HOME MATTERS.

THE ESCAPE OF REED.

The Captain of the Watch, having seen proper to make a second affidavit relative to his connexion with the escape of Jack Reed from the Watch House, on the morning of the 25th of last month, which affidavit, together with those of watchmen Shannon and Wray, he has published in the newspapers I deem it only an act of justice to that accomplished officer to publish his first affidavit on the same subject, in order that the public may see, by his own statement, how faithfully he carried out my instructions in regard to the prisoner Reed. It is very true, in my anxiety to prevent the escape, I may have erred in presuming to instruct or assume any authority over the Captain of the Watch—the City Councils having, in their wisdom, taken the management and control of the Night Watch from the Mayor, and placed it in the hands of a committee. It was, however, the first time that I had attempted to exercise any authority over them, and therefore, hope the Committee as well as the Captain will excuse the offence, particularly as I only intended to caution the Captain, that by intercourse with outsiders "material aid" might be extended to the prisoner, whose escape it was very important to prevent.

J. B. GUTHRIE, Mayor.

On this 27th of July, 1852, personally appeared before me, Jno. B. Guthrie, Mayor of the city of Pittsburgh, William Farley, who being duly sworn according to law, deposes and says: That on the night of the 24th of July, A. Barker was brought into the watch-house, and I put him into the cell occupied by David Kipp alias Jack Reed On Sunday morning, I unlocked the cell doors about five or a little after six o'clock.—Kipp alias Reed was then lying in there; I told Barker to come out; he came out, and I locked the door again, leaving Kipp alias Reed in there alone.

On Saturday night, there were some persons besides the officers went into the Hall along by the cells. On Friday night, the Mayor told me not to allow any persons to go into the cells to speak to him (Kipp alias Reed); that he was an important prisoner, and to have a sharp lookout for him. After the watchmen's cases were brought before the Mayor, on Sunday morning, I did not return to the cells. A man could not unlock the door from the inside even if he had the key. There were several persons in talking with Barker, after I had put him in the cell with Kipp alias Reed. When the Mayor spoke to me on Friday night, I understood him to mean that I was to let no man talk with the prisoner, and so in particular, that he was an important prisoner.

WILLIAM FARLEY.

Sworn to and subscribed this 27th day of July, A. D. 1852, before me, J. B. GUTHRIE.

We have already published the affidavit of Captain Farley, made before Alderman Lowis.

MEETING OF COUNCIL.—DEPOT QUESTION.—The Common Council convened on Tuesday evening, to consider the question of the location of the Pennsylvania Railroad Depot, in regard to which action had been previously taken by the Select Council, in the following form:

Whereas, the Legislature of Pennsylvania, by an Act of Assembly passed on the ——— of ———, granted to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, "That Eighth street and Plum alley, and all other streets and alleys in the city of Pittsburg, so far as the same extend through the property of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, are hereby vacated, and the title thereof vested in the said Company, provided that the Councils of the said city give their assent thereto, which shall be filed in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Allegheny county; and whereas, the subject has been brought before the Councils of the city of Pittsburgh and presented to their consideration by the written application of said Railroad Company, for the surrender of a portion of Eighth street, and a portion of Plum alley (that is, one hundred feet of each, commencing on Grant st.,) for the purpose of enabling the Company more conveniently to erect their buildings for their inner passenger depot and station.

And said Councils being disposed to meet and carry out the views of the Legislature and the spirt of their public enactment, and trusting that the promotion of the public interests and the policy of the Commonwealth, and the arrangement proposed by the said Company would more than counterrail any supposed private inconvenience, it is therefore, hereby ordained and resolved by the Select and Common Council of the city of Pittsburgh, in Councils assembled that one hundred feet of Plum alley, running from Grant street, is vacated and surrendered to the said Pennsylvania Railroad Company on the following conditions: 1st, That the same shall be used for the purpose of an inner passenger depot and station. 2d, That the said Railroad Company will take down and remove all her present buildings on the triangular lot No. ——, and will not erect any houses thereon. And 3rd, That they will lay out on their own ground, an alley 20 feet wide extending from Seventh street to Eighth street, which shall be used by the public, exception on the arrival and departure of railroad cars, when it may be necessary temporarily to close the same for the purpose of avoiding any hindrance and interruption to their proper business.

The action of the Select Council was finally concurred in. The second resolution in regard to the triangular lot being amended by inserting the clause "surrending to the city the control of the same."

FREE SOIL STATE CONVENTION.—The State Free Soil Convention, will meet in this city on Tuesday next, with the intention of preparing some business to be presented to the National Convention next day. The committee calling it together, consist of Wm. F. Clark, Jno. J. Mann, and Russell Errett.

GAS PIPES.—The workmen employed by the Allegheny Gas works, are laying the pipes at the rate of three hundred feet per diem.

