FIRE CHIEF JOHN J. McNulty.

Sadie Wisely and John Kelly, both of the Danforth section of the city, were married. The Farrell-McNulty wedding was an event which the prominence of the principals caused to be of widespread interest. Happy evidence of this was in the large gathering of friends that was in St. Rose church for some time before the hour—9 o'clock—awaiting with eager anticipation the coming of the bride and groom.

Miss Alice Bridgitt was at the organ filling the church with the joyful strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin as the party entered the church and proceeded to the sanctuary, where, before the beautiful altar, and in the presence of the throng of fervent, well-wishing friends, the impressive marriage ritual was observed by the pastor, Very Rev. T. F. Coffey, V. G. While the vows were being pledged, Miss Bridgitt played a plaintive melody, and when the ceremony was over rendered Mendelssohn's march that sounded the joy that should symbolize the lives of the wedded couple. The nuptials were not marked by any splendor of ceremony, but beautifully simple and impressive.

SALESMEN'S TRIALS.

Bad Food Is One of Them. Road traveling is rather hard on salesmen. Irregular hours, indifferent hotels and badly cooked food play smash with their digestion. An old Philadelphia traveler tells how he got the start of his troubles by using Grape-Nuts. "For years I was troubled with a bad stomach, which gave me constant pains all through my body, caused by eating improper food. I spent considerable money on doctors, who said I had indigestion, and after taking medicine for a year and it doing me no good, I decided to go on a diet, but the different cereals that I ate did not help me. If it hadn't been for the advice of a friend to try Grape-Nuts, I might be ailing yet. "I commenced to feel better in a short time after using the food; my indigestion left me; stomach regained its tone; but that I could eat anything, and headaches stopped. I have gained in weight and have a better complexion than I had for years. At many hotels, the salesmen will have nothing in the line of cereals but Grape-Nuts. As they consider it not only delicious, but also beneficial for their health in the life they lead." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

In popularity in Carbondale and vicinity. For years he was a mine foreman under the Hillside Coal and Iron company and has been in the public eye for a long time. He was select councilman from the Fourth ward for two terms, and has been chief of the fire department of Carbondale since the time former Mayor Kilpatrick took office. He is a member of Columbia Hose company and is active in its councils, as in all his connections. He enjoys the highest respect and confidence of his fellow citizens, and has their heartfelt wishes on this eventful occasion of his career.

Wisely-Kelly. Very Rev. T. F. Coffey, V. G., solemnized the wedding of Miss Sadie Wisely, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Wisely, of Brown street, and John Kelly, formerly of New York city, but now a Carbondale resident. There was a large gathering to witness the ceremony. The wedding marches were played by Prof. Stockman. Miss Annie Burns, of Scranton, was the maid and James Duggan, of this city, was groomsmen. The bride wore a gown of castor shade, with hat to match, and carried bridal roses. Miss Burns was gowned in navy blue, with headgear to match. After the reception and dinner at the Wisely residence, the couple left on the Delaware and Hudson train for New York city. They will reside on Danforth street. Mr. Kelly is employed as a diamond driller under the Delaware and Hudson company.

Among the guests at the wedding were: Miss McAndrew and wife, Patrick Norton and daughter, Mary; Archibald, Miss Sarah Kilgallon of Scranton; John Kilgallon, of Buffalo; Charles Norton and wife, of Archibald; Mrs. Michael Burns and family, of Scranton; James J. Dugan, of Niagara Falls; Frank Brown and wife, of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Tim Lavelle, of Buffalo; Charles McLaughlin, of Pittsburgh; Patrick Kelly and wife, of New York; and Miss Mary Duffy, of Boston.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

General Religious Observance of This National Occasion of Thanks Offering—The Union Services. Secular Observance in Socials, Theatres, etc.

As customary today—Thanksgiving Day—will be generally observed in a religious way. There will be union services in the Berean Baptist church, in which the First Presbyterian, First Methodist and the Baptist congregations will participate. There will be social services at Trinity Episcopal and St. Paul's Lutheran churches. The usual daily devotions at St. Rose church, the celebration of mass, will give opportunity for special thanksgiving.

Rev. A. F. Chaffee, pastor of the Methodist church, will preside at the union services, which will commence in the Berean church at 10:30 o'clock this forenoon. The sermon will be preached by Rev. Charles Lee, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. Miss Grace Hall will be organist and the Berean church will be organist and the Berean church will be organist.

Rev. Dr. H. J. Whalen will make a plea for funds for Emergency hospital, that is a thank offering of $100. This sum can be raised in the large congregation which will assemble in the Baptist church this morning. Those who do not worship elsewhere are earnestly invited by the pastors to join in this Thanksgiving service.

