HOME MATTERS.

THE GARDEN OF EDEN.—This beautiful painting, the production of Mr. R. T. Duncanson, the celebrated colored artist of Cincinnati, is now on exhibition at Philo Hall, where we advise all our readers to call and see it. The idea is taken from the Third and Fourth books of Paradise Lost,, and the picture, in point of design and execution, is, we do not hesitate to say, superior to any other landscape painted by an American artist, which we have ever seen.

COLONIZATION MEETING.

In pursuance of notice a meeting of the friends of the American Colonization Society was held at the first Presbyterian Church, in the city of Pittsburgh, on Monday, the 12th day of July, 1852.

The meeting was organized by calling Dr. Robert Wray to preside, and appointing H. Sproat, Esq., Secretary.

The President called upon the Rev. Dr. Riddle to open the meeting with prayer, after which the Rev. Mr. Gurley, who had lately visited the Republic of Liberia, and who had kindly consented to address the meeting, was introduced to the audience, and who, in his opening remarks paid a high compliment to the late illustrious statesman, the Hon. Henry Clay, who had been President of the Society for many years, and whose eloquent voice was always heard in defence of freedom, and the rights of humanity whenever an opportunity occured. He stated that Mr. Clay had been a long and ardent supporter of the cause of the society, and that in the Halls of the Senate, or in the private walks of life, he was ever ready to advocate the claims of this Society.

Mr. G. then made a brief statement of the condition of the Republic, and the benefits to be derived by the colored population of Africa, as well as that of our own country, from the introduction of free labor and free institutions, where nothing but barbarism and oppression had hitherto existed. He pointed out the beauty of the scheme of the Colonization Society,over every other in its expansive benevolence, as it contemplated not only the amelioration of the colored population of our own country but also that of the whole African nations; that it did not come in competition or interfere with the operations of other benevolent Societies, but was ever willing to cooperate both at the North and the South with every institution that had for its object the elevation and happiness of the colored race. His remarks throughout were clear and impressive, and could not fail to convince every candid mind that the Colonization Society deserved and ought to have the support of every true Christian and American.

After Mr. Gurley had concluded, the Rev. Mr. Riddle offered the following resolutions which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That this meeting regard the scheme of the American Colonization Society as one of true and comprehensive benevolence toward the colored and white races; towards America and Africa.

Resolved, That the cause of this Society deserves, in the judgment of this meeting, the generous support of this city, and of all the people of the United States.

Resolved, That a Committee of nine be appointed to co operate with the Rev. Mr. Quay, the Agent of the Pennsylvania Colonization Society, in obtaining the donations of our fellow-citizens to this cause, and that the President and Secretary appoint said committee.

Whereupon the following gentlemen were appointed on said Committee—viz: John D. M'Cord, Harrison Parry, L. R. Livingston, Geo. B White, James Laughlin, W. B. Copeland, J. O'H Denny, James A. Irvin, Esq. Daft, 8th Ward.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in all the city papers friendly to the cause of Colonization.

Mr. Paxton pronounced the benediction and the meeting adjourned.

HANDSOME SUM.—We are pleased to learn that between seven and eight hundred dollars were realized for the Saint Paul's Orphan Asylum, by the celebration at Oakland, on the Fifth of July.

FIRE.—A stable upon the farm of Mr. Wm. McDenny, at Pine Creek, was struck by lightning on Saturday, and entirely consumed. It contained a number of horses and mules at the time, but they were all saved.

ACCIDENT.—A young lad about eleven years of age, named Jefferson Lock, was fishing yesterday, in the Allegheny river, from the third pier of the old Bridge. He is subject to fits, and suddenly fell insensible into the water, and was nearly drowned before he could be rescued.

LARGE SUM LOST.—Mr. J. W. Chapline lost a pocket oaok containing twenty two hundred dollars (five hundred being in five, one hundred dollar notes,) while he was coming from the cattle market in Allegheny, to Brown's Hotel, on Monday. He is stopping at the above tavern, and offers one hundred dollars for the recovery of the money.

WATCH HOUSE.—Two persons were yesterday committed to prison by the Mayor, one twenty-four hours for drunkenness, the other thirty days for vagrancy.

LARCENY.—His honor, Mayor Fleming yesterday committed James McCaskey and William Williams to prison, on a charge of stealing a quantity of crockery ware, the property of Harvey Stephens. They were both intoxicated when arrested, and the stolen goods were found in their possession.

THE CASS REVERSED.—A man named Louis Trassaue on Monday laid an information before his honor, Mayor Fleming, against Robert Andrews and Mr. Morgan, who he accused of threatening his life. It appearing on examination that he himself was to blame, insisting that he had a right to board in Mr. Andrews' house where his wife lived as a servant, and having otherwise been guilty of disorderly conduct, the complainant was committed to prison for thirty days.

