"Tommy" has in his possession the programme of the second annual festival of Franklin Engine company, held at Fellows' hall, Tuesday evening, January 17, 1860, when the floor committee was Fred W. Mason, William H. Freeman, Harvey Tuttle, Levi Langstaff, Irving A. Finch and O. E. Brown, names very familiar to many today.

Fire at Noon Yesterday.

Owing to the rain yesterday, a child of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Brownell, their twelfth anniversary last evening of 1132 Lafayette street, was sent to the attic to play and while there uncarthed a railroad torch belonging to its father. Lighting it, the child proceeded to play "fireman," and soon had the contents of the room in a blaze. Smoke was seen issuing from the house, the child was rescued, and an alarm was sent in from box 34, at the corner of Main and West Lackawanna avenues.

Engine company No. 3 and Chemical company No. 2 quickly responded, and soon had the flames under control, but
