PITTSBURGH GAZETTE. THE BETTER MINISTER AND THE "CELTS" The speech of Sir Henry Bulwer at the St. Jeorge's dinner, contained the following passage, it allation to the forgery in the "Boston Celt." newspaper devoted to the cause of Irish Reeal: if Now, people usually, advertise when they have lost any property; but I wish to advertise that I have lost no property at all—(laughter); and, although it is natural to conjecture from the semi-barbarous, semi-clad and Celic origin of my Boston friend—(laughter)—that he had been my Boston friend—(laughter)—that he had been guilty of the crime of which he boasted, namely: theft—he has, in reality, been guilty of an offence which more appropriately belongs to a further advanced stage of pantaloons andrefinement—(laughter)—I mean forgery; another example, by the way, of the general maxim, that all sages, whether Celic or otherwise, when they sages, whether Celic or otherwise, when they take to inhabiting cities, even such moral cities as Boston, adopt the vices without acquiring the virtues or the graces of civilized life."

These remarks created a tremendous excitementin (hew York, among that class of Iriahmen who claim to be pure blooded Celts, and wish to keep up a good old fashioned war of races with the "Saxons." Sir Henry Bulwer, not wishing that offence should be taken where none was intended, addressed the following note to the President of the six Patrick's Boetley:
