CLAIRTOWANCE.—A few days before the bares, an the safety of the Atlantic reached our shores, an article went the round of some of the public prints, purporting to be the revelations of three several clairvoyants of the city of New York as a coveral clairvoyants of the city of New York as INDIANAPOLIS AND BELLEFONTAINE BAIL-BOAD to the fate of that vessel. They stated that she had gone ashore on some cost, and that very few, and they badly frozen, had escaped. Of course we did not publish the article at the time; because we have little disposition to sport with because we have fittle unposted.

Those feelings of sympathy which were so univertions feelings of sympathy which were so univertions feelings of sympathy which were so univertions feelings of sympathy with the sympathy wi well enough to laugh at; but when it is converte

THE QUINCY MURDER AND SUICIDE. The Baltimore Sun of yesterday publishes the following article, which appears to identify the parties of the tragedy at Quincy, Mass.; recorded this week, and known there as John Green and George Sands. The day of disappearance of the control of the Chicago of Sands, the 14th of October, accords that to be Monday, the 14th of October, accords that their appearance in this city, on their way to the East, which according to the memorandum found in their room, was about the 22nd of October.

Now was vectorial would not be a realismon.

We were yesterday called on by a genileman, who informed us that he fully recognizes the parties to this mystery, us having been John Grieve and his wife Hannah—the first the son of Mr. Peter Grieve, of Zanesville, Ohio, and the latter the daughter-of Mr. John Banks, of the same place. If los states that they were noticed for their remantic tricks, and that the wife has been known to attend lectures dressed in male-ratifre, where no lone but males were admitted, and that they made a practice of going out in a boat in the Muskingum river, she attired as a male, for the purpose of salling, bathing, &c.

The following, publishedin the Sun, of the 24th of Oktober last, is the last that had been heard of the parties at Zanesville—— of the parties at Zanesville:

Dearn or Drowsixe.—The Zanesville Gatette records the death of Mr. and Mrs. John trivere. They were in the half of the month of the man and the John trivere. They were in the half of the month of the man and they floated upon the Mrs. John the John the John the Mrs. John they lad their beat was found bottom side up, and the shawl and basket of Mrs. Orieve. Their bodies had not been found.

It was also stated, in more detailed accounts published at the time of their disappearance, that side was dressed in males attire; and our informant further states that the description of the parties; published in the John on Thesday and systerically is precisely that of the missing John Mrs. Grieve was young and very intelligent; write, both prose and poetry, with considerable merit, but was of a marked romantic disposition so fauch so that when generally supposed to be drowned, these who knew them beat believed that it was but another; romainic freak, and that they would again be heard from.
