HOME MATTERS. DISASTROUS FIRE.-A fire broke out at a little after two o'clock on Saturday afternoon, in a street. stable belonging to John Cunningham, in th rear of a house owned by him, and occupied by Frederick Porter, Confectioner, on Prospect at., eight doors above Washington. The day was sely warm, and the roofs of the sur ing houses dry as tinder. The houses were generally frame, and the flames spread rapidly. Mr. Walter, shoemaker, below Mr. Porter,

John Phillips three two story frames; one oc cupied by himself, and one by Phillip Leffle sirmaker, both on Prospect street; the other by A. J. Kemp, bricklayer, on Hill alley. Mr. Kemp, in addition to his furniture, lost sixty dollars in notes, which were burned.

The flames spread above Cunningham's stable, where they offiginated, and soon the greatest consternation existed in the minds of those living in the neighborhood. The houses are nearly all frame, and as the supply of water was very on the ground,) it was foured that the desolation would be wide spread. The inhabitants for squares around commenced removing their for niture, and the utmost confusion prevailed.

Proceeding up Propper street, on the left hand, a two story builting, belonging to Mr. McManus, shoemaker, was destroyed. A colored woman, whose name we did not learn, who had recently removed to the neighborhood, lost a frame two story house. Samuel McKee, a frame on Prospect street and two frame buildipre on Hill alley

John McFall, carter, were destroyed. A two story house and stable occupied by David McKee's two story frame was burned

A two story honce, occupied by John Black, was very much injured, as were those occupied by Thomas Dickson, drayman; John Dalzell, carter. Mrs. McCleary, storekeeper; Mr. Robinson, tarter, and Mrs. Harper, who owned three houses. Some of the above were injured by free, others were nearly torn down by the axemen, in their efforts to stay the ravages of the flames. A cno story brick dwelling, on Hill alley, occupied by Peter McCoy, was also burned, together with a two story frame house, cocupied by Luke Ghapman.

The total loss, so far as we were able to ascertain it, was about ten thousand dollars.
