TRICK PERFORMED BY TOM, THE SENATOR'S WONDERFUL FELINE.

Among the cats that may compete in the cat show to be soon held at Washington is a handsome gray fellow belonging to Senator Depew. Says the New York Times. The cat bears the name Tom. It is not known whether or not he is named for the senator's distinguished colleague from New York, but it can be said that Tom is clever and tricky and devoted beyond measure to his master and mistress. That Tom can think can scarcely be doubted. He is very sagacious and frequently outwits his master. It is said he has learned to smile at the senator's jokes. Tom has learned a trick that is often shown to guests at the Depew home. Under the dining room table is an electric bell for the purpose of summoning a servant. Whenever Tom is fastened up in the dining room, he immediately jumps on this button and pushes it with great vigor until some one arrives and lets him out. Whether by accident or otherwise, Tom learned that whenever the button under the table was pushed some one entered the door, thus opening it.
