Accident and Death.—On Saturday last, a drityer of a car at the Tunnel, Sec. 31, was killed, by being crushed beneath the car. It seems as he was driving the empty car leto the tunnel, he lost his balance and fell off in front of 14, and was canght bowest the wheels and axle, being unable to extricate himself.
The worknam in the tunnel did not discover him till he had tarried too long, when they went to see what was the matter and found him as above. He was without a family we believe, and it is eaid was somewhat intoxicated at the time.
