Magill, the Whig candidate. As,Mr. Magill is an old and highly respectable citizen, with no unstained private character, with capacity and acquirements eminently fitting him for the office of Sheriff, Barker has no means of assault except falsebood and detriction, which no person. probably, that ever lived, knows how to use better than he, as certainly no one could be more unscrapulous in the use of any means which sites in the country, will vote to the country whether annume who is used the country will vote to the country whether annume who is do the country whether annume whether they became naturalized on to the clieve that any man who is do the country to the country whether annume whether they became naturalized and native, to hold office in this Commonwealth, "no matter whether they became naturalized and native, to hold office in this Commonwealth," no matter to hold office whether they became naturalized and native, to hold office whether they became naturalized and native, to hold office whether they became naturalized and native, to hold office whether they became naturalized and native, to hold office whether they became naturalized and native, to hold office whether they became naturalized

Mr. Magill, some years ago, filled, for a year and seven months, the office of County Commissioner; and it has lately come to light, that at some time during the issue of the Scrip, which ran through some time years, some portion of it was taken, or borrowed, by some of the County wom nothing can be substantiated which should Commissioners, and appropriated to their own private purposes, and that all of this Scrip so taken has not been refunded. It is also rumorted, that, owing to the carcless mode in which the original results of the county which also the county wom nothing can be substantiated which should deprive him of a single whig vote; but if there is any whigh who feels he cannot support him, it him not diagrace his manhood and his citizential results of the county which were not to share in our political privileges amongs turns. Not could those who should choose to come fact the 4th of July, 1841, complain, it him not diagrace his manhood and his citizential results of the county which was to this country when the way to this country whom this way to this country whom this way to this country whom the privileges amongs turns of these were to be excluded from any thing either a residence or political privileges amongs turns. Nor could those who should choose to come after the 4th of July, 1841, complain, the most diagrance his manhood and his citizential privileges among turns. The provided privileges among turns of the country who country when the citizential privileges among the state of the country when the citizential privileges among turns of the country when the citizential privileges among turns of the country when the citizential privileges among the citizential privileges among turns of the country when the citizential privileges among turns of the country when the citizential privileges among turns of the country when the citizential privileges among turns of the country when the citizential privileges among turns of the country when the citizential privileges among turns of the country when t was taken, or borrowed, by some of the County whom nothing can be substantiated which and Commissioners, and apprepriated to their own brivate purposes, and that all of this Serip so taken has not been refunded. It is also rumored, that, owing to the carcless mode in which the printed sheets of Serip were kept and signed. ed, that, owing to the carcless mode in which the printed sheets of Scrip were kept and signed. he Commissioners forged, by some unknow ly unscrupulous, charges the errors, or crimes if-you please, which rumor says have been commit-ted in the Commissioner's office, upon Mr. Ma-gill, and has been industriously circulating ty, couched in the billingegate vecabulary he Whigs, as the Post will find, notwithstanding it

In this work of detraction Barker has found an adjunct, more influential, but less bold, but not less unscrupulous of the use of its means of injuring a political opponent, in the Post. That paper has not come to Barker's aid by boidly endorsing his slanders, but by invendoce, and insinuations, calculated to eriginate and increa

To defend himself from these assaults, Mr. Magill published, on the 31st uit., the statements missioner's office since the first issue of the scrip; of Messrs. Mitchell, Boyles, and King, the pres ent County Commissioners, and of James Con-ningham, an ex-Commissioner, fully showing that . Magill is wholly innocent of the charges made by Barker, and insinuated by the Post, and atraction of the missing Scrip, than had any oth er citizen of the county. Mr. Gormly states that the Scrip during Mr. Magill's term of of-fice, was all signed in the Court House, that his name never appeared to any counterfeit, and that he never obtained a dollar of County Scrip. or other funds, either by loan or otherwise, except for his legal pay as Commissioner. The County Commissioness say that there is no evidence, on the books or otherwise, that Mr. Magill ever re ceived any County Scrip, or funds, in any man ner except as his legal pay; and they furthe add, that no intimation has ever been given con-necting his name with any deficiency of Serip. As they have been engaged reveral months in fer-

As they have been engaged reveat months in the reting out this deliquency, this is conclusive.

This vindication is so triumphent that it ought to satisfy every ressonable man, and we believe it will de so; but nothing will stop Barker's slanderous declaration, or prevent the Post from twisting and torturing these statements and rumore in every shape and form possible to Mr. Magill's injury. This we must look for. Barker will still go on. Mr. Magill they Scrip affair, and that their course towards him is vile to the last degree, but this moves them not. It is currently reported that this man will receive a good many Whig votes, Returning home after a short absence, we find that considerable excitement has aprung up in the considerable excitement has aprung up in the slanderous statements of Joe Barker, tacked and assisted by the Post.
