Wednesday's Gazette contained a telegraphi dispatch giving an account of the massacre Capt. Marcy and all his command, consisting of about eighty men. We since learn from the Eastern papers that Capt. Marcy was a son of ex-Governor Marcy of New York.

Roms.-The London correspondent of the Na tional Intelligencer, under date of July 8, says "The only news from Italy is a statement that, after the present month, the French Government will charge the Court of Rome with the expenses of the French occupation, in the same way as Austria charges for her troops employed in the Roman provinces. The charge made by Austria is 216,000 per month, which has been paid with tolerable punctuality; but a bill of true has been presented amounting to about pand with observed amounting to about 2300,000. It may be easily imagined that; amal State like that of Rome, already vermuch embarrassed in its finance, unable to col lest the taxes it has thought necessary to pose, and slarmed at the prospect of having to pay the French also, these claims on the part of

OF ACCIDENTS.

We copy the following interesting account of the Railroad collision, by which Mrs. and Miss Restarman of this city were injured from the Rail Maysville on Thursday.—Maysville Eagle. Petterman of this city were injured, from the Baltimore Sun:

Great anxiety and excitement prevail here relative to the new difficulty with England over the question of the fisheries. The speech of Mr. Webster at Marshfield is a semi-official manifesto against the attempt of the British to drive us from the seas along their provincial manifesto against the attempt of the British to drive us from the seas along their provincial beneath. The matter could be easily adjusted by negotiation, but for the precipitate and indiscret conduct of the Derby Ministry. They will shortly be driven from power; but such is the bull dog tenacity of the Euglish character, that what one administration does in reference to foreign nations, is always followed up by its successors. The present Cabinet has appealed to arms, and British cruisers are already seizing American vessels, within waters which have been made common to both nations by the expenditude.