THE RECENT MURDER CASE.

William Gaw, one of the parties alleged to have been engaged in the late affray in which Samuel Mitchell lost his life, was brought out of prison yesterday, and examined before the Mayor.

Terrance Laughran was sworn and testified as follows:

I identy William Gaw; saw him run after deceased, and strike him, when he caught up with him; there was another man there, but do not think I would recognize him; there were three persons besides Gaw; I am sure that Gaw is the man.

The witness was here examined by Mr. Irwin counsel for prisoner.

When I saw him (Gaw) I was standing in my cart, opposite to Spang's warehouse; the first I saw of the fuss, was when I was coming up from the steamer Zachary Taylor, towards Wood street; at Hughes corner, I got up to the street, and turned my horse towards Market street, when I first saw the difficulty,the parties were at Lewis Hutchinson's warehouse; Jewel and Gaw and one other whom I do not recollect, were with Cochran when he struck deceased; saw three or four men at the time at the corner of Wood street. Cochran struck deceased with his fist; Gaw was dressed in a dark brown sack or frock coat; he had an ordinary black hat on; the deceased had been struck a dozen times before Gaw hit him; saw nothing before this shining; the Zachery Taylor was lying opposite Allen's warehouse, between Market and Wood; know no person by name that was there, until the crowd gathered; did not see a young man there named Cunahan; the other man that was engaged in the affray, was not so tall as Carnahan; his (Canahan's) mother sent for me see her son, as she said there was a report about him being concerned in the fight; called to see them at Burns, by invitation, I think on Wednesday night. I think it was after I got on Water st., that I saw the affray first; my horse's head was turned towards Market street; when coming up Leopold Sahl's, when I saw Carnahan and Burns, he had brown clothes on; he had a Kossuth hat on; could not say his clothes were more brown than the one the man I saw on the Wharf; Gaw, when I saw him hit deceased, was about eight or ten feet from me; he had his back to me at the time, and deceased was standing up against Spang's ware house: saw Gaw try to part them. He was trying to take Jewell away; he got his arms around his (Jewell's) waist, to pull him back. I suppose Gaw's intention when he pulled Jewell away was to save Mitchell; do not know whether he tried every one, but at the time, he tried with all his might to pull Jewell away; had no previous acquaintance with Mr. Gaw. I knew him by his being the shortest man in the party; had no other manner of identifying him, except the fact of his being the stoutest man, and his wearing brown clothes; I saw his face, and also recognize it; it was before he struck, and I also saw his face when he pulled Jewell off; the party, after the affray, walked away as far as the corner of Wood street; saw Cochran's hand bloody, but do not know how it occurred; they walked together, and I did not see any one pursue them; Mitchell was dead when I got to him; did not see any person tie up Cochran's hand; as they walked down street, Jewell was beside Cochran; but do not recollect the manner the others walked; I reside at the Point.

The testimony closed here, and Mr. Irwin offered to prove that Gaw was not the same person whom the witness had seen on the wharf.—The Mayor declined hearing the testimony, and the defendant was finally committed.

COLONIZATION MEETING.—The friends of Colonization met by appointment, in the Rev. Mr. Swift's Church, Beaver street, Allegheny, on last evening.

On motion of Rev. Dr. Swift, the Rev. Dr. Pressley was called to the Chair. Prayer was then offered by the Rev. Mr. Downer. After which, on motion, the Rev. E. E. Swift was chosen Secretary.

Dr. Pressly then remarked that the object of the present meeting was to listen to an address by the Rev. Mr. Gurley. On which the Rev. gentleman mentioned arose, and for the space of an hour was listened to with marked interest and attention by a very intelligent audience.

The Rev. Mr. A. B. Quay, general agent of the Penna. Colonization Society, rose and said that he was sincerely sorry, that his friend, the Rev. Dr. M'Gill was prevented by indisposition from being present, and consequently, the resolutions and memorial which he held in his hand would be offered by him. The resolutions as they follow were adopted unanimously, seriatim.

Resolved, That in the judgment of this meeting, the scheme of the American Colonization Society is one of great practical benefit to the people of color in the United States and in Africa.

Resolved, That in the success which has thus far attended the cause of African Colonization, we see striking indications of the purposes of Divine Providence to raise the descendants of Africa, and through them,the barbarous tribes of Africa to the condition of a civilized, free and Christian people.

Resolved, That we cordially approve the Bill introduced to Congress by the Hon. Mr. Stanly, of North Carolina, providing for the application of the interest of the unpaid instalment of the surplus revenue to the Colonization, with their own consent, of the free people of color in Africa.

