

To the Whigs of Pennsylvania.

THE STATE CONVENTION... We are indebted to Mr. Hampton for important public documents.

Much disappointment and regret is felt in this community, at the defeat in the Senate of the appropriation bill...

Our representative, Mr. Hampton, has done everything which could be done...

Several phenomena, such as shaking of tables, rattling of chairs, etc., were observed...

This episode, of course, brought a reply from the Happers, in which the medical gentlemen were defied to test the truth of their theory...

LETTERS AND ALIGNMENT PLATE ROAD COMMISSIONERS... The stockholders of the above Company held a meeting at Babersville...

Samuel M. Lane, President, J. Campbell, David Walker, T. H. Lyon, C. F. Spang, and T. W. Shaw, Messrs. James Jones, Treasurer...

FREE BAZAAR... The Harrisburg Telegraph, in an article published the reference of the Free Bazaaring bill...

MATTERS AT HARRISBURG... We are still without our Harrisburg Letters. From the papers we glean whatever interests this region.

Mr. Frazier had in place a bill, to prohibit the making of contracts for paying interest on loans or mortgages in any case, except in the Pennsylvania currency.

Mr. Brooke offered a resolution, providing for the holding of a public meeting on Tuesday and Friday, which was adopted.

The following joint resolution was read and adopted: Resolved, That the thanks of this Legislature be extended to the Hon. Daniel Webster...

On motion of Mr. Frazier, the bill to amend the act incorporating the Pennsylvania Railroad Company...

THE HOCHSTETTER RAPPINGS SILENCED.

A few days ago, three well known medical gentlemen, Messrs. Austin Flint, Charles A. Lee, and C. B. Conroy, published a card in the Buffalo Commercial Advertiser...

The official card was administered to the President, and the members present, by the Hon. Judge Parsons, President of the Board of Health...

The election of Assistant Clerk, was then postponed for the present on motion of Mr. Williamson, who stated that he was unacquainted with all the candidates...

The following nominations for Assistant Clerk, were made: R. D. McKee, J. M. Ginn, J. T. James, James Dawson.

On motion of Mr. Williamson, 10 o'clock in the morning, and 1 o'clock in the afternoon, were the regular meeting of the Board.

To the Editor of the Pittsburgh Gazette: We are the Association of $75,000,000 of Cotton Goods, Textile, etc., etc.

The mercantile interest in the upper and lower ends of the large bore of the left tube, near the knee joint, are brought into action...

This is affected by the weight of the limb, without any obvious movement of the limb, occasioned by the return of the leg to its normal position...

Several phenomena, such as shaking of tables, rattling of chairs, etc., were observed...

This episode, of course, brought a reply from the Happers, in which the medical gentlemen were defied to test the truth of their theory...
