ANNOUNCEMENTS OF

Lakewood, Queen of Winter Resorts. Of all winter resorts where people congregate for social pleasures and outdoor sports, Lakewood easily leads. It is but fifty-nine miles from New York and in the heart of the great pine region of New Jersey, proverbial for its sandy soil, light, resinous air and a perfect climate. The resort is a sanitarium only as one desires to make it, and the idea should be dispelled that none go there except for recuperation. On the contrary, Lakewood is a great social centre for all that wealth can conceive in the way of indoor and outloor pleasures and sports, and has a reputation as such which is world The delightful outdoor sports, golf, the hunt, skating on Lake Carasaljo, polo, driving, riding and cycling, are kept up from October until May, and no more healthful courses or roads vestibuled parlor car trains that depart at convenient hours from stations
