HOME MATTERS.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS.—In order to conform with the new rules of our workmen, our paper will hereafter be closed on Saturday night. Advertisements, to secure insertion on Monday, must be handed in by 5 o'clock on Saturday afternoon.

TYPOGRAPHICAL ASSOCIATION.—The Members of the Typographical Association will hold a meeting to-night.

THE EARTHQUAKE.—The Wheeling Gazette of yesterday says:—"We learn by several of our highly respectable citizens, that the shock of an earthquake was felt by them on Thursday, in various parts of the city. The movement of the earth was clearly felt by them. It occurred at a quarter before one o'clock."

BURNED TO DEATH.—We regret to learn that Elizabeth Martin, a little girl between four and five years of age, whose parents reside on Wayne street, was burned to death on Thursday. Her mother had left the child for a few minutes, while she went to attend to some business out of doors, and when she returned, found the poor creature enveloped in flames, she having inadvertently approached so near the grate as to set her clothes on fire. The mother, losing all presence of mind, was unable to render any assistance, and it was not until some neighbors were summoned by the cries of agony, that the flames were extinguished. The child was so dreadfully burned that it died a few hours afterwards.

MELANCHOLY EFFECTS OF INTEMPERANCE.—A woman, named Mary Crosby, died at the house of her husband in the Eighth Ward, on Thursday night. She had been drinking freely a short time before, in the house of a neighbor, and the family, imagining that she had been poisoned, called in the Coroner. A post mortem examination of her remains was made, and a verdict of died owing to the use of ardent spirits was rendered. The deceased leaves three children.

FIRE.—The three story building on Wylie, a few doors from Fifth street, belonging to and occupied by Mr. Edward McGarr, was discovered to be on fire last night, about eleven o'clock. The damage is trifling, and is covered by insurance.

MERCANTILE LIBRARY AND MECHANICS' INSTITUTE.—New members added during the month of April, 1852:

Walter Bryant,	W. W. Marlatt,
Dr. McGrath,	F. Johnston,
D. Sands,	R. M. Long,
FRANCIS S. MCNAMARA, Librarian.

LIGHT WEIGHT.—Mr. McGonnigle, the Market Clerk of Allegheny City, yesterday condemned and took into his possession a large quantity of butter, which was not of the weight it purported to be.

LECTURES TO YOUNG MEN.—The Reverend Mr. Simpson will deliver a lecture to young men, in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Allegheny City, on Sabbath evening.

MAYOR'S OFFICE, ALLEGHENY.—There were only two common cases of drunkenness and disorderly conduct before the Mayor of Allegheny yesterday. One was committed to prison and the other discharged on paying his fine.

COMMITTED.—The insane woman, mentioned in another part of this paper as having shattered a valuable pane of glass in the window of Mr. Richardson, jeweller, was arrested and committed to prison.

GLASS BROKEN.—A very valuable pane of glass in the window of Mr. H. Richardson, jeweller, on Market street, was yesterday shattered by an unfortunate lunatic, who struck it with her fist. The blow must have been a heavy one, for the glass is very thick. The cost of the panes, we understand, is about sixty dollars.

RAIN.—Shower after shower followed each other in rapid succession yesterday.

CHURCH OPENED.—The fine new church on Seventh street, on the site of which the building occupied by the congregation of the lamented Doctor Bruce stood, will be opened for Divine Service on the ensuing Sabbath. The Reverend Mr. Lee is now Pastor.

THE COURTS.—Nothing of importance was transacted in either the Court of Common Pleas or the District Court, yesterday. The trial list will be taken up again on Monday morning.

LARCENY.—A man named Michael Shay, alias John Brown, yesterday, during a heavy shower of rain, stepped into the house of Mr. Colberg, on Canal street, and requested to stay a few minutes until it was over. Permission was cheerfully given him, and a short time afterwards he was seen leaving the house with a bundle under his arm; and a shawl, and several other articles of wearing apparel, together with a breast pin, of the value altogether of eighteen dollars, were soon missed. Shay, who is an old offender, and has already served an apprenticeship in the Penitentiary, was arrested with the stolen property in his possession, and after an examination before Alderman Wiggins, was fully committed for trial.

FAREWELL SERMON.—The Rev. NATHANIEL WEST. Sr., will deliver his Farewell Sermon to the Congregation of the Fifth Presbyterian Church, on next Sabbath evening, May 2. The public in general are invited to attend.
