the votes of Maryland, Virginia, North Care lina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Flori-da, Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas, Missouri, Tonnessee, Kentucky, Texas, and California,—

The intention of the Ministry it was supposed, was to go on quietly with the government to the close of the year, without coming to any issue on free trade. This the opposition will not conanter receiving Mr. Diracell's reply, summoned's meeting of the free trade members—of Parliamentiat his house. The number present was 168. At this meeting it was unanimously resolved, that while all factious opposition should be avoided, a direct demand should be made for solved, that while all factious opposition should be avoided, a direct demand should be made for an explanation. The object, it was alleged, a thorough revision of the Tariff entertain conwas to place the commercial, the agricultural sident hopes of success.

and the general interests of the country, in a trial bighly probable that the Secretary of condition to transact their business and attrange, their engagements with a clear knowledge of what is to be expected for the future. The simple inquiry therefore, would be whether the Administration of Lord Derby meant to carry out the policy of free trade, or to attempt to reverse it. Lord John suggested that