The program is as follows: Invocation, with Lord's prayer in concert, Rev. J. F. Warner; hymn, "Praise the Lord"; reading of the president's proclamation, Rev. Mr. Wood; anthem, "Praise Ye the Father" (Gounod), by the church choir; Scripture lesson, Rev. A. F. Chaffee; solo, "The Heavenly Song" (Gray), Mrs. George Mills; prayer, Rev. W. B. Gray; offering, with plea for the Emergency hospital, by Rev. H. J. Whalen, D. D.; duet, "Love Divine" (Smart), Mrs. Whalen, Mr. Williams; sermon, Rev. Charles Lee; hymn, "God Bless Our Native Land"; benediction, Rev. A. F. Chaffee.

The services at Trinity will be as follows: Holy communion service at 8 a. m. At 10:30 o'clock, morning prayer and sermon, by the pastor, Rev. Rollin A. Sawyer. There will be special thanksgiving anthems and prayers. The offerings, as usual on this day, will be for the benefit of St. Luke's hospital, South Bethlehem. The usual Thursday evening services will be omitted.

Thanksgiving services will be held in St. Paul's Lutheran church, South Church street, this evening at 7:30. Rev. James White, of Scranton, will deliver the Thanksgiving sermon, if no unexpected pastoral duties should prevent the fulfilling of his promise to do so. A Thanksgiving offering will be taken up.

There will be a number of attractions to make the social observance of the day a pleasant one. The Grand will have an attraction for both afternoon and evening. "Rupert to the Prisoner of Zenda." This fascinating bit of fiction dramatized will appeal particularly to those who have read either or both books. To those who have not the play will appeal as a means of enjoying the day. Frank Leighton, a forceful actor, who was accompanied by the company of the press of Scranton on the occasion of the company's appearance at the Lyceum last week, heads the company. Big houses are expected at both performances at the Grand this afternoon and evening.

The Bon Ton Social club will entertain with dancing; both this afternoon and evening, in the Burke building. There will be a matinee dance, commencing at 2:30 this afternoon, continuing until 4 o'clock. The night social will begin at 8:30. The Mozart orchestra will provide music for both occasions. The Bon Ton's cordially invite their patrons and friends to participate in the enjoyment of either occasion. The admission for the afternoon will be twenty-five cents; evening, fifty cents.

In Hazleton Today. The Indians foot ball eleven will go to Hazleton this morning to meet the eleven of that town. This is the only game the Indians are to play this season, and they are leaving with a determination to win out against the Hazletonites and retrieve the defeat of last year, when they lost by the small score of 6-0.

COURSE NUMBERS.

The Smith-Singer Entertainment Enterprise Has Closed Contract with the Brockway Bureau.

R. W. Hughson, of Philadelphia, representing the Brockway Entertainment Bureau, of Pittsburgh, was in the city yesterday afternoon in connection with the Smith-Singer entertainment course, for this season's numbers.

Owing to the extraordinarily large number of solid week bookings at the Grand for the coming winter, and the fact that the Brockway people, themselves, have made most of their bookings for the season, there were only a few of the best attractions at the disposal of Messrs. Smith and Singer. There was a number of less meritorious ones, but the Carbondale men preferred to be content with a smaller number of high-class entertainers, even though the chances of profit be less, than to offer anything to their patrons that might be classed as mediocre. Therefore they decided on three numbers.

The three entertainers, it can be assured, are of the higher class, each one having a following before the biggest audience that the Grand can accommodate. The numbers are: "The Grand"; Hon. O. W. Chandler, a leading member of the New York city bar; and a lecturer, or rather a demonstrator, of liquid air, the scientific marvel.

Mario was here last season, but will be none the less welcome. He made one of the greatest hits of the season, and as he appears in a new programme this is assuredly one that will be a success. He is an entirely new feature this season, assuming the role of an East India prince of music.

Hon. O. W. Chandler has been heard by Carbondalians, patrons of the Smith-Singer course, who warmly recommended him as a speaker who will be worthy of the effort to hear him.

The liquid air demonstration has been requested by fully a half-hundred patrons of the course, and that it will interest and more than satisfy Carbondalians there is little doubt.

The opening date of the course, nor none of the dates, has as yet been fixed. With the three numbers engaged the course charge will be fixed at $1, without extra charge for reserved seats.

THE INSTITUTE COURSE.

Diagram Will Open at Reynolds' Drug Store Friday Afternoon.

The diagram for the lecture course in connection with the sixth annual institute of Carbondale city teachers will open at Reynolds' drug store tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Checks will be given ten minutes earlier. The number of seats that check-holders are entitled to is limited to five. This will be strictly observed. The price of course tickets is $1. The price of single reserved seats is fifty cents; general admission is twenty-five cents.

