UNION LABEL. HORSE FELL INTO DITCH. It Required the Use of a Derrick to Pull It Out. One of the Keystone Brewing company's big brewery wagons was being driven along Vine street early last night by a careless driver, who did not notice the lights placed on either side of a plank placed across an open ditch, near Clay avenue. One of the horses stumbled into the trench and fell to the bottom, almost bearing the other animals in with it. Efforts to take the horse out of the excavation proved unsuccessful until a block and tackle were secured and a temporary derrick rigged up. When animal was lifted to the surface it was found to be uninjured.

FIGURES FOR COMMISSION. MINE WORKERS' OFFICIALS ARE PREPARING THEM.

Tabulated Statements of Wages Prepared by the Big Companies Have Been Received by the Mine Workers and Are Being Compared with the Schedules Prepared by the Miners—Conference Next Week Concerning Manner in Which Companies Will Present Their Case.

President John Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers; District Presidents Nicholas, Fahy and Duffy and some of the other more prominent leaders of the organization spent nearly all day yesterday and a considerable portion of last night in conference at the Hotel Jermyn with Attorney Clarence S. Darrow and Nelson Lloyd, their representatives before the arbitration commission.

It was learned yesterday that an important point to be brought to the attention of the commission is the alleged discrimination shown against a number of men who have been refused employment since operations were resumed. District President Nicholas claims that in this district alone there are about 2,000 men who were employed at various mines since before the strike began, but who have been unable to get their places back since it ended. He claims that these men have been blacklisted because they were aggressive unionists.

An Utter Falsehood. In the New York American yesterday one of the attorneys for the miners is called on having said, relative to the handling off of the peace negotiations that C. D. Simpson, of this city, had a conference with President Baer "and that Mr. Baer then went before the presidents of the coal roads and laid out some interesting news. They were ready to act as he wanted them to after they received this news. Furthermore, Mr. Watkins himself was in New York at the same time. There will be some startling developments when the truth behind the news is brought out before the strike commission, and we are determined that this shall be done."

Proceedings in Book Form. Recognizing the widespread interest taken all over the country in the testimony and argument before the Anthracite Strike Commission, The Tribune will print in convenient book form the reports appearing in its columns from day to day, and will offer a limited edition of copies for sale at $1 each. The volume will consist of several hundred pages, eight by eleven inches, and will appear as soon as the commission renders their decision. The daily reports in The Tribune miss nothing of essential interest and are the fullest and most accurate reports printed in any newspaper. Orders should be sent to The Tribune now as the edition is liable to be exhausted.

EACH ACCUSED THE OTHER. Magistrate Millar Couldn't Hold Gerrity for Court. When Joseph Gerrity, of Third street, was arraigned before Magistrate Millar in police court yesterday morning on the charge of throwing a lighted lamp at his wife on Thursday night and setting fire to his house, he pleaded not guilty. "My wife threw the lamp, your honor," he said, "and not me. We had a fight and she said she'd give it to me good, and she came near doing it."

Benjamin G. Jones Crushed by a Fall of Roof in the Storrs Shaft: No. 3, Yesterday. Benjamin G. Jones, of Oak street, North Scranton, was instantly killed while at work in Storrs shaft No. 3 yesterday. Jones was at work in his chamber setting up a prop under a bad piece of roof, when a large section of the roof, weighing many tons, fell killing him instantly. His laborer escaped. The remains were taken to the surface and afterwards to Jones' home. The funeral will be held on Monday. Interment will be made in Taylor.

MISSION AT CATHEDRAL

It Begins Tomorrow with Solemn High Mass. A three weeks' mission, to be conducted by the Passionist fathers, will begin at St. Peter's cathedral tomorrow morning at 10.30 o'clock with a solemn high mass.

The services during the first week will be for the women of the parish, and during the second week for the men. The third week will be given over to a mission for non-Catholics. During the first two weeks there will be masses daily at 6, 7 and 8 o'clock every morning, and confessions will be heard from 5 a. m. to 10 p. m., except on Sundays, when they will be heard at night. There will be benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament nightly and a sermon.

GOOD WRESTLING PROMISED

D. A. McMillan and Prof. Dwyer to Meet Here Soon. D. A. McMillan, of Milwaukee, Wis., a wrestler of some prominence in the west, who claims to have thrown both Tom Jenkins and D. S. McLeod, is in the city and yesterday interested President B. P. Connolly, of the Scranton Bicycle club in an effort which he has been making to secure a match with Prof. M. J. Dwyer, who is so well known in this city. Upon President Connolly agreeing to accord the use of the clubhouse for the match, a challenge was sent to Dwyer, at New Haven, by telegraph. In this challenge, McMillan agreed to throw Dwyer three times in an hour for a side bet of $100 and the gate receipts. An acceptance was received last night from Dwyer with the announcement that his forfeit would be sent at once by mail.

