Did we not know that blind devotion to party overridge reason and common, senne, we should have no appreheasion as to the result; neither would be have been nominated had not the members of the convention known the same thing. We have therefore, a solemn responsibility resting upon us to prevent the election of Frankin Fierce, if it is possible to do so.

Among the first questions that claim attention is, why did Mr. Pierce resign his exat in the Senate! Did the same cause drive him into private life which drove the unshappy but more highly gifted Hanulgen from his seat in that august body? We have good reason for starting the inquiry: latit be answered in truth and fairness. We are not able to answer if yet; ign the testing to provide the station of the election of the self-indication of the self-indicat

For the Pittabergh Gazette, GEM. PIERCE'S MILITARY REPUTATION.

Ma. Whith:

Since the nomination of Gen. Pierce by the late Baltimore Convention, the Democratic press has been busily engaged in setting forth his military services, and in manufacturing for him a military services, and in manufacturing for him a military services, and him manufacturing for him and one, who was unposed him, and one, who was unacquainted with the history of the series of more." The party then reode into town togethmer, and Gen. Pierce received the congratulations.
