R. H. POLLOCK.

The report of the Committee on the basis of Union, was again taken up and discussed. It was finally adopted as follows, only three persons voting in the negative, and will be found as essentially the same as the "basis" which we published yesterday morning.

Whereas, the Associate Synod cannot harmoniously agree on the present draft of a basis of Union proposed by Synod's committees, and

Whereas, the Associate Reformed Synod did in 1849 request of us an exhibition of our views with regard to some practicable plan for the accomplishment of the object of our labors and prayers, and Whereas, the Associate Reformed did propose a basis of union in which they declare their adherence to the Westminster Confession of Faith, Larger and Shorter Catechism, form of Presbyterian Church Government, and Directory for Worship, and that the same system of faith, worship, and government is contained in the standards of the different bodies, therefore, Resolved, That the Associate Synod presents to the Associate Reformed Synod now in session, the declaration and testimony of this church, excepting those on Psalmody, Covenanting, Swearing, Confessionor, order of worship, and Church Communion, with the chapter in the amended draft of basis overtured at the last meeting on psalmody, slavery, covenanting, oaths and secret societies, use of spirituous liquors, church communion, and the confessions and testimonies, together with the Confession of Faith, contained in the draft on the subject of the civil magistrate's power.

On motion of Dr. Beveridge, it was resolved that if the Brethren of the Associate Reformed Synod agree to the TESTIMONY to be presented to them, it be proposed that the UNITED CHURCH prepare a suitable NARRATIVE, to be prefixed to the said TESTIMONY.

The Moderator appointed the Rev. Messrs. Patterson, Beveridge, Cooper and Thompson, a committee to communicate the Basis of Union to the Associate Reformed Synod, now in session in the First Church, Pittsburgh.

The session was closed with prayer by the Rev. Mr. Patterson.

12TH GENERAL SYNOD OF THE ASSOCIATE REFORMED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF THE WEST.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, May 27.

Synod opened with prayer by the Moderator.

Reports, petitions, &c., were called for.

Synod took up the resolution which was under discussion at the time of adjournment in the morning session, viz:

Whereas, some of the Presbyteries have neglected to report the number of votes on the subjects overtured by the 11th General Synod. Therefore Resolved, That these subjects be overtured again, with instructions to report the number of votes in the Presbyteries for and against each proposition overtured.

After debate, the resolution was adopted.

A petition from the churches in Oregon relative to the formation of a Presbytery in that territory was, on motion of Dr. Pressley, referred to the committee on overtures.

It was agreed by several members, that as this was a missionary synod, it came properly before the General Synod. On this question an interesting debate sprung up in which the extraordinary features of the case were ably discussed. It was contended by some that to constitute this presbytery was the province of one of the particular synods, and not of the General Synod. Others contended that the view expressed above. The peculiar difficulty in the case is, that the ministers in Oregon are there in a missionary capacity. Some of them are yet members of one synod and some of others; it was therefore contended that no one particular synod has jurisdiction over them. On the other hand, it was contended that the General Synod has no power to constitute Presbyteries.

The original preamble and resolution offered by the chairman of the committee of overtures was finally adopted, namely:

With regard to so much of the report of the Board of Agency, as relates to the organization of a Presbytery in the territory of Oregon, the committee of overtures recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, in view of the peculiar circumstances of the case, that the brethren of this Synod residing in the territory of Oregan, organize a Presbytery to be called the First Presbytery of Oregon, and that it be opened with sermon by the Rev. Wilson Blaney at Union Point, on the first Tuesday of September next, and to be constituted by him—Rev. J. Dick being his alternate.

Resolved, That as it respects the connection with the brethren of the Associate Church, Synod has confidence in the discretion of our brethren, and leave them free to act as to them may seem expedient in the peculiar circumstances in which they are placed.

Dr. Pressley, and Rev. Messrs. Brown and Archibald were appointed to make arrangements for the supply of pulpits in these cities on the ensuing Sabbath.

Messrs. Samuel Taggart, Benj. Waddle, and Bryson were appointed a committee on the ratio of representation from Presbyteries.

After some further business, Synod adjourned with prayer by Rev. Dr. Pressley.

Mr Noyes made an ineffectual attempt to introduce a declaratory resolution that the Church had no purpose nor expectation of substituting an ecclesiastical board for voluntary societies. A long debate ensued, and the Assembly adjourned without coming to a vote.
