HOME MATTERS.

NEW POST OFFICES.—The Post Master General has established a new post office at Courtneyville, Allegheny County, and appointed John W. Moore postmaster.

A post office has likewise been established at Hope Church, in this County, of which William McKee is postmaster.

The Westminster Review for January, and Blackwood's Magazine for March have been received by W. A. Gildenfenny & Co., No. 76 4th street, and A. Miner & Co., 32 Smithfield street, who are agents for the British Reviews and Blackwood.

ARRIVED.—Col. Wilson McCandless returned home on Saturday. During his absence in the East, he has been laboring strenuously in the cause of temperance, and his eloquent addresses have attracted much attention both in Philadelphia and Harrisburgh.

RETURNED.—The Honorable Cornelius Darragh, Alderman Steel, Captains Denny, Rowley and Porter, and Mr. Wickersham of Allegheny City, the delegates from Allegheny County to the Whig State Convention, recently held in Harrisburgh, returned to this city on Saturday.

From the advertisement of the Insurance Co. of North America, it will be seen that this old and substantial company have concluded to continue their agency in this city. W. P. Jones, at his office, 141 Fourth Street, is ready to take risks as usual.

COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS.—Before the Honorable William B. McClure, President, and Wm. Boggs Associate Judge.

The case of the Commonwealth vs. Hiram Richards, indictment larceny, was taken up. The defendant was accused of entering the store of Patrick O'Neil, at the corner of Craig and Locust streets in Allegheny City, on the 25th of January last, and taking therefrom the till containing about thirty dollars. Mrs. O'Neil came into the store at the time, saw him take it, and swore positively that the prisoner was the same person.

On the part of the defence, a number of witnesses were called who proved an alibi. The jury after having been addressed by P. C. Shannon, Esq., for the defendant, and E. C. Flanigin, Esq., for the Commonwealth, retired, and after a short absence returned a verdict of not guilty. The defendant was discharged by proclamation.

Commonwealth vs John Sum and Andrew Elliott; indictment assault and battery. Mrs. Elizabeth McMillan, the prosecutrix, swore that she was seized by the defendants, on the 15th of February, 1852, and dragged to the watch house in Allegheny City, where she was kept all night. Mr. Suee is a police officer, and had a warrant for the arrest of the prosecutrix, issued on oath of Andrew Elliot. She was fined next morning on the charge preferred against her, $2 75.

The defendants proved that they bore most excellent characters by the testimony of several very respectable witnesses, and, after having been addressed by Cornelius Darragh Esq., for the defendant, and S. W. Black, Esq., for the Commonwealth, and been charged by his honor Judge McClure, the jury retired, but had not returned any verdict when the Court adjourned.

DISTRICT COURT.—Before the Hon. Judge Forward.

The case of James C. McFarland vs. R. W. Poindexter and A. W. Culbertson, impleaded with Charles H. Grant, No. 470, April 1852. List No. 182, was then taken up, George P. Hamilton, Esqr. appeared for the plaintiff, C. O. Loomis, Esq., for defendant.

This was an action brought to recover $1500, the proceeds of a cargo of sugar and molasses, alleged to have been sold by defendants on account of the plaintiff. The case was not concluded when the Court adjourned.

Before the Hon. Judge Williams.

Doctor John B. McGrew vs. the Administrators of John McNutt. No. 468, April 1851, List No. 180. Moses Hampton, Esq., for plaintiff, Robert Woods, Esq., for defendants.

This was an action on the case, brought to recover one thousand dollars, the alleged value of medical services rendered by plaintiff to the deceased. Mr. McNutt was, or thought that he was afflicted with the dropsy, and, it was contended, promised the plaintiff one thousand dollars if he would cure him, but would give nothing if he were not cured. The deceased declared, after a course of treatment, that he was cured, and subsequently died from a rupture of some blood vessel. Case not concluded.

SINGULAR CASE.—A woman named Mary Harnshon yesterday laid an information before Alderman Parkinson, charging an old man named John F. Hutchison, a resident of the Ninth Ward, with forcibly detaining in his house Mrs. Hutchison's little daughter, a child about eight years old. It appears from her evidence that her daughter, in company with some other children, went into defendant's house, where he illegally detained her, and refused to let her mother enter the house. A warrant was issued.

DISORDERLY CONDUCT.—An unfortunate woman named Arminta Sewell was yesterday committed to prison for fifteen days by Alderman Davis, on a charge of disorderly conduct.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—Amanda Marshall yesterday laid a complaint before Alderman McCune, of the Ninth Ward, charging John Hutchinson with assault and battery. He was held in $50 bail in the sum of three hundred dollars.

LARCENY.—Alderman Steel yesterday committed William McCreary to prison. The defendant is charged, on oath of William B. McConoughue, with stealing two accordeons of the value of seven dollars from him on Saturday night.

BAGGAGE CAR.—The loss by the burning of the baggage car on the Central Railroad, noticed in yesterday's Gazette, will not, as we are informed, amount to more than ten thousand dollars. Mr. McFadden, of Cadiz, Ohio, took down a list of the passengers who had lost their baggage either in whole or in part, and their number was found to amount to seventy.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE.—For April, in which is commenced "Hilas Barnaby," a new novel, has been received by Reed & Cuthbert, Third street, opposite the Post Office.

