CHRISTMAS MUSIC AT CHURCHES TO-MORROW

Attractive Programmes Arranged for the Services at Berean Baptist, Trinity Episcopal and St. Paul's Lutheran Churches.

In several of the churches tomorrow attractive musical programmes across of Christmas will be rendered. This special music will be heard in Berean Baptist, Trinity Episcopal, First Presbyterian and St. Paul's Lutheran churches. Owing to the Methodist congregation not occupying its own home, no specially prepared programme will be offered.

Berean Baptist Church.

At the 10:30 service in the Berean Baptist church the choir will sing the anthem, "Sing, O Heavens," by Clara and a duet, entitled "Songs of Praise the Angels Sing," will be rendered by Mrs. Whalen and Hugh Williams. The pastor, Rev. Dr. Whalen, will preach a sermon appropriate to the festive season. In the evening a special cantata, "The Prince of Peace," by Mrs. E. L. Ashford, will be rendered in two parts.

Trinity Church.

The music at Trinity can be measured with the high standard at these services. Among the numbers will be two solos by Miss Mina Frank. The programme for both services is as follows:

MORNING AT 10:30.

Prayer and Sermon on "The Place of Christ in Modern Thought." Venite "The Lily and the Prince." Book of Deuteronomy. Stander. Jubilate. Miss Louise Stearns. Hall Offering—Soprano Solo, "O Babe Divine." Miss Mina Frank.

EVENING AT 7:30.

Prayer and Sermon on "The Nativity." Magnificat in D. Field. Nunc Dimittis in D. Field. Solo—"The Christmas Star." Miss Mina Frank. Offering—"Hallelujah Chorus." Handel.

St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

For Sunday after Christmas there will be a series of interesting exercises. At 9:30 a. m. the usual church service; at 10:30 a. m. Sabbath school. In the evening the regular Christmas celebration will begin with an invocation and short address by the pastor, there will be a programme of vocal and instrumental music. Each of the Sunday school classes will contribute their share toward making the event varied and interesting. After a collection the Christmas tree will receive attention. The public is cordially invited to attend all services.

Pleased with Carbondale.

Edward C. White, of New York, who is now presenting "The Lily and the Prince" and several other dramatic successful productions, was in the city yesterday with Mildred Holland and her company. He came here specially from Birmingham, where the company played Christmas, because of the interest and admiration shown among Carbondalians toward Miss Holland.

STARTLED

By some sudden sound she drops the vase upon the floor. She is nervous and may be told that nervousness is a luxury which only a rich woman can afford to indulge in. Nervousness has cost many a woman her position. Sometimes when women run machinery the price of the nerves is nervousness is mutilation—a finger lost or perhaps the whole hand crushed. Nervousness in women is commonly but a symptom of womanly disease. It is useless in such cases to "doctor" for the nerves alone. Cure the disease which attacks the delicate womanly organism and nervousness will be cured also.

Unclaimed Letters.

List of letters remaining in the Carbondale postoffice December 26th, 1902, for persons unknown: E. A. Bliss, Geo. Brown, H. W. Conifer, Mat Gould, William Jones, Samuel Pearce, William Williams, Miss Elsie E. Crampton, Mrs. E. M. Gardner, Mrs. Horau, Mrs. Amanda M. Snyder, Ideal Clothing ware Co., Keystone Supply Co., Antonio Novelli, Tommie Chavallier.

Is Manager Now.

Victor Harmon, of New York city, who was present last year for Mildred Holland's production of "The Power Behind the Throne," was a welcome caller at The Tribune office yesterday. Mr. Harmon has been advanced since last season and is now manager of the production of "The Lily and the Prince," which Miss Holland's company produced at the Grand last night. He has a most engaging personality and is sure to make the friends of those with whom he has business relations. The fact that Edward White, who owns the production, has advanced Mr. Harmon since last season, is no small compliment to the latter's ability.

AMUSEMENTS.

