

At the annual meeting of the Allegheny Bible Society, held January 26, 1882, in the Beaver street M. E. Church, Rev. A. W. Black in the chair, the following reports were read and adopted, and ordered to be published in all papers favorable to the cause:

Annual Report of the Allegheny Bible Society. The managers of the Allegheny Bible Society present their annual report with sincere gratitude to God for his continued smiles on this institution.

The society has been steadily increasing their donations to the parent society during the previous year, $500, 700, 800, and finally $1000 had been pledged—and each pledge redeemed within the year.

At the commencement of the last year, however, the pecuniary embarrassments, resulting from the stoppage of nearly all the factories in the city, and other causes, were so great, that it seemed to be the duty of the Association, to diminish rather than increase the amount of their expenditures.

They would remember, however, that much as may have been done, it is but little when compared with the mighty work which yet remains. The untrodden field is wide and dreary, demanding all the zeal and compassion of the Christian world to render to him from his dim and far separated dwellings.
