SONG FOR HUNGARY.

Air—"German Varied Song."

In Eastern climes there is a land—
A bounteous land, a noble land
Of vine clad hills and rushing rills,
Whose sons should be as proudly free
As thine Columbia! in thee—
That land is struggling Hungary.

A cloud hangs darkling o'er that land—
That noble land by patriots manned
Now groans beneath the tyrant's power,
And darker yet that cloud may lower,
One star of Hope they yet behold—
Our nation's guest, the Magyar bold!

He dares to plead his country's cause—
That holy cause—for Freedom's laws.
'Mid shouts of nations cheering on
Until his triumph shall be won,
And Hungary stand among the free
Of nations in her Liberty!

That land no tyrant shall enslave!—
O! God of Battles, guard the brave,
Who bleed for Home and Liberty;
Thine arm shall "let the oppressed go free."
Bring Hope to bleeding Hungary—
Her trust, her anchor, is in Thee.

The day has come when tyrants know
That Right is Might among men below;
That God is with that noble few
Whose hearts are to their country true—
Be strong again—thou shalt be free,
God guards thee, rising Hungary!

CHINESE PREPARATION FOR WAR.—In a work of the Rev. E. Gutzlaff, the well known missionary in China, some curious relations of the internal history of that country are given, in speaking of the preparations for war with the English in 1840. We are informed that one mandarin proposed to build ships three times as large as those of the British, and so intercept their vessels, and annihilate them one by one before reaching their destination.

A second was still bolder. "Hon. Chuon, a general at Pekin, who stood in as high estimation among his countrymen as Ney did among the French, then suggested to build a steamer that would carry 6,000 men, half divers and half gunners, and that could be worked at the rate of a mile in a few minutes. With this extraordinary vessel he was ready to face the whole British fleet. When the latter came in sight of it the divers were to jump into the water and bore large holes in the bottoms of the men-of-war, while the gunners were to keep up an incessant fire."

There was a third suggestion equally sagacious. This was nothing more nor less than to march an army of 300,000 men right through the desert of Siberia and Russia to London, and thus put a stop to all further operations.

MEDICAL.

The best Remedy ever known to Man.

Coughs, Asthma Colds, Croups, Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Pain or weakness in the breast or side, First stages of Consumption, &c.

In short, this Balsam is peculiarly adapted to every disease of the Lungs and Liver, which is produced in our ever varying climate.

WILD CHERRY HAS LONG BEEN known to possess important medicinal properties This fact is familiar to every matron in our land, and physicians often prescribe it in a variety of forms for different complaints. Yet, also has been equally noted for its virtues; and some physicians, whose names are familiar to the country, have gone so far as to declare that CONSUMPTION could be cured by that alone. In other hands, again, it was nearly valueless, owing no doubt, to their ignorance in preparing and administering it—a difficulty now entirely obviated by patient experiment and long experience.

The extraordinary and real qualities of these two rubstances are now, for the time, combined and embodied in Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. By a nice chemical process, every celebrative or useless ingredient is rejected, so that what remains is the most extraordinary and truly efficacious remedy all f inds of pulmonar and liver diseases ever known to man. We refer to a few of the cases of cures performed by this wonderful medicine.

ANOTHER ASTONISHING CURE.

E. Salls, a highly respectable merchant of Rushville, Fairfield county, Ohio, sent us the following voluntary tribute to Dr. Wistar's Balsam:

RUSHVILLE, Fairfield Co., Ohio, April 6, 1851.

Mr. J. P. Dyott—Dear Sir: I wish to state to you that my wife, Amanda, had violent attacks of spasms, which would return every seven days for a period of nearly three years, every return attack of measles, which reduced her very much. She was under the care of physicians, employed all of the physicians within our reach for the purpose of preventing the return of the spasms, but to no purpose; they would return in a shorter or longer time. She appeared to be sinking into a decline, with every appearance of consumption.

I then tried "Dr. Rogers' liverwort and Tar," But still more malignant changes were produced. I then tried "Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry," and commenced using it with trembling fear that I from day to day, saw the progress of disease and death among the members. I really despaired of my daughter's recovery. But I providentially got a bottle of your Balsam of Wild Cherry, whose daughter, Sarah Jane, was cured of consumption, by Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. She created a faint hope that it might help my daughter, and I immediately commenced using it, and it almost instantly gave relief, her health was improved from day to day, and by the use of six bottles of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, she was restored to perfect health and strength, and has not been afflicted to a cough.

I will say to those who are afflicted with any disease leading to consumption, do not despair, for Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry will cure you if you will but try it.

E. SALLS.

PLEASANT HILL, Ham. county, O., Sept. 20, 1850.

Dr. J. P. Dyott—Dear Sir: I have the pleasure of advising you of the benefit I have derived from the use of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. I was afflicted with that terrible scourge, consumption, in May last. The disease had fastened its fangs on me, and one family (my brothers and sisters) had died of consumption, and I was the next victim. I was in the worst features of the disease, had a distressing cough, raising large quantities of matter, a constant fever, severe pains in the side and chest, cold chills, alternating with fever, and no sleep or rest night or day.

I was under the care of a skilful physician, from the time I was taken sick, until about six weeks since, being then pronounced by him and my friends considered my case hopeless, or at least beyond our physicians skill, and commenced using Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. Without my knowledge, my father procured it, and recommended it to me, and I commenced using it from the first day I so appeared to be benefited by it. From that time I began to mend, and continued using it, I was able to be out and exercise my business, which I still continue, and consider that I have to my father the credit of the medicine, and now consider myself perfectly well.

JEREMIAH ISCHIGO.

IMPORTANT TO THOSE AFFLICTED WITH DISEASES OF THE LUNGS AND BREAST.

Will stimulate lever and kidneys. Have confidence of its sur passing health restorative virtues.

PHILADELPHIA, Lake Co., Ind., June 12, 1849.

John D. Park—Dear Sir—As I have a few spare moments on hand, I will inform you how I am getting along. I have got rid of my afflictions, and the terrible cough that I had when I returned home in the fall of last year. I was taken in July, 1848, I was attacked by fever of a typhoid character which left me in a very debilitated state, when I returned home in the fall of last year. I was taken with a cough which returned me to such an extent as to give me the consumption. I was confined to my bed for about a month, and my system was prostrated past all cure, and I was given over by my self and friends. I frequently raised blood from my lungs. I continued in this state for about three months, when I was induced, January, 1847, when I was scarce attached with the fever. I was induced to try your Balsam of Wild Cherry, and my physicians thought I could survive but a short time. I commenced using your Balsam, and was constantly sick, and almost lost their hearing. I continued using it, and in a short time I was able to be out, and in a few weeks I was able to attend to my business, which I have been busy ever since. I attribute the restoration of my health entirely to the use of your Balsam of Wild Cherry—and from the first dose I commenced using it I began to mend, and continued its use six months, at the end of which time I was entirely well. I can with confidence recommend your Balsam of Wild Cherry, and cheerfully recommend it to all those afflicted with the diseases of the lungs—and would say to those that are afflicted, that they need not despair, for they can be restored to perfect health by the use of your Balsam of Wild Cherry. Should any person wish to correspond with me, I will cheerfully answer all letters, as I have a desire that all afflicted should be restored to health as I have been.
