BEN BOLT'S REPLY

Ah! yes I remember that name with delight,
Sweet Alice, so cherished and dear
I seek but grass in the pale hour of night,
And moisten the turf with a tear.
As I there, where the heart is o'erburdened with woes,
I wander and grieve all alone,
And sing for the time when my reed shall repose,
Where sweet Alice lies under the stone.

I roam through the woods where so joyous we strayed
And pluck'd on the green sunny hill
All things as a theme to that beautiful glade,
But my heart is all lonely and chill,
For hand that I pressed then so fondly to mine,
And eyes I so fain would be smiling with love—
Are cold in the grave, and I'm left to repine
Till I meet with them all in above.

Ah well I remember the school house and brook,
"And the master so kind and so true,"
The wild blooming flower in the old shady nook
So fragrant the spot seems and fair.
But I weep not for these, though so dear to my heart,
Nor the friends that have left us alone—
The heaven will have sent the tear drop will start,
For "sweet Alice lies under the stone."

The Silver Dollar; or, How God Provides.

BY MRS. H. C. KNIGHT.

It was a season of great scarcity on the hill regions of New Hampshire, when a poor woman, who lived in a hut by the woods, had no bread for the little family. She was sick—without either friends or money. There was no helper but God, and she betook herself to prayer. She prayed long—she prayed in earnest; for she believed that he who fed the young ravens would feed her.

On rising from her knees, one morning, her little bare-footed girl opened the door to go out. Something shining on the sill stopped her. The child stooped down, and, behold, a silver dollar! She ran and took it to her mother. It really was a new, round, bright silver dollar. They looked up and down the road; not a living person was in sight, and neither footsteps or wagon wheels were to be heard.

Where did the dollar come from? Did God send it? Doubtless it was from his hand; but how did it get there? Did it rain down? No. Did he throw it from the windows of heaven? No. Did an angel fetch it? No. God has ways and means of answering prayer without sending special messengers. He touches some little spring in the great machinery of his providence, without in the least disturbing its regularity, and help comes. Sometimes we do not see exactly how, as this poor woman did not; then it seems to come more directly from him; while in fact our all being taken care of ever since we were born comes just as directly from him, only he employs so many people to do it—fathers, mothers, servants, shop-keepers—that we are apt to lose sight of him, and fix our eye only on them.

But how did the silver dollar get on the door-sill? some boy may ask. It happened that a pious young blacksmith was going down to the seaboard in quest of business. It was several miles before he could take the stage-coach; so, instead of going in the wagon which carried his chest, he said he would walk. "Come, ride," they said, "it will be hot and dusty." He kept answering, "No," to all his friends urged. "I'll walk, and take a short cut through the pines," and off he started with a stout walking-stick. As he was jogging on through a piece of woods, he heard a voice from a little lonely hut by the road-side. It drew his notice, and he stepped towards it on tiptoe; then he stopped and listened, and found it was the voice of prayer, and he gathered from the prayer that she who offered it was poor, sick and friendless

What can I do to help this poor woman?" thought the young man He did not like to go into the hut. He clapped his hand into his pocket and drew out a dollar—the first silver dollar he ever had—and a dollar was a big sum for him to give, for he was not so rich then as he is now But no matter; he felt that the poor woman must have it. The dollar being silver, and likely to attract notice, he concluded to lay it on the sill and go away, but not far; for he hid behind a large rock near the house, to watch what became of it Soon he had the satisfaction of seeing the little girl come out and see the prize, when he went on his way rejoicing. The silver dollar came into the young man's hand for this very purpose; for you see a paper dollar might have blown away; and he was led to walk instead of ride—why, he did not exactly know; but God, who directed his steps, did know. So God plans, and we are the instruments to carry on his plans. Oftentimes we seem to be about our own business when we are about his, answering, it may be, the prayers of his people.

The young blacksmith is now in middle life: he has been greatly prospered, and given away his hundreds since then; but perhaps he never enjoyed giving more than when he gave his first silver dollar.

MEDICAL.

CHERRY PECTORAL

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, CONSUMPTION.

THIS invaluable remedy for all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, has attained a celebrity from its remarkable cures, never equalled by any other medicine before. Other preparations have shown themselves palliatives, and sometimes effected notable cures, but none has ever so fully won the confidence of every community where it is known. After years of trial in every climate, the results have indisputably shown it to possess a mastery over this dangerous class of diseases, which could not fail to attract the attention of Physicians, Patients, and the public at large.

See the statement, not of obscure individuals, and from far distant places, but of men who are known and respected throughout the country.

The widely celebrated Surgeon, Doctor VALENTINE MOTT, of New York city, says:

"I give me pleasure to certify the value and efficacy of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL," which I consider peculiarly adapted to cure diseases of the throat tongue.

DR. PERKINS, the venerable President of the Vermont Medical College, one of the eminently learned physicians of this country, writes, the CHERRY PECTORAL is indispensably used in this section, where it has shown unmistakable evidence of its happy curative pulmonary diseases.

