A letter from Bt. Mr. JETTERSON .- In one of the Baltimor tions we find the following words :

"That the liberal principles embodied by Jef ferson in the declaration of Independence and sanctioned in the Constitution which makes ours the land of liberty, and the assylum of the oppressed of every nation; have ever been cardinal principles in the democratic faith " This doubtless has allusion to that great and he uniformly held and avored: "What an incomprehensible machine is man! who can eqdure toll, famine, stripes, imprison-ment, sad deah itsell, in violication of his own liberty, and the next moment be deaf to all those motives whose power supported him through his trial, and inflict on his fellow men a bondage, can hour of which is fraught with more mikery than ages of that which he rose in releation to oppose. The democracy of the present day is about as much like the democracy of Jefferson as the Baltimore platform on the subject of slavery is like the above extract. Were Jefferson to appear now and talk among the democracy as he once did, he would be voted a sad old fanatio, as much in his notions respecting politics in general in those touching slavery.