HARPER'S Monthly Magazine for April, has been received at W. A. Gildenfenny & Co., 76 Fourth st. This number contains Dickens' new work, "Bleak House," and a continuation of "Abbott of Aberbrothock," also, Howitt's Life of Louis Kossuth.

According to the Philadelphia North American the trade of that city is very active, and the Pennsylvania Railroad has more freight upon it than it can carry. That paper says:

The quantity of freight transported over the Central railroad, daily, is two hundred tons weight, and the press of the demand for conveyance is so great at this time, that the Company are compelled to limit their receipts to the amount of goods they can certainly and punctually carry through. Some idea of the extraordinary briskness of trade here at the present moment, may be formed from the fact that for a day or two past, hundreds of drays heavily loaded with packages, boxes, bales, &c., for the West have been standing, close upon each other, in a line reaching four or five squares in length, waiting access to the depot of the Pennsylvania railroad in a regular order of succession. This state of things continues all day, and on Monday, a large row of drays remained the whole night stationary in the street, rather than turn out of the line, and thereby lose the progress they had already made towards the place of discharge. With the large number of hands employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to receive freight, it was found impossible to despatch the business as rapidly as the pressure of it required; and, to prevent its accumulation to an extent threatening serious embarrassment and confusion, it became necessary to provide that carts, &c., loaded with merchandize intended for passage over the line, should pass to the depot in strict rotation. It is only by the injunction of such system, inconvenient as it may appear to be to individuals, that the immense labor to be done can go on with any sort of facility and order, and that justice can be secured to the multitude of persons whose interests are to be served.

The New York Tribune says of the last hundred murders committed in that State, ninety of them would never have been perpetrated had it not been for intoxicating liquors. Of the 1600 criminals in the State prison, seven-eights are either the children of drunkards, or themselves maddened by liquor. Of 18,000 persons arrested in one year on charges of crime and misdemeanor, less than 60 were total abstinents. Nine-tenths of the paupers in the almshouse were either tipplers, or were reduced to want by the tippling of others.

LABOR DURING.—The amount of freight shipped on Tuesday by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, for the West, was 481,000 pounds. All of this passed over one scale, and after being weighed and marked, was loaded into cars and taken to West Philadelphia, before nine o'clock in the evening.

BY TELEGRAPH.

RECEIVED BY THE O'REILLY TELEGRAPH LINE, AND REPORTED FOR THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, March 27, 1852.

HOUSE—After a call of the House, the main question was about to put under the previous question, when

Mr. Marshall, of Kentucky, moved to lay the bill on the table. Negatived—yeas 76, nays 97.

Amendments to the bill were severally concurred in, including one requiring that appropriations for Indians be paid directly to the tribe to whom it belonged, and not to any attorney or agent representing tribes, and forbidding the Executive in future to recognise any contract between any tribe and an attorney or agent for the prosecution of any claims on Government under this act. The bill then passed, yeas 96, nays 76.

WASHINGTON, March 29.

SENATE.—The Chair presented an answer from the Secretary of War to a resolution of inquiry, asking information relative to charges against the Mexican Boundary Commission, stating that no such charges had been filed in the Department, but are in private hands.

Mr. Seward presented five petitions for the repeal of the Fugitive Slave Law, and moved their reference to the Judiciary Committee.—They were, on motion, laid on the table, by a vote of 32 to 11.

Mr. Seward also presented petitions asking Congress to take measures for the extinction of Slavery, which were laid on the table, by a vote of 36 to 6. The nays were Dodge, of Wisconsin, Foote, of Vermont, Hale, Seward, Sumner, and Chase.

The Deficiency Bill from the House was then taken up, and referred to the Committee on Finance.

HOUSE—Mr. Brown, of Mississippi, moved a suspension of the rules for the purpose of introducing a resolution to take up the Senate bills, giving priority to those not giving rise to debate.

Mr. Clingman objected.

Mr. Jones suggested to take up the Senate bills, the reference of which would not be objected to.

Mr. Stanton asked leave to report a bill to enforce the discipline in the Navy. Leave was granted, and he reported a bill providing for punishment in the Navy. In a speech of some length he explained the bill, and urged the passage of the bill. In place of the bill, he proposes to punish sailors for offences by diminishing their rations, and restricting them to diet of bread and water. In cases of theft, in addition to wear a badge bearing the word "thief" upon it; and to change the statute of solitary confinement to the wearing of a ball and chain, and the deprivation of liberty on shore, &c. are likewise to be provided as an inducement to good behavior. A system of rewards is also incorporated. The committee proposed to strike out the penalty of the thief badge.

Mr. Stanton said that the commanders of the squadrons about to sail are anxious for the passage of the bill, and he would urge its prompt passage.

Objection was made by Mr. Stanton, who wished it postponed, and made the order of the day for Thursday.

