Mamie Grady, a Ten-Year-Old Girl, Died from Blood Poisoning Caused by an Injury from a Shoe.

Mamie Grady, the 10-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Grady, of 1032 West Linden street, died yesterday from blood poisoning, after four days' illness.

The child suffered from an injury on her foot, no larger than the head of a pin, which was caused in breaking in a new pair of shoes. At first it was supposed the girl was suffering from what is commonly known as a "stone bruise."

Dr. D. W. Evans diagnosed it as a severe case of blood poisoning. Everything was done, but without avail, and the child died in great agony. The funeral will take place at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, with a short service in St. Patrick's Catholic church, and interment in the Cathedral cemetery.

Give Warning of Approach of More Serious Trouble.

Do you experience fits of depression with restlessness, alternating with extreme irritability, bordering upon hysteria? Are your spirits easily affected so that one minute you laugh, and the next fall into convulsive weeping?

Do you feel something like a ball rising in your throat and threatening to choke you; all the senses perverted, morbidly sensitive to light and sound; pain in the ovaries, and especially between the shoulders; sometimes loss of voice; nervous dyspepsia, and almost continually cross and snappy; with a tendency to cry at the least provocation?

If so, your nerves are in a shattered condition, and you are threatened with nervous prostration.

Undoubtedly you do not know it, but in nine cases out of ten this is caused by some uterine disorder, and the nerves centering in and about the organs which make you a woman influence your entire nervous system. Something must be done at once to restore their natural condition or you will be prostrated for weeks and months perhaps, and suffer untold misery.

Proof is monumental that nothing in the world is better for this purpose than Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; thousands and thousands of women have written us so.

How Mrs. Holland, of Philadelphia, suffered among the finest physicians in the country, none of whom could help her—finally cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—For over two years I was a constant sufferer from extreme nervousness, digestion, and dizziness. Menstruation was irregular, had backache, and a feeling of great lassitude and weakness. I was so bad that I was not able to do my own work or go far in the street. I could not sleep nights.

"I tried several splendid doctors, but they gave me no relief. After taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I soon began to feel better, and was able to go out and not feel as if I would fall at every step. I continued to take the medicine until cured.

"I cannot say enough in behalf of Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine, and heartily recommend all suffering women to try it and find the relief I did."—MRS. FLORENCE HOLLAND, 622 S. Clifton St., Philadelphia, Pa. (Jan. 6, 1902.)

Another case of severe female trouble cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, after the doctors had failed.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I was in poor health for several years. I had female trouble and was not able to do my household work. I felt tired, very nervous, and could not sleep. I doctored with several doctors. They doctored me for my stomach, but did not relieve me. I read in your book about your medicine, and thought I would try it. I did so, and am now cured and able to do my work alone, and feel good. I was always very poor, but now weigh one hundred and fifty pounds.

"I thank you for the relief I have obtained, and I hope that every woman troubled with female weakness will give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. I have recommended it to many of my friends."—MRS. MARIA BOWERS, Millersville, Ohio. (Aug. 15, 1901.)

Will not the volumes of letters from women made strong by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound convince all of the virtues of this medicine?

How shall the fact that it will help them be made plain?

Surely you cannot wish to remain weak, and sick, and discouraged, exhausted with each day's work. You have some derangement of the female organs, and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you just as surely as it has others.

IS THE ONLY TRUE CHURCH

other church than the Catholic claims apostolic succession, and he said that the claims of that other church are not well founded.

The speaker then took up the Reformation and declared unhesitatingly that at the time of its inception the church was in need of reform. Not as to her doctrine, but as to the practice of them and as to the morals of the clergy. Admitting that these things needed reforming, he asked what that had to do with the church existing to be the true church of Christ.

"If every pope," said he, "from St. Peter's succession down to Leo XIII was a scheming, grasping hypocrite, what would that have to do with the question, 'Does the Catholic church teach what Christ taught?'"

Father Valentine declared that Martin Luther was led to break away from the old church because of wounded pride, and said that if God was the moving spirit in the reformation he would not certainly never have selected such an instrument as Luther for that work. He characterized him as a man of lust, who had broken his double vows of chastity taken as a priest and as a member of a religious order.

The lecture tonight will be devoted to the doctrine of the real presence of Christ in the holy eucharist.
