While the patrolmen were searching for the missing boy on Thursday, a number of them were delighted to see as fine a flock of quall as one would cure to shoot at, and they were only a short distance from the foot of the mountain back of the Capouse colliery. While some of the party were near Weekheiser's, a rabbit ran across the trail and some of the officers remarked longingly, "If we only had our gun," etc. Hunters who were on the mountain that day secured several rabbits and a young man at Weckheiser's is authority for the statement that there is lots of big game up there.