This course has been secured at great expense, with no idea of profit; the only purpose was to provide the best means of entertainment and education for the public. There should be a response by the public that would fill the Grand on each of the four nights. Hon. George Wendling and Dr. Hills are speakers of national renown, and will undoubtedly be received with true appreciation.

AMUSEMENTS.

Annie Oakley Last Night. Annie Oakley, who when seen last year was displaying her expertness with the rifle, doing all sorts of remarkable shooting stunts with Buffalo Bill's show, was at the Grand last night in a somewhat new role. She was in the "Western Girl" with "The Western Girl." Miss Oakley proved her versatility by appearing quite at home in her changed place. Her act was full of spirit, her voice was suited to the spirit, and she won new admirers among the dancing horde last night who was always on hand at opportune times to banish danger and harm to those whom she loved. Last night might forget her as an unexcelled rifle shot, she gave an exhibition of breaking glass balls as the days of Buffalo Bill. The company was very capable and the play was splendidly staged.

Lockjaw Patient Improving. William Adams, the aged man who is at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ervina Stone, a sufferer from lockjaw, showed a slight improvement yesterday under the persevering use of tetanus anti-toxine. However, the only thing that can be said in favor of the patient is that his physician is hopeful.

Ladies to Attend. The ladies of Lackawanna council, No. 112, Degree of Pochontas, and the Companions of the Foresters will meet at their respective hall at 2 p. m. today, to attend the funeral of the late Frank Morgan.

PERSONAL MENTION. Jonas Stone, West Pike street, is on a business trip to New York city. Frank McDonald and William Fitzpatrick are visiting in New York city. Miss Josephine Rinsland, of South Main street, is the guest of her brother, Dr. Rinsland, a dentist, in Philadelphia.

Miss Roy, the designer and chief artist of the Carbondale millinery parlors, returns today from New York city, where she has spent a week observing the new styles in ladies' headgear in the fashion centers of the Metropolis.

ARCHBALD.

A pretty wedding ceremony took place in St. Thomas' church yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when Miss Agnes McDonnell was united in marriage to William Glidde, Rev. T. J. Comerford performing the ceremony. The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Nellie Mullen, and James Ruddy acted as best man. The bride was very becomingly attired in pearl crepe de chene with medallions and jewels. The bridesmaid's dress was Resida green whipcord with lace trimmings. Both wore picture hats and carried arm bouquets of chrysanthemums. Miss Kate Gallagher, of Peckville, played the wedding march and during the ceremony received "O Promise Me." Both bride and groom are popular young people of the town, and a host of friends join in wishing them a happy wedded life.

There will be no preaching in the Presbyterian church next Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Collins, of Binghamton, N. Y., are spending Thanksgiving with relatives in town. Mrs. William Callaway and daughter, Bertha, are visiting relatives in Scranton.

Miss Edna Klees, of Scranton, is visiting in town. Miss Dule Dougher is spending Thanksgiving with friends in Berwick.

Office hours at the postoffice today will be 8 to 10 a. m. and 5 to 6 p. m. No money order or registry business done.

CHANGE OF CLIMATE

Not Necessary in Order to Cure Catarrh.

The popular idea that the only cure for chronic catarrh is a change of climate, is a mistake, because catarrh is found in all climates in all sections of the country; and even if a change of climate should benefit for a time, the catarrh will certainly return.

Catarrh may be readily cured in any climate, but the only way to do it is to destroy or remove from the system the catarrhal germs which cause all the mischief.

The treatment by inhalers, sprays, powders and washes has been proven almost useless in making a permanent cure, as they do not reach the seat of disease, which is in the blood and can be reached only by an internal remedy which acts through the stomach upon the blood and system generally.

A new discovery which is meeting with remarkable success in curing catarrh of the head, throat and bronchial tubes and also catarrh of the stomach, is sold by druggists under the name of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

These tablets, which are pleasant and harmless to take, owe their efficiency to the active medicinal principles of Blood Root, Red Gum and a new and powerful cathartic, which, taken together with valuable antiseptics are combined in convenient, palatable tablet form, and as valuable for children as for adults.

M. A. R. Fernbank, of Columbus, Ohio, says: "I suffered so many winters from catarrh that I took it as a matter of course and that nothing would cure it except a change of climate, which my business affairs would not permit me to take."

"My nostrils were almost always clogged up; I had to breathe through the mouth, causing an inflamed, irritated throat. The thought of eating breakfast often nauseated me and the catarrh, gradually getting into my stomach, took away my appetite and digestion."