Resolved, That a Committee of —— be appointed to cooperate with the agent, the Rev. A. B. Quay, agent of the Pennsylvania Colonization Society, in obtaining the contributions of our citizens for the great objects of that institution.

The Rev. Mr. Quay moved that the Chairman and Secretary be a committee to appoint a committee, (left blank in the third resolution) to cooperate with the mover in obtaining contributions to the cause.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

We were yesterday shown a bunch of rye raised on the farm of James Kim Penn Township. The different stalks of which it was composed were nearly the same length, the longest was eight feet seven inches high. It can be seen at the Grocery of S. P. D. Keating, corner of Wylie and Fulton streets.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Levi Smith, of Birmingham, died suddenly on Monday. One of his brothers-in-law died on Friday in the same house, and was buried on Sunday.

AFFRAY.—John Moore and Phillip Reilly were committed to prison yesterday for further hearing by the Mayor, charged with having beaten Michael Thornburgh very severely in Pipetown. The quarrel originated about a dog. Another person concerned in the affray, was held to ball.

REFRESHING SHOWER.—We had quite a heavy shower yesterday, which had the pleasant effect of laying the dust and cooling the atmosphere.

THE CALIFORNIANS.—The party of Pittsburghers, twelve in number, who left this city for California, under the direction of John and Henry Gumbert, have, as we learn from letters recently received, arrived at Juan del Sud, where they were waiting for the steamer, S. S. Lewis. One of their number, Michael Reinhard, formerly a workman in Curling's Glass house, had died of fever, and was buried on the 14th of May. He leaves a wife and two children.

ABUSING HIS WIFE.—A man named John Jones, who was recently divorced from his wife, was brought before the Mayor yesterday charged with abusing her. As he promised faithfully to behave better, he was only sentenced to an imprisonment of ten days for disorderly conduct.

The Whig papers at Jackson, Mississippi, says that the nomination of Scott and Graham is finely received there by the Whigs—that the Whig enthusiasm is blazing high. A Whig ratification meeting was to be held two or three nights ago. The same paper says:

DEAD RAILER.—We are informed by a gentleman of unimpeachable veracity, who left Holly Springs, Miss., a few days ago, that a tremendous effort was made by the Democracy of that ilk to get up a ratification meeting on the 21st inst., which resulted in a total failure. We are not surprised; it is difficult to squeeze blood out of a turnip;and it must be an up hill business to pump up anything like enthusiasm for such "heroes and statesmen" as Pierce and King.

THE BOLTERS AT HOME.—The "Telegraph," a "Democratic" paper, published at Augusta, Ga., has the following "first rate notice" of Messrs. Toombs, Stephens &c.:

We pray God that whatever the Union Convention may do, Toombs and Stephens will decide not to act with the Democratic party. We shall consider it the greatest calamity that could befall that party to have Toombs and Stephens join it.

From present appearances, its worst anticipations are likely to be realized.—Albany State Journal.

THE PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATIONS AT THE SOUTH.—With the exception of one newspaper in Tennessee (at Knoxville) we have not received a single Whig paper from any Southern State, except Georgia, that refuses to support the nominations for President and Vice President lately made by the Whig National Convention. On the contrary, they promptly and manfully place the names of the candidates at the head of their columns, and promise to give them a cordial and hearty support.—Nat. Intel.

BY TELEGRAPH.

ST. LOUIS, July 13.

The funeral obsequies, last night, in memory of Henry Clay, were of the most imposing solemnity. The procession of the military and fire companies and several associations of Free Masons and Odd Fellows, formed the largest demonstration ever made in this city. During the whole day business was suspended, and the entire city exhibited a scene of gloom and mourning. The stores were all hung in black, and the observance of the melancholy event was general. Unfortunately, as the procession started, a severe thunder storm, with heavy rain, burst upon the city and marred the effect. The rain lasted all night, and in consequence, the address was postponed until this evening.

The river is falling, and the weather cloudy and pleasant.

Arrived, steamers Editor and Cornelia; Departed, Gen. Pike.

There was no business transacted yesterday. To-day the markets were inactive, receipts light and prices unchanged.

The Louisville Journal, noticing the ratification meeting held in Louisville on the 26th ultimo, remarks:

"If there have been any doubts hitherto as to the reception which Kentucky, glorious old Kentucky, would give to the Whig nomination, those doubts are now dispelled and annihilated for ever and ever. We do not forget the overwhelming majority which Kentucky gave to Gen. A spirit is aroused in the hearts of the Kentuckians that nothing can withstand."