A Splendid Play Assured. "Our New Minister," which will be at the Grand Monday night, seems to be better produced this year than last season. It is the first on the road. This play was at the Lyceum, Scranton, Christmas afternoon and evening. A few of the press opinions are as follows: "The characters were well cast and the production was thoroughly enjoyed. It is a strong play, full of interest and excellently elaborated." "The company is the same as when it appeared here on its second coming and is well chosen."

TOO MUCH CELEBRATION.

Overdoing with spirits, not exactly the product of the day, four West Side residents celebrated Christmas too well, but not wisely. Patrick Tighe, James Gilroy, Michael Clarke and Michael Loughney are the quartette. They occupied the home of Frank Wayman, on Shell avenue, were ejected and endeavored to re-enter. The second time they made an assault on the household, breaking in a door with a clothespole. There was considerable excitement and during the warmest stage, Mrs. Wayman was struck in the face with a stone. The quartette were arrested by Patrolman Carden, and were given a hearing before Alderman Atkinson yesterday forenoon. They were held in both, $1500 in all. All provided the security and were released with the exception of Loughney, who is still in jail.

GREELY SENT TO JAIL.

Frank Greely, of the Dunduff section, was sent to jail yesterday by Alderman Jones, in default of $500 bail, on a charge made by the wife of the accused. Greely, she says, has been extremely abusive and cruel and gave her a beating this week. He was also harsh to other members of his family. Constable Neary arrested Greely yesterday and took him for a hearing before Alderman Jones.

MARRIED ON CHRISTMAS.

Wedding of Miss Florence Delia Miller and George Nelson Marsh. Christmas day will be filled with happy remembrances in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller, of Tenth avenue, for on Thursday evening their daughter, Miss Florence Delia, was wedded to George Nelson Marsh. The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. A. F. Coffey, pastor of the First Methodist church. The young couple were united in the parlor, which was bright with decorations and filled with well-wishing friends. The bride and groom stood before a bank of palms, while overhead was an arch of evergreen.

PECKVILLE.

Homer English has returned from Los Angeles, Cal. Mr. English, since his departure some nine months ago, has visited many places in New Mexico and California. When leaving Los Angeles only a few days ago, roses were in bloom and vegetation was luxuriant. Mr. and Mrs. Jewett McCormick celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary on Tuesday evening. They were married in New Orange, N. J., December 23, 1853. After living at Newburgh, N. Y., for the period of two years, they moved to Archbald and for the past forty-eight years Archbald and Peckville have been their home. Eight children have been born to them. They are now living, Irving, of Scranton, and Herbert, of Peckville. Mrs. McCormick is aged 65 years, while Mr. McCormick passed his eightieth milestone on Thursday. Next day relatives were present at the anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. McCormick were the recipients of a beautiful china tea set. Mr. and Mrs. McCormick are held in high esteem by the whole community, and all join in wishing them a long and happy life.

OUR HIGHEST MOUNTAIN.

The total output of anthracite coal from Pennsylvania in 1920 was 365 tons. This coal was taken entirely from the Lehigh Valley region, and it was not until several years afterward that mining was commenced in the other anthracite regions of the state. The first shipments from the Schuylkill region were in 1822, and the first from the Wyoming district in 1829, when 1,890 and 7,099 tons, respectively, were shipped from these sections. The growth of coal mining from that time to the present forms an interesting commentary on the industrial development of the country. With but slight variations the increase in the anthracite coal production has been remarkably steady, until the insignificant output in the first quarter of the last century has been equalled by the enormous production in 1900 of 45,107,484 long tons.

DALTON.

The Christmas exercises were held this week in the different churches of the town and a very enjoyable time was had at all of them. On Tuesday evening the mission band of the Six Principle Baptist church rendered a pleasing programme. A very unpleasant and for a time exciting part was the burning of Rev. Mr. Perkins, who was impersonating Santa Claus. The altitude and moisture were determined from a distance by Robert Muldrow, of the same survey.
