ORDER BASED ON A STATUTE
CLEAR PROOF OF JUDGE ARCHIBALD'S AUTHORITY.
Act of 1851 Gives a Judge of the United States Court the Right to Require the Production of All Papers Pertaining to a Congressional Election if a Contest Is Brought—Opinion Which Shows That Judge Doesn't Like Interfering with State Courts.

REV. THOMAS R. WATKINS.
He Is the Labor Candidate for Recorder of the City.
Rev. Thomas R. Watkins, who has been nominated as the labor candidate for recorder of the city is 52 years of age and a native of Wales.

Opinion in Reareck Case.
Regarding the alleged claim that Judge Archibald was seeking to usurp the functions of the state courts it is interesting to note an opinion filed by him yesterday in a habeas corpus case brought to his attention recently. The case was that of H. L. Reareck, of Sunbury, who was arrested for an alleged violation of a license tax ordinance passed by the borough council.

An Appeal Was Allowed.
In the present instance, if the relator had rested his contention before the justice, or upon application to the quarter sessions of the county for the allowance of an appeal had been refused, a case for the intervention of this court on habeas corpus might have been presented. But instead of that, an appeal was allowed, and is now pending in the Northampton county, where it would have come up in due course at the present term.