COUNCILS HAVE NO POWER

Can't Reduce Sewer Assessment or Order New One Made. The sewers and drains committee of common council was to have met last night to consider the grievances of certain property owners living on Alder street, who object to the alleged excessiveness of a sewer assessment made against them, but no quorum was present. The members in attendance waited upon City Solicitor Watson after adjournment was taken and were informed by him that councils have no authority to reduce the assessment or order a new one made. This power rests with court alone, he said, and the only thing the objecting property owners can now do is to petition court for a new assessment. Their objections, he said, should have been filed before the report of the viewers who made the assessment was confirmed by court.

THE CHILDREN'S FAVORITE

One of the greatest difficulties encountered when children are ill, is the objection they have to taking medicine. The remedy must be pleasant or the patient of the sufferer is exhausted before it is successfully administered. Mr. G. G. Wagner, of Spring Grove, Pa., overcomes this annoyance by using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He says his little boy always asks for it whenever he catches cold. This remedy has become the children's favorite, as it is pleasant to take and it always cures and cures quickly. For sale by all druggists.

FOUR MORE LISTS

Five Additional Entries in The Tribune's Junior Educational Contest. Several additional lists of words have been received from contestants in The Tribune's Junior Educational Contest since Thursday morning. These are the names of the authors of the lists: Ida Kibler, 624 Cedar avenue. Daisy Feltz, 737 Lee court. William Chandler, 711 Linden street. Philip H. Seaman, Factoryville. Gladys Reese, 29 Washington street, Carbondale.

There are three more weeks left for the nimble-witted young people of Northeastern Pennsylvania to try for one of the twenty cash presents offered to those who make the largest number of words out of the phrase "The Home Paper." There is plenty of opportunity left for any of those who may decide to try at any time. The first cash present, $20 in gold, is still unwon and it may be that some of those who wait until the contest nears its close may have more correct and longer lists of words than some of those who hurried their work at the beginning of the contest and thereby overlooked some words that are admissible.

A great deal of questioning has taken place whether contractions of words such as "or" and "over" and prefixes and suffixes are admissible under the rules. The best advice that can be given on this subject is that if any contestant is in doubt about a word or prefix they should take a chance and write the words in their list. Each list will be read over carefully, the wrong words will be erased and the correct words will be counted carefully. Contestants must not be surprised if some of the lists shrink while undergoing this process, for errors may creep into the most carefully prepared. These Junior Educational Contests afford a splendid opportunity for study by the young people, teaching them the correct spelling and the right meaning of many words they have been ignorant of hitherto.

NON-REFILLABLE BOTTLE

Mr. Beam's Patent. Mathew M. Beam, of Old Forge, has secured, through D. B. Replige, of this city, a patent on a non-refillable bottle. The device is an ingenious one and its effectiveness is absolute. For years there has been a demand for a bottle that is non-refillable, and in this invention it would seem that Mr. Beam has struck a responsive chord. It will be a boon to distillers and manufacturers who have been greatly annoyed by irresponsible parties refilling their bottles with goods of an inferior grade.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY LEWIS HAS THAT PURPOSE. Three Weeks of Criminal Court Will Begin Monday—The Regular Two Weeks Term Is to Be Followed by a Special Term of One Week—Altogether 536 Cases Are Set Down for Trial—Verdicts Returned in Three Common Pleas Cases—Charter Granted.

Monday a regular two weeks term of Criminal court will open to be followed by a week's special term. During these three weeks District Attorney W. R. Lewis will make a determined effort to clean up the calendar that he may begin the new year without having any legacies in the way of untried cases from the old year to require his attention. On the regular list there are 364 cases for trial, and on the special list, 172, making a total of 536. Thirty cases are set down for Monday and the first one is that of Thomas Pristash, Harry Shubah, alias Metro Saire, who are charged with murdering James Winston near Olyphant on September 25. Winston was a non-union mine worker. Among the well-known jurors for next week are E. G. Coorsen, James P. Dickson, C. D. Simpson, E. S. Jones, G. F. Whitmore, C. E. Whitmore, John J. Conniff and Fred W. Mason, Jr. The courts will be run during the three weeks. During the first week Judge H. M. Edwards will be in No. 1, Judge J. P. Kelly in No. 2, and Judge Frank Wheaton in No. 3. During the second week Judge E. C. Newcomb will be in No. 1, Judge Edwards in No. 2. Who the third judge will be has not yet been ascertained.

THREE VERDICTS RETURNED

After court opened yesterday morning verdicts were returned in three cases in which juries retired on Saturday. In the case of the Atlantic Refining company against H. F. Treager, a verdict of $4.31 was returned in favor of the plaintiff. William Zolner, who sued the Scranton Tailor company for damages was allowed $400 by the jury. Simon Hinerfeld, who sued Police Sergeant C. W. Ridgeway for false arrest was allowed nominal damages in the sum of $3 by the jury.

COURT HOUSE NEWS NOTES

Julia Conlon, a Lackawanna river flood victim, yesterday sued the Scranton Steel company and the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company, through Attorney A. A. Chase, for injury done to a property she owns, by the floods of last spring. Isadore Kislicius sued John Strenlow, of this city, yesterday to recover $500 damages for defamation of character. On November 23, 1902, in the presence of a number of persons the defendant charged the plaintiff with being unduly intimate with the wife of a neighbor of the parties in the suit.
