THE FAIR.—The Fair yesterday was crowded by thousands of our citizens, although the weather was damp and unpleasant. From early in the morning until late in the evening, streams of people were moving to and from the grounds, and the collection of carriages and omnibuses before the gates was very large indeed. In the afternoon the crowd was so dense that it was with difficulty the visitors could move around, yet the utmost harmony and good order prevailed.

Having been in attendance upon it all day, we have not time to present the full report which we intend to give, and which we trust defer to another day. As all the stock, and articles of all kinds are yet on the ground, we have no doubt that the number of visitors to-day will exceed that of any previous one. We advise all our citizens who have not yet seen it, to take advantage of this, the last opportunity, assuring them that they will not soon meet with a similar one.

TORCH LIGHT PROCESSION.—We learn that the Fourth ward Scott club intend to excel all the other clubs in the city in the torch-light procession of Monday next. They will have to labor hard if they wish to excel the old Fourth.

ATTENTION THIRD WARD!—The Whigs and Scott men of the Third Ward are requested to meet at Splane's Buildings, this evening, to make preparations for the coming torch light procession. By order of the Committee.

PANORAMA.—O'Reilly's beautiful Panorama of Ireland still continues to attract crowded audiences at Philo Hall. It will be exhibited again to-night.

At two o'clock, the Hon. MOSES HAMPTON will deliver an address to the Society, immediately after which the list of premiums will be announced.

By order of the Board.
