BIG HOLIDAY BUSINESS.

Merchants Declare It as Large as That of Last Year.

Holiday trade this year, according to the central city merchants, is as large, if not larger than it was last year when it was the heaviest in the city's his-In the department and other stores which handle holiday goods specialties, it was just possible to get in and out yesterday afternoon and last evening. As a rule the storekeepers report that the best goods are being bought.

It was somewhat of a surprise that the holiday trade should be so big. The merchants have been taught by pre vious experience of recent years that Scranton has great recuperative powers, but none, it is safe to say, figured on such a recuperation as the present colume of business indicated,

Six weeks ago money was scarce, business was extremely slow and col-lections very different. Today, the reverse is the case in every instance. Scranton never gave such an exhibition of her stability, the business men argue as she has since the close of the strike.

A CURIOUS COUNCILMAN.

City Solicitor Watson's Answer to a Question Asked.

A curious councilman handed in to City Solicitor Watson, yesterday, a Total sales 597,700 shares. paper bearing the written question: "Section 3 of the viaduct ordinance provides for a narrowing of the street ten feet on each side. Does this ten feet of property revert to the city?" Now, City Solicitor Watson has a very pronounced opinion on this sub-ject and that opinion is that the ten feet at present belongs to the city, being part of the street, and hence it will continue to belong to the city after the viaduct is erected, even though the viaduct will extend only from curb to

It has been suggested that a good and thus do away with the necessity of running them underneath the viaduct, To do this, however, would require an alteration of the plans.

FREIGHT OFFICES WILL CLOSE. Employes to Be Given Holidays Christmas and New Years.

All freight stations in the city will be closed on Christmas and New Year's days, except for about an hour in the morning to deliver perishable freight. No freight will be received for shipment on these days, and shippers are requested to note this.

The Wyoming and Lackawanna Valley Freight association, composed of local representatives of the various railroad companies, will hold their next meeting in New York after Christmas. The representatives who will in all probability attend, are:

W. J. Mullen, of the Pennsylvania railroad; J. B. Keefe, of the Lackawanna; H. E. Drinker and D. T. Yost, of the Lehigh Valley; W. E. Thayer, New Jersey Central; J. E. Welsh, Ontario and Western: J. C. Moffat, Erle: W. S. Little, of the Delaware and Hud-

A BOY'S CARELESSNESS.

Fired at a Target, but Shot Arthur

Arthur Rozelle, of 1012 Mark street, Arthur Rozelle, of 1012 Mark street, was out in the rear of his house yesterday afternoon, chopping wood, when someone nearby shot off a revolver. He heard one or two bullets whistle by his head and then felt a stinging pain in his left leg. Examination proved that his left leg. Examination proved that a bullet had just grazed the calf.

An investigation resulted in the discovery that a 14-year-old boy named Charley Zitz, living at 2501 Ash street, had been seen at the hour mentioned firing a revolver at a target placed near his home. The lad was arrested late last night by the police and will be given a hearing today.

SMALLPOX AT ARCHBALD.

One New Case Discovered There and Also in This City.

Another case of smallpox was discovered yesterday afternoon in the alread infected Slavish boarding house at Archbald, the sufferer being a little child. The authorities are pleased that as yet no case has developed in any other part of the borough and are hopeful of being able to hold it in check.

A new case of the disease was discovered in this city yesterday, the patient being Benjamin Phillips, who lives on the seventeen hundred block of Summit avenue. There are now nine cases of the disease in this city, seven being in the Emergency hospital on the West Mountain.

CALLED HIM A "SCAB."

Otto Schillinger Caused the Arrest of Three Young Men.

Magistrate W. S. Millar has decided that the calling of another man a "scab" is a misdemeanor, under the statutes of this state, and he last night held three young men, John Gothler, Joseph Taylor and Eb. Taylor, under $300 ball each for the offense.

The prosecutor was Otto Schillinger, of 1916 Jackson street, who worked about the Bellevue mine during the strike and who thus engendered a bitter feeling against himself. He swore last night on the stand that the three young men under arrest called him a "scab, and other vile names, as he was walking along Jackson street toward his home on Saturday night. His testimony was corroborated by three other

Wall Street Review. New York, Dec. 23 .- The rise in the call

New York, Dec. 22.—The rise in the call money rate to-day and the approach of the Christmas holiday combined to prompt operators in stocks to close up their accounts. The duration and the extent of the rise since the announcement of the formation of the bankers' $50,000,000 pool have kept the professional traders alert for signs of reaction on the theory that the recovery was going too far. No raiding tactics were aparent and the decline was rather gradual and in good order. The day's losses were quite uniform in The day's losses were quite uniform in the active list, ranging generally from 1 to 1 1-2. In the case of stocks where they were less or more than this, there were special circumstances to account for the movements. Sugar fell an extreme 2 3-4 below last night on account of the re-ports from Washington of preparations to oppose the Cuban reciprocity treaty on the part of an element of the beet sugar men. New York Central suffered owing to recent rumors that the dividend was to be increased. No such action was taken to-day, and the decreased net earnings reported by the New York Central and affiliated lines together with the return of the Canada Southern semi-annual nual dividend to 1 per cent had an un-favorable effect upon the Vanderbilt lines. Professed expectations of an increase in the Missouri Pacific dividend rate were also disappointed. On the other hand,
