

PITTSBURGH GAZETTE

Published by W. H. C. CO. PITTSBURGH, TUESDAY MORNING, MAY 12, 1891.

First page—Address of the South Carolina Rights Convention, with the resolutions adopted by that body. Also, our new Yearly Correspondence, Commercial News, &c.

Our Illustrations—A large majority of our readers, like ourselves, will be provided by various circumstances, from visiting the new and improved Exhibition in London, one of the most singular and important events of this or any other age.

REVISION IN SOUTH CAROLINA—It must be confessed that the aspect of affairs in South Carolina, is sufficiently serious to excite the anxiety of every loyal and patriotic citizen of the United States, and of the peace and prosperity of the Republic.

SPIRITUAL MANIFESTATIONS

We find the following communication, addressed to the editor of the Pennsylvania Democrat, published in Uniontown, Pa. In reading it, we were first tempted to make extracts, but finally concluded to publish it entire, as one of the most extraordinary instances of faith, the unexplained brought forth by the credulity of this exciting and progressive age.

Dear Sir—You say you are a believer in the spiritual manifestations—no, it is every true and honest mind who has given attention to the subject. For the last two months, I have almost hourly communication with the spirits of the dead, through the medium of a young lady, who has given attention to the subject.

HOME MATTERS.

UNITED STATES COURT. Before the Honorable Judge Irwin.

An application was made by C. Black in the case of the United States vs. Joseph Stanley, charged with perjury, for a continuance, owing to the absence of material witnesses.

UNITED STATES vs. Salmo Astin, indictment, passing counterfeit coin. Joseph Thompson was in a police office, and the prisoner in Allegheny city last March, when I went over for the purpose of ferreting out a gang of counterfeiters, of whose movements I had some information.
