PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.

A Sermon on the Folly of Scolding.

"Fret not thyself in any way to do evil."

I.—IT IS A SIN AGAINST GOD.

It is an evil and only evil; and that continually. David understood both human nature and the law of God. He says, "Fret not thyself in any way to do evil." That is, never fret or scold; it is always a sin. If you cannot speak without fretting or scolding, keep silence.

II.—IT DESTROYS AFFECTION.

No one ever did, ever can, or ever will love an habitual fretter, fault-finder, or scolder. Husbands, wives, children, relatives, or domestics, have no affection for peevish, fretful fault-finders. Few tears are shed over the graves of such. Persons of high moral principle may tolerate them; may bear with them. But they cannot love them more than the sting of nettles, or the noise of musquitoes. Many a man has been driven to the tavern, and to dissipation, by a peevish, fretful wife. Many a wife has been made miserable by a peevish, fretful husband.

III.—IT IS THE BANE OF DOMESTIC HAPPINESS.

A fretful, complaining, fault-finding in a family, is like the continual chafing of an inflamed sore. Wo to the man, woman or child, who is exposed to the influence of such a temper in another. Nine-tenths of all domestic trials and unhappiness spring from this source. Mrs. D. is of this temperament. She wonders her husband is not more fond of her company; that domestics do not like to work for her; that her children give her so much trouble; that she cannot secure the good will of young people. The truth is, she is peevish and fretful. Children fear her, but do not love her. She never yet gained the affection of young people, nor never will till she leaves off fretting.

IV.—IT DEFEATS THE END OF FAMILY GOVERNMENT.

Good family government is the blending of authority with affection, so as to secure respect and love. Indeed, this is the great secret of managing young people. Now, your fretters may inspire fear, but they always make two faults where they correct one. Scolding at a child, fretting at a child, sneering at a child, taunting a child as though it had no feelings, inspires dread and dislike, and fosters those very dispositions from which the faults of childhood proceed. Mr. F. and Mrs. F. are of this class. Their children are made to mind; but how? Mrs. F. frets and scolds her children. She is severe enough upon their faults. She seems to watch them in order to find fault. She sneers at them—treats them as though they had no feelings. She seldom gives a command without a threat, and a long-running, fault-finding commentary. When she chides, it is not done in a dignified manner. She raises her voice, puts on a cross look, threatens, strikes them, and pinches their ears, slaps their heads, &c. The children cry, pout, sulk, and poor Mrs. F. has to do her work over pretty often. Then she will find fault with her husband, because he will not fall in with her ways, or chime with her as chorus.

V.—FRETTING AND SCOLDING MAKE HYPOCRITES.

As a fretter never receives confidence and affection, so no one likes to tell them anything disagreeable, and thus procure for themselves a fretting. Now, children conceal as much as they can from such persons. They cannot make up their mind to be frank and open-hearted. So husbands conceal from their wives, and wives from their husbands. For a man may brave a lion, but likes not to come in contact with nettles and musquitoes.

VI.—IT DESTROYS ONE'S PEACE OF MIND.

The more one frets, the more he may. A fretter will always have enough to fret at. Especially if he or she has the organ of order and neatness largely developed. Something will always be out of place.—There will always be some dirt somewhere. Others will not eat right, look right, sit right; he will not do these things so as to please them. And fretters are generally so selfish as to have no regard for any one's comfort but their own.

VII.—IT IS A MARK OF A VULGAR DISPOSITION.

Some persons so much gall in their disposition, are so selfish, that they have no regard for the feelings of others.

All things must be done to please them. They make their husbands, wives, children, domestics, the conductors by which their spleen and ill-nature are discharged. Wo to the children who are exposed to such influences. It makes them callous and unfeeling, and when they grow up they pursue the same course with their own children, or those entrusted to their management, and thus the race of fretters is perpetuated. Any person who is in the habit of fretting, sneering, tantling their husbands, wives, children, or domestics, shows either a bad disposition, or else illbreeding. For it is generally your ignorant, low-bred people that are guilty of such things.

HENRY WATERMAN'S PATENT HAMMERED SAWS.

The subscriber would call the attention of dealers, and others, to this superior article. By his patent process of hammering, the saw is more thoroughly tempered than it can be by any other method. It is well known to machinists that the surface of tempered steel is the hardest part. Where saws are tempered according to the usual method and hammered by hand, it is necessary to polish them, thereby grinding off the most serviceable part of the saw. These saws are not polished, and only require a trial to be appreciated. They have already been put to the severest test in some of the largest Saw Mills in this vicinity, and pronounced unsurpassed. We are now prepared to execute orders for all sizes of Mill, Pit and Circular saws.