"My druggist finally advised me to try a fifty-cent box of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, because he said he had so many customers who had been cured of catarrh by the use of these tablets that he felt he could honestly recommend them. I took his advice and used several boxes with results that surprised and delighted me."

"I always keep a box of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets in the house and the whole family use them freely on the first appearance of a cough or cold in the head."

"With our children, we think there is nothing so safe and reliable as Stuart's Catarrh Tablets. They are the only remedy for colds and with older people I have known of cases where the hearing had been seriously impaired by chronic catarrh cured entirely by this new remedy."

The characters are fashionable visitors to a famous health resort near by and the uninvited natives of that remote region, the scenery depicting Lost River Valley is superb. The panoramic effect shown in the bicycle ride for life, as well as the beautiful view of the Baden toll road with its massive cologne, are scene in which two of the most thrilling episodes in the play take place and which aroused the utmost enthusiasm from New York audiences and critics.

Daughters of Rebekah Officers.

Lucetta Lodge, Daughters of Rebekah, elected officers on Tuesday night for the ensuing term as follows: Mrs. Frank Price, noble grand; Miss Dora Ludwig, vice grand; Mrs. Robert Weir, financial secretary; Mrs. George W. Hughes, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Dix, treasurer. The installation will take place Friday evening, Dec. 5, and will be conducted by Mrs. Edward G. Davis, Scranton, the district deputy.

Connolly & Wallace

Scranton's Shopping Center

"Keen Kutter" Shears, 25c for any size from 4 to 9 inches long. Not many left, but enough for a day or two.

A Belfast linen maker's samples are here at 33 1/3% less than regular prices. The lot includes Napkins, Table Cloths and fine hand-embroidered Sheets, Spreads, Lunch Cloths, etc.

To Men: You haven't much time to read advertisements we know, but you miss something if you don't look over this page every day. Perhaps you wonder where your neighbor got that new shirt, or new tie, or suit, or how he can get things so cheap and you can't. He reads the advertisements.

To Women: Do you care for Fashion? For new gowns or wraps or dress goods or silks or laces—or for bargains? Will you let some one else find these things first? But what's the use of asking—every woman knows our ads, and reads them first, and yet they are only ads.

Now for Christmas

Twenty three shopping days and nothing in the way to turn your mind from the one thought—gifts. "Why do you advertise now?" asks a friend. "Isn't your store crowded already?"

Why, advertising isn't only to fill the store with people, it's to help them shop—to keep you in touch with the world of goods—to tell of new things—what they're for—how they'll wear—where they're to be found. Our ads are as necessary all the year around as a daily newspaper.

More necessary now because the crowd is greatest. You can shop more quickly and more satisfactorily if you read our ads every day.

Winter Underwear For Men and Women: Some people wear wool or nothing; some wouldn't wear wool if they got it for nothing—so we have every kind of good underwear that's made; and because we buy direct and in large quantities prices are even under the market.

Men's Shirts and Drawers, 50c to $7.50 a garment. Men's Union Suits, $1.00 to $3.00. Ladies' Union Suits, $1.00 to $6.50. Ladies' Vests and Pants, 25c to $3.50 a garment.

Knitted Gloves: They are fine for school-boys and girls, good for women to slip on over kid gloves for extra warmth, and every sixth man you meet on a nipping day is wearing them in his hands.

All are woven without seams and have ribbed cuffs to fit tight around your wrists. Men's ..... 25c to $1.75 pair. Women's ..... 25c to $1.00 pair. Children's ..... 25c to 50c pair.

Blankets for the Horse

You won't forget your stable on Christmas, will you? All kinds of Street and Stable Blankets at prices under market values. Waterproof Covers for the horse as well. Lap Robes, too.

Holiday Handkerchiefs Men's and Women's: The handkerchief store that lives up to its ideals all the year round is the store that's going to get the cream of the holiday trade.

Plain hemstitched Handkerchiefs for women begin at 5c, 12 1/2c; for 25c you can get one fine and sheer enough for the most particular woman that ever lived.

A 1c plain hemstitched Handkerchief for men; and a 2c kind with hems in three widths—quarter inch, half-inch and inch.

Every girl wants scalloped and embroidered Handkerchiefs just now—and for 25c she can get dozens of pretty kinds. But even the best of scallops won't wear as well as hems, and you'll find the unembroidered and hemstitched Handkerchiefs for 25c much more serviceable. Some lace trimmed.

Boxed Waist Patterns

Were $6. Now $3: Enough all-wool French Flannel for a waist, with silk embroidered pieces for front, cuffs, collar, etc.; all colors. A Connolly & Wallace bargain—at dress goods counter.
