PITTSBURGH GAZETTE. PURLIBHED DY WHITE A UO.

PITTSBURGH. THURSDAY MORNING, JAN. 1, 1852.

READING MATTER WILL BE FOUND ON EACH PAGE OF THIS PAPER.

New Year's Day being a hollidny, and our bands insisting upon enjoying it free from labor, we shall publish no paper to-morrow.

BENENBER THE CARRIERS, -- Our carriers wi wait upon the customers of the Gazette to-day with a New Year's gift, and confidently look t be remembered by those they have faithfully served through heat, frost, rain and supw for the last year ... Their labors are arduous and untiring, and custom has authorized them to expect the perquisite which flows from hearts, on the morning of the glad New Year.

"A HAPPY. NEW-YEAR," will burst this mo ing from many a lip, and the true import of th joyous salutation will well up in deep earnest bess from some hearts. We join in the jubilar ery to all with whom we hold daily converse ing to all as large a share of bliss as is co sistent with the chequered scene in which with dom and goodness have placed us. Hanniness is found in the calm, warm sur shine of the heart, not in boisterous merrimen -in imparting pleasure, rather than in seeking i -in the quiet smile which betokens a bene lent heart, rather than in the selfish gratifics tion of our appetites. A quiet New-Year is a
