Ladies!! Read This!!!

IN THE PRESS, and will shortly be ready, "THE HANDMAID TO THE PIANO: containing a progressive and systematic course of instruction in the art of playing the Piano Forte, in which it is hoped, about 200 in number, the method of fingering is carefully explained, and the pupil is led by the hand, as it were, to a thorough knowledge of the instrument.
Every person having a Piano should have a copy of this book. No work of the kind has ever been published in this country, and the publishers feel confident, from its price—one dollar—and, among other advantages, it will be found invaluable to those residing remote from Pittsburgh, or unskilful tuners.
Ladies and gentlemen in the office of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, desiring work, from one to three days in a week, can find the greatest facility of getting it, as the publishers intend to make it the cheapest and most popular work of the kind ever published, so that a person of one may be induced to purchase it. Should the publishers not succeed in their endeavors to render the work as above described, they will refund the money to any purchaser, and thus save them the trouble of sending it back. The publishers solicit an inspection of the work, at the office of publication, No. 139 Second street, Pittsburgh, where copies may be had, and orders left for the same.
Every person purchasing a Piano should have a copy of this book. It will be found invaluable to those residing remote from Pittsburgh, or unskilful tuners.
