PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.

This beautiful song, by Gen. G. P. Morris, music by W. V. Wallace, Esq., was sung by Miss Catharine Hays, in commemoration of Thanksgiving day, at her concert in this city.—Evening Post.

SEARCHER OF HEARTS.

(THY WILL BE DONE.)

Searcher of hearts, from mine erase
All thoughts that should not be,
And in its deep recesses trace
My gratitude to thee.

Hearer of prayer! oh, guide aright
Each word and act of mine;
Life's battles teach me how to fight,
And be the victory thine.

Giver of all! for every good
In the Redeemer name;
For shelter, raiment, and for food,
I thank Thee in His name.

Father and Son and Holy Ghost,
Thou glorious Three in one,
Thou knowest best what I need most,
And let thy will be done.

A SLOW BOAT.

There was a steamboat coming up the Mississippi one dark night, and the CAPTAIN, according to "time-honored usage," was playing cards in the Social Hall. The mate stepped in:

"Captain, out of wood; not enough to heat water to shave with."

"Ring the bell," replied the captain, 'show a light and scare some up along the shore."

The mate went out and the captain went on with the game. In a few moments the mate returned.

"Found a boat, sir."

The captain left the table and went out.

"How do you sell your wood?" shouted the captain to the people at the yard.

"Two and a half."

"Too much," said the captain "However, take a cord or two and look further."

A couple of cords were taken in, the game was resumed in the Social Hall, and the boat went on. A half hour elapsed, when the mate again appeared.

"Out of wood, sir."

"Land a light—my deal."

The orders were obeyed, and the mate again announced a wood-yard. The captain went out.

"What's the price of wood?"

"Two and a half."

"Too high; but will take a couple of cords till we can do better."

As before, a couple of cords were taken in, and not twenty minutes elapsed before the mate again appeared.

"Out of wood, sir."

"Ring the bell."

"Better take more this time."

"Show a light."

"It's done, sir."

In a few minutes a wood-yard was again "rung up," and the steamer B —— went in.

"How do you sell your wood?"

"Two and a half."

"Two and a half be d —— d!" cried the Capt.

"Well, captain," answered the woodman, "we will put it to you this time at two and a quarter, as this makes the third time you have wooded with us to-night."

The captain had nothing to say, but took the wood, and got quickly out of that stiff current, which the boat was unable to stem. The B —— was so "solemnly slow" that the captain himself used to say she must have been intended for a hearse. She is in the same boat which the newspapers once said made the trip from New Orleans to Louisville in six days and—four weeks!—Western Scenes.

It acts like magic in relieving pains of any kind, no matter by what caused or how excruciating, inflammation of the joints, cuts, bruises, burns, scalds, ulcers, cancers, rheumatism, piles, caked breasts, sore throat, stiffness, or weakness of joints, muscles or ligaments.