The demand for the previous question was made, and sustained, which cut off the motion to postpone.

The claim requiring a guilty sailor to wear a badge with the word thief on it, was stricken out.

NEW YORK, March 27.

PHILADELPHIA, March 27.

A great fire broke out in this city, on Saturday night, about midnight, in an alley between Chestnut and Market streets, and was not extinguished until daylight. The following are the persons who were burnt out:—A. J. Sowers & Co., importers of foreign goods, totally destroyed—loss $25,000; the store of Gibson & Co, and Wyeth, Rogers & Co, importers of laces and fancy goods—loss of former, $15,000, and of latter, $10,000; by smoke and water. The fire next destroyed entirely the store of Stewart & Brothers, stock on hand $600,000—English and French goods—loss $300,000; silk store of E. M. Davis & Co., adjoinining—stock damaged to the amount of $6000—loss fully covered by insurance in Philadelphia, New York and London offices. The stores were very large, and run through from Bank street to Strawberry Alley, and were the most extensive importing houses in the city.

PHILADELPHIA, March 29.

A large meeting was held here to-night in the Commercial Fund Hall, against a branch mint at New York.

Speeches were made and resolutions adopted, setting forth that such a measure would entail large and useless expenditure upon the people, and is justified by no adequate grounds of public convenience, and is unworthy of popular and legislative favor.

The resolutions also characterize the effort made by New York for a branch mint, as an indirect attempt to remove the mint from Philadelphia.

Col. Patterson, Morton McMichael and several other prominent gentlemen addressed the meeting.

WISTAR'S

BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

The best Remedy ever known to Man.

Coughs, Asthma Colds, Croup, Bronchitis, Influenza, Bleeding of the Lungs, Difficulty of Breathing, Liver affections, Pain or weakness in the breast or side, First Stages of Consumption, &c.

In Short, this Balsam is peculiarly adapted to every disease of the Lungs and Liver, which is produced in our ever varying climate.

WILD CHERRY HAS LONG BEEN known to possess important medicinal properties. This fact is familiar to every matron in our land, and physicians often prescribe it in a variety of forms for different complaints. Tar, also has been equally noted for its virtues, and to so phy sicians, whose names are familiar to the country, have come so far as to declare that even CONSUMPTION could be cured by that alone. In other hands, it was nearly valueless, owing no doubt, to their ignorance in preparing and administering it—a difficulty now entirely obviated by patient experiment and long experience.

The extraordinary medicinal qualities of these two substances are now, for the first time, combined and embodied in Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. By a nice chemical process, everything deleterious or useless is rejected, so that what remains is the most extraordinary and truly efficacious remedy for all pulmonary complaints and liver diseases ever known to man. To convince all who believes that our theory is really true, we refer to a few cases of cures performed by this wonderful medicine.

ANOTHER ASTONISHING CURE.

E. Sails, a highly respectable merchant of Rodenville, Fairfield county, Ohio, went on the following voluntary tribute to the Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry:

RODENVILLE, Fairfield Co., Ohio, April 6, 1851.

MR. J. B. PARK—Dear Sir:—I wish to state to you that my daughter, Amanda, aged about 20 years, was last year since, a very severe attack of measles, which so injured her lungs that a cough, with all the distressing symptoms of consumption, supervened. Physicians were employed by the physicians within our reach for the purpose of relieving her, but without success. At length she appeared to be sinking into a decline, with every symptom of consumption.

I then tried Dr. Keyser's Liverwort and Tar. But this aggravated her cough, and gave her symptoms of a bilious fever, which caused me to think her recovery was alarmed and it was with trembling fear that I, from day to day, saw the progress of that most dreadful disease consumption. I really despaired of my daughter's recovery. I then bought, and she took half a bottle of your Balsam of Wild Cherry, whose daughter, Sarah Jane, was also in consumption, by Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, that created a final hope. And such has it been in my case, for it immediately commenced curing it, and it almost instantly gave relief, for health was restored to my daughter, and I attribute by the use of two bottles of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. Mr. Stanton said that the commanders of the squadrons about to sail are anxious for the passage of the bill, and he would urge its prompt passage.

I will say to all that are afflicted with any disease tending to consumption, to call and get a bottle of the Balsam of Wild Cherry will cure you, if you will but fix it according to directions.

Yours truly,

E. SAILS.

PLEASANT RIDGE, Hamilton county, O., Sept. 29, 1850.

J. B. Park—Dear Sir—I take the liberty of advising any of the hopeless that I have derived from the use of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. I was attacked with that terrible scourge, consumption, in May last. The attack was of such violence as to set at defiance all the skill of our physicians and others had died of consumption. I was affected with severity all the symptoms of that disease, and had a distressing cough and expectorated a great deal of blood, together with pus. My friends gave me up for dead, and while attending with Doctor of Medicine, one night sweats.

I was put under the care of a skilful physician, from the time I was taken sick, until about six weeks since, being then about helpless, and my friends entertained no hope of me, and from the report that I commenced using it, I was able to be out and over my business. All proposals to be handed to Mr. Kerr before 6 o'clock, P. M., on the days above specified.
