THE BIRTH NIGHT SUPPRE AT WASHINGTON-Breece of Ges. Scott.—On Saturday creeing fast, the Congressional Banquet, in honor of Washington's Birth Day, toke place at Washington. Com. Stockton presided. Speeches were mude by Mr. Crittenden, Mr. Bayley, of Va., Judge Wayne, Gen. Scott, Senator Stockton others, all of whom pronounce against Interven were of the most reprehensible and insulting character. Nothing better could be expected from that quarter. It was announced before Anti-Kossutii movement, so that we were no pointed in the character of the proceedings It is painful, however, to see such assemblages of our great men sneering at the cause o highest our great measureming at the cause of liberty in Europe, and throwing their whole weight against the crushed and struggling Re-publican party there. They could not spare one tookst of sympathy, one encouraging word, to those whose longing eyes are turned towards us for counsel and hope. They could, however, insult the eloquent advocate of European liberty, at least entitled to the rites of hospitality, if no to succor. Selfishness, egotism, self-laudation and vain glory, marked their proceedings. Me