THE WATCH HOUSE.—Six common cases made their appearance yesterday morning, who were dealt with in the usual manner.

GAS WORKS.—The Allegheny gas works will soon be ready for roofing in

TO BE RESUMED.—The pupils of the Western Theological Seminary are now enjoying a vacation; the exercises will be resumed on the last Monday of August.

DOGS.—We observe a large number of dogs running unmuzzled about the streets, contrary to the City ordinances.

FARE REDUCED.—The fare on the railroads leading to this City, will be reduced one half to the delegates to the free soil Convention.

CHARGE OF LARCENY.—Alderman Barclay yesterday committed a German to prison, charged, with stealing a lot of cotton batting from Mr. James Criswell.

PASSING COUNTERFEIT MONEY.—Thomas Arnold yesterday laid an information before the Mayor against Nicholas Brown whom he accuses of passing a counterfeit note on him. The defendant agreed to redeem it, and was discharged.

INTERESTING.—Why will the papers continue to spell Plum alley, P-l-u-m-b. We done, the same thing, however, until we knew better.—Chronicle.

DANGEROUS.—As we passed up Webster street yesterday afternoon, we observed a very dangerous quarry skirting the side of the street. It must be from fifteen to twenty feet in depth, and is just at the edge of the board-walk. It would surely be for the interest of the owner to put a fence along it, since should any one fall down and injure himself, he would undoubtedly recover exemplary damages.

REPAIRS.—A number of the city workmen are now engaged, under the direction of the Street Commissioner of the first district, in repairing the paving at the head of Smithfield street.

RIOT.—A gang of at least twenty colored men attacked a person rejoicing in the euphonious cognomen of "Charlotte Broadhill," in the Seventh Ward, on Wednesday night and beat him with stones and clubs, injuring his head horribly and covering his whole body with bruises.

RIOTOUS BEHAVIOR.—Nathan Binks, a colored man, was taken before Alderman Thompson yesterday, on a charge of behaving in a riotous manner. He was discharged on paying the costs and promising amendment.

DEGREE CONFERRED.—At the last commencement of the University of Rochester, New York, the honorary degree of Master of Arts was conferred on the Rev. John R. Downer of Allegheny City.

CHARGE OF LARCENY.—John Armstrong was yesterday committed to prison for further hearing by Alderman Major, on suspicion of being concerned in the robbery of John Bell's house on Pennsylvania avenue, on the 30th of July. A trunk containing seventy dollars and two valuable silver watches were taken from it. We did not hear the nature of the evidence, but understand that the accused can make out a strong case.

THREATENING LANGUAGE.—Alderman Thompson yesterday held Margaret Wilds to bail, charged, on oath of Mary Bradley, with using threatening language towards her.

EXCITEMENT.—Quite an excitement exists in the Sixth and Seventh Wards, owing to some persons unknown scattering poisonous substances in various parts of the streets. A quantity was thrown into Mr. Henry M. Smith's cellar, at the corner of Wylie and Washington streets.—Some was picked up by a little child of Mr. Robert Armstrong, at the corner of Webster and Washington streets, but fortunately its parents took it away. A dog who had eaten of the same substance, died in a few minutes.

FROM TEXAS.

BALTIMORE, August 4.

The mail is through from New Orleans.

The steamship Louisiana arrived at New Orleans, bringing Texas dates to the 25th.

Gen. Smith has established the Head quarters of the Second Regiment of Dragoons at Fort Croghan, fifty miles above Austin. Gen. Howe will soon visit his family on leave of absence.

The San Antonio Ledger learns that General Smith has ordered five companies of cavalry from Fort Merritt, to scour the Rio Grande and its vicinity.

We learn from the San Antonio papers that the engineers have postponed establishing the terminus of the railroad on the bay until the second of December.

A letter from Victoria states that there were seven deaths from cholera in that place on the 14th ult.

An attempt was recently made by three Mexicans to murder Wm A. Herd, of Victoria, while on his way to Rio Grande.

Every paper from the interior speaks in the most glowing terms of the planters' prospects. The crops promise a yield of extraordinary abundance.

The rumor of the massacre of Capt. Marcy and men was not believed by the army and officers at New Orleans. He had with him two twelve pounder guns, and sufficient men and munitions to render them effective.

Four more bodies lost by the explosion of the steamer St. James have been found, making a total of 98 lost.

HORRIBLE CASE OF INFANTICIDE.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug 4.

Yesterday a young Scotch girl sixteen years of age, named Mary Cruff, a domestic in the employ of the keeper of a public house, gave birth to an illegitimate child, which she disemboweled and severed its limbs from its body with a knife. She confessed that she did the deed to hide her shame.

CHOLERA

ROCHESTER, Aug. 4