The Rev. JOHN N. CHEHAM, a distinguished Presbyterian of the Scottish Church, writes to the proprietor from New York, that he has been cured of a severe Asthmatic affection, by CHERRY PECTORAL." The letter at full length, may be found in our Circular, to be had of the Agents, and is worth the attention of Asthmatic patients.

Equally earnest is from the well known Druggist at Hillsborough, one of the largest dealers in the State, and one with whom he has own observation.

HILLSBORO, Miss., Dec 10, 1849.

Dear Sir—Immediately on receipt of your CHERRY PECTORAL, I carried a bottle to an acquaintance of mine who was thought to be near his end with quick consumption. He was then unable to rise from his bed, and was extremely feeble. His friends believed he must soon die. I left him with the assurance that I would send him more medicine, if he was at all benefited by the first bottle. I then went to my plantation, a distance of three miles, and found my people generally sick with colds, fevers, &c. On my return, in a few days, I found my friend so much relieved that a second bottle was given him, which restored him to perfect health. I immediately commenced administering your CHERRY PECTORAL to my people, and they soon got well. I have since had occasion frequently to use your medicine, and have always found it to do all that is claimed for it. I am truly yours,
ALFRED JENKS & SON.

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers everywhere.

Lewis's Patent Reversible Water Filter

IS NOW to be seen in operation at WM. YEAKLEY'S Hardware Store, No. 72 Market street, Pittsburgh, and at PRYOR & WILEY'S, No. 10 Market street, Wheeling. It was awarded a Gold Medal from the American Institute of New York, and a Certificate from the Franklin Institute of Philadelphia, for its valuable properties in the purification of water. Copies from these and many other testimonials of which the following are a sample:

"PHILADELPHIA, March 24th, 1851.

It gives me great pleasure to recommend to the notice of the public, that valuable Patent Reversible Water Filter, invented by Lewis, which I have had in daily use for several months. I am enabled to judge of their value from experience. (Signed) WILLIAM J. HOLLY, M. C.

"PHILADELPHIA, March 24th, 1851.

The Patent Reversible Water Filter, invented by Mr. Samuel H. Lewis, and sold by him for some months past, is a valuable invention, and one which I can recommend as a private purifier. I believe it will meet with public favor, and so far as I believe the CONSUMPTION could be cured by that alone. So far as I am acquainted with Mr. Lewis, it was merely valuable, owing to public calamities, that he was not receiving and administering a fifth-fifty per cent. profit. (Signed) JONAS P. FAIRLAMB.

Mr. Lewis has taken with a number of the most eminent Physicians in Philadelphia, and try Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and from the first week I commenced taking it, and also Dr. Hunsicker's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, I can safely say disease took its flight. I was troubled with a hard cough and pain in my breast, and was in a fair way of going into a decline, when I commenced using Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. Without my knowledge, my father procured a bottle of Hunsicker's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, and I commenced taking it, and found in the first day I commenced taking it, that it was relieving me. In a few days from the time I commenced using it, I was able to be out and every day I am getting better. My father, who has been afflicted for years with consumption, has also derived great benefit from the use of Hunsicker's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, and is now able to be out and attend to his business. I attribute my recovery entirely to the use of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry and Hunsicker's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, and would recommend them to all persons afflicted with Coughs, Colds, Consumption, or any disease tending to that fatal termination. (Signed) JEREMIAH ISCRIGG.

IMPORTANT TO THOSE AFFLICTED WITH DISEASES OF THE LUNGS AND BREAST.

Will mercantile and professional evidence of its surpassing health restorative virtues.

PHILADELPHIA, March 1st, 1851.

John D. Park—Dear Sir—I am pleased to give you a recommendation for the afflicted, permit me to give you a brief history of my sufferings, and the benefit derived from the use of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

In July, 1849, I was attacked with a fever of a typhoid character, which left me in a very debilitated state, when I took a violent cold, and the trouble settled from the effects of which I found it to such an extent as to give me the appearance of consumption. I was induced to try Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, which I did, and was truly astonished and delighted to find myself improving from the first dose. I continued its use for three weeks, and you may judge of my surprise and joy, when I found myself restored to perfect health. I am now using your medicine, he was at work at his arduous trade of a shoemaker.

There are other cases within my knowledge, where the Balsam has been equally successful, but none more satisfactorily than my own family.

Very truly yours,
UNDERWOOD.

Rent for the Patient.

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry—Feeling under obligations for the restoration to my health, I send you this unsolicited testimonial, hoping that it may induce others to make a trial of your valuable medicine. Last autumn I took a bad cold, which settled on my lungs, and I was confined to my room without obtaining relief. I was advised to try Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, as I could get it at my door, and did so. I had not taken more than a bottle before I commenced to feel relief, and by the time I had taken three bottles I was entirely restored to health, and have enjoyed good health ever since, and consider it my duty to recommend it to the afflicted.
Yours, &c.,
JOSEPH JACKSON.
