MRS. Z. P. BELL DIES OF TYPHOID PNEUMONIA

Succumbs After Three Weeks' Attack, Which Started with Grip. Deceased Wife of South Main Street Business Man.

Mrs. Mary Bell, wife of Ziphon C. Bell, the South Main street restaurateur, died yesterday forenoon at 6 o'clock at the residence, 18 South Main street. The fatal attack of illness was of only three weeks' duration. She was prostrated with grip, which, however, caused no alarm until pneumonia developed about a week ago. Since then, though her condition was regarded as serious, her death was wholly unexpected until several hours before she passed away.

was mentioned, he took French leave while under arrest in the office of the late Alderman Morrison on the charge of getting goods from Slinger's clothing store on false pretenses and dashing down Eighth avenue gave Constable Carden the slip. Scott went to Plitston or some other Luzerne town and though Constable Neary sought he did not find him. Like the cat, Scott came back last night and was arrested on Salem avenue by Constable Neary, who was given somewhat of a surprise to thus run upon his man.

WAS SOMETHING DOING.

Street Foreman Killeen Makes Trolley Company Employees Hurtle.

The Scranton Railway company's snow plough piled up great heaps of snow along the Church street switch, which Street Foreman John Killeen believed should have been carried off in order to make the roadway passable. Yesterday forenoon he vigorously started to work to dispose of the so-called "beautified" snow over on the tracks. There was so much of it that when he came along and tried to go through there was a blockade. The trolley company's laborers were soon "Johnny-on-the-spot" but as fast as they shoveled it back onto the roadway, the city's men returned the compliment. Then there were a few words, not of learned length, but thundering sound. The result was that the street car service was tied up for the greater part of the forenoon. Conditions returned to normal after the trolley company's "ax" was loaded with the troublesome snow, which was carried away.

CONDITION IMPROVED.

Frank G. Crouch and Walter Bennett Manifest Encouraging Symptoms.

The condition of Frank G. Crouch, the insurance agency owner, who has been dangerously ill of typhoid fever, is somewhat improved, though his physician is saying he is not out of danger. Mr. Crouch was making good progress toward recovery when his temperature rose again and remained at a point that was alarming. Now, however, the indications in his case are exceedingly hopeful.

SERVICES APPRECIATED.

O'Connell Estate Sends Checks to Both Hose Companies.

A short time ago the Columbia and Mitchell Hose companies each received from Druggist H. F. Clark a check for $10, in recognition of their services at the fire which damaged his store. The appreciation of the firemen on this occasion was renewed when a few days ago the O'Connell estate sent checks for the same amount to both companies, as evidence of appreciation of the work done at the fire in the old postoffice building in Park Place owned by the O'Connell estate. This substantial appreciation is valued by the firemen, who are always ready and willing, and for no selfish reason, to respond to the call of protecting property and life. Both companies have requested that this method of thanks be expressed in their behalf.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. OLYPHANT.

The marriage of Miss Jessie Pettigrew, daughter of Mrs. Charlotte Pettigrew, and Charles L. Thomas, was solemnized at the bride's home last evening. At 8 o'clock the bride party entered the parlor, where they were met by Rev. S. H. Moore, pastor of the Presbyterian church, of Peckville, who tied the nuptial knot, in the presence of many relatives and friends. The gown worn by the bride was of castor broadcloth, trimmed with velvet. She carried a bouquet of white carnations. Her attendant was Miss Margaret McHenry, who was attired in brown, with velvet trimmings, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The best man was Edward Day, of Peckville, a cousin of the groom. Immediately after the ceremony had been performed and congratulations had been bestowed upon the happy couple, a sumptuous wedding supper was enjoyed. The bride was the recipient of a large number of handsome and useful presents. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas left on the late train for a short trip to New York and Philadelphia, and on their return will reside at the bride's home on Delaware street. The young couple are well known and popular, and have the best wishes of a large circle of friends.

DALTON.

A meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at the Baptist parsonage on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mrs. Nolan of Green Ridge is expected to be present and speak.

PECKVILLE.

Many cellars were flooded by the heavy rain and thaw on Tuesday. Several merchants in this vicinity had large quantities of goods damaged that had been stored in the cellars.

Scranton's Shopping Center

No Stop for Rain or Snow

Too late now to stop for anything—Christmas shopping must be done.

It must be well done—the store that's careless, that thinks the crowd will come anyway at Christmas, or buy anything, trash or not, will soon lose your confidence.

People know there is no danger of buying trash at Connolly & Wallace's; that if anything should go wrong it will be made right; that nowhere can be found so many Christmas novelties, and that prices, as a rule, are lower than anywhere else.

No wonder the store could hardly hold the people on Saturday, that crowds came even in such weather as we had on that day.

A stranger in town wouldn't find it hard picking out the People's Christmas Store.

Women's Wraps

In Paris they call them envelops—those long beautiful wraps that women wear at night to the theatre or over evening dresses. $25 to $85.

And the velour three-quarter coats, $25 to $75, surpass everything that France has ever done before in velour—though not all of them are from France, which partly accounts for the prices.

We have perhaps the handsomest collection that has ever been got together, because velour wraps of every sort are better this year than for a long while.

Fine Furs....

How can a furrier afford to pay rent twelve months in the year and do business only four of these months? His one way is to cover it with profit.

In this store the rent, salaries and management are shut off the instant the fur season is over. The people who have served you so well in the furs go into the dress department or into the coats. We wouldn't let one of them leave us for love or money, for to be a fine saleswoman in furs is an accomplishment that you don't often find.

We buy Furs in such vast quantities that the minimum of profit is enough for the most ambitious maker.

And so our Furs are always 25 per cent.—sometimes as much as 37 1/2 per cent.—less than you will find them elsewhere, and the variety three or four times greater than you will see anywhere else.

Golf Vests

Red, green, black, sprinkled with white, and white. Double-breasted, fastened with brass buttons, plain colors in many grades, $1.75 to $4 each.

Knit Blouses, all colors, $2.50 to $5.

Holiday Handkerchiefs

Handkerchiefs (usually very well behaved little things, indeed) have been pushing and crowding for a week, and on Saturday night they burst all bounds—took possession of a counter that belongs by rights to Corsets and overflowed into the Lace department as well.

But it's no wonder they feel so important just now—we sell almost a quarter of a million every December just for Christmas presents.

These are hints of the things you'll find here now:

For Women

12c. Plain white hemstitched, with neat embroidery work.

25c. Hemstitched and embroidered in a wide range of pretty patterns; or plain white hemstitched with little blocks above the border; or hemstitched with fancy drawn-work.

50c and 75c. Hemstitched and embroidered handkerchiefs in many pretty patterns; some with Mexican drawn-work.

And so on, up to those exquisite and dainty bits of French finery for $10.00.

For Men

Plain white hemstitched handkerchiefs—begin at 10c, 12c, 15c, 25c and go up to 50c each. Of course the most expensive are fine French made.

Books, Books, Books.

There is still a good selection of the 12c books; of course some titles are sold out and cannot be replaced, but there are some 300 different subjects to choose from, and everyone a good standard book.
