HIGHLY INTERENTING TRIAL. We give below the substance of the testimony, the arguments of the counsel, and the decision of his honor, Judge Irwin, of the United States District Court, in the case of the United States res. J. L. Chapman, indicted for robbing the mail. JUVERILE DEPRAVITY .--- It has long been known to the police that there were a large number of m the ages of six to sixteen, regularly engaged in this city in an organized sys-ularly engaged in this city in an "organized sys-tem of plunder, but although frequently defected, the youth of the unfortnuste little creatures prevented those from whom files pilfered from laying any information against them, so that they invariably ësosped. Gathering boldness from continued impluity, they have of late, con-siderably-extended the spere of their operations, and carried on their depredations on a larger scale, so that it was files incereasary for some of our citizens to call for the interposition of the polics. On Tuesday two little girls, who were detect-ed in the set of stealing were arrested aul cou-ressions which yesterday led to the arrest of free more. A boase in Allegheny, where the goods which they had stolen were deposited, was gearched, and it was found to contain a minech-angeons autoriome io critices of different king tem of plunder, but although frequently detected, the youth of the unfortunate little creatures the jury. It appears that the prisoner was arrest the 10th of December last, between 9 a o'clock in the morning, and taken to the May-or's office in this city. About two hours after-o'clock in the morning, and taken to the May-or's office in this city. About two hours after-wards, from inducements held out to him by the contession of his guilt to that officer. He was afterwards removed to another part of the build-ing, and there confined for forty-two hoars, and from thence again taken to the Mayor's office, either by officer Hague, who arcested blin, or some other constable. Here, the Mayor, not having been informed of his previous confer-sion, examined the prisoner and received his confession as above mentioned. During this ex-amination, constable Hague passed several times into and out of the office. Had the Mayor been apprised of the previous confession-it, would have been his duty to have told the prisoner, previous to his examination, in addition to the usual caution, that the prem-ises made by the constable were delusive, and unauthorized; and to make him clearly under-stand that's any thing he was about to confess, must noit is with the bope or expectation of having the slighter favor shown to him in case of conviction. Without with information to the prisoner, may it not be a rational conclusion, that the coufossion which followed was made under the influence of the previous confess, the time term the concessions, if there had been no change in the irroundances which had preceded and induced the previous confess. It is immaterial what length of time may have elapsed fibtween the two confessions, if there had been no change in the circumstances or situa-tion of the prinoner. Itad he been at liberty, among friends, with opportunity for advice and reflection, a voluntary confession afterwards made would probably not he liable to legal oh-ment, ho was taken to the room in which he made his first confession, and under the eye of

made would probably not he liable hit events made would probably not he liable hit events pletion; but after some bours of close confine-ment, he was taken to the room in which he made his first confession, and under the eye of the police officer to how in twas made, he re-peats to the Mayor all he had, confessed to the police officer, without any knowledge by the Mayor of that confession, and without any ref-erence to it. Beforeheuch confession can be receiv-ed in evidence, the Court must he convinced that the mind of the prisoner was entirely free from the under influence under which he made his first confession. But the circumstances of this case afford no room for such conclusion; on the contrary, they leave strong reason to infer that the hast examination was but intended to put in due form of law the first confession, and that the promise. Of shore continued as first made. This conclusion may he ropelled by eri-bines of such evidence, the legal presumption is that the influence which induced the confe-sion to Hague, continued when it was made to the Mayor. The paper offered in evidence pur-porting to be the confession of the prisoner be-fire the Mayor, must therefore be rejected. No other evidence appearing against him, the jary acquitted the prisoner.
