HOME MATTERS.

The Panorama of Ireland will be exhibited twice to-day in Philo Hall— in the afternoon at 3 o'clock, and in the evening again at the usual hour.

THE INFANT VIOLINIST.—We attended a rehearsal of this remarkable child, for a few moments, at Masonic Hall, last evening. He has certainly the faculties of time, tune, and mechanical execution in great perfection, and his performance of the two short pieces we heard, for a child of his age was certainly very extraordinary. To the largest class of persons his playing will probably give no much or more pleasure, than one who sometimes them with the production of some original fantasia, while his infantile age and appearance will add to the gratification . Whether he possesses the genius to make a distinguished violinist, can only be known as his intellect is developed by age and instruction.

CASE OF THE CANAL COMMISSIONERS.—The time of hearing the important case of the Commonwealth ex relations the Pennsylvania Railroad Company vs the Canal Commissioners of Pennsylvania, has been extended to the 18th of present month.

STABBING CASE.—Wat chman Duffey was informed at an early hour yesterday morning, that W. Keller, a resident on Fourth street, had been stabbed by a person who had taken refuge on one of the steamboats lying at the wharf. He at once proceeded to the river, and after considerable difficulty, succeeded in arresting a man named James Carothers, whom he found secreted in the hold, and who was identified by Keller as being the man who cut him. A large spring dirk knife, covered with blood, was found in his possession, and he was at once taken to the watch house. After an examination before his honor Mayor Guthrie, he was committed to prison for further examination.

RIOTOUS BEHAVIOR.—Alderman Symmes of Birmingham, yesterday committed Manhart Hook to prison for thirty days, on a charge of riotous behavior.

STOLEN PROPERTY RECOVERED.—Through the intelligible exertions of police-officer Hague, a large amount of property stolen by a colored man named Penney alias John Dorsey, has been recovered, and is now at the Mayor's Office for identification.

ILL TREATING A WOMAN.—John Smith was yesterday committed to prison by Mayor Guthrie, charged, on oath of his wife, Mary, with beating her. He is the second "John Smith" now in the cells of the County Jail.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A little boy about six years old, named William J. Taylor, whose parents reside in Allegheny City, was instantly killed on Monday evening. He was playing, together with a companion, in a board-yard on Sandusky street, and in attempting to climb one of the piles of lumber, it fell upon him. The little fellow who was with him, was too much frightened to communicate the sad tidings to the mother of the deceased, (his father being absent from the city,) and it was not until yesterday that he had courage enough to speak on the subject.

Coroner Arthurs was called in to hold an inquest upon the body, and a verdict of accidental death was returned.

HELD TO BAIL.—Mayor Guthrie yesterday held Valentine Smith to bail in the sum of five hundred dollars, on a charge of threatening the life of J P. Smith of the Ninth Ward.

DISASTROUS FIRE AT CLEVELAND

CLEVELAND, Oct. 12.

The most extensive fire that we have ever had occurred this morning. It broke out about half past two o'clock in the Clothing Store of I. S. Borger, No. 3, Superior street, burning to the corner of Superior street and Union Lane, consuming its store, Graham's Shoe store, Isaac's Clothing store, Fleury's Hardware store, and some smaller establishments, most of which were not insured. The flames then spread down Union street, destroying all the tenements on the west side of the street, and all on the east side to Davis' Franklin Buildings, and spreading from this street to the rear of the Mansion House, destroying all the buildings on the west side of Water street, between Union and Franklin.

The Franklin Buildings. Among the sufferers is Water street, are, Mr. Overacker, proprietor of the Mansion House; Cutler & Allen, wholesale Grocers, and Shepherd & Co's Cabinet ware house and shop. The latter firm was burned out on the same street about a week ago, and had just commenced business again at their new stand. About 26 buildings are consumed, one third of which it is said were insured. The goods of the sufferers generally were partly insured. Many families are rendered houseless. There was a good breeze blowing at the time of the conflagration; it was only by the most strenuous exertions that the streets were arrested. One man was killed and several injured by the falling of a wall.

☞ NOTE—The quotations given in the following review, we would have our country readers to understand, are the Wholesale prices, except when otherwise noticed; and that in all cases in the failure of small orders to the city, as well as the country trade, buyers must expect to pay from three to five per cent above these quotations. We would further remark, that there are many articles which it is exceedingly difficult to quote any further than the store price. But when we give the correct store price, we think the experienced country dealer will find but little difficulty in distinguishing from the regular store price, as to what should be the first hand market price for his produce.]

REVIEW OF THE PITTSBURGH MARKET

For the week ending October 12, 1852.

The week just closed has been without anything of marked interest in the market. The weather was quite unsettled, during the latter par of the week, and considerable rain fell in the vicinity; but not sufficient to be of any great benefit to our rivers, and business in that quarter continues dull. From the same cause business generally throughout the city is dull and languid, with no chance of a change for the better until the recurrence of the regular fall rise, or, until the excitement in regard to the State and National election, which now runs pretty high, shall have passed away.

Our report to day will be necessarily short, for the want of material from which to make any extended review. Enough, however, will be given to give our readers as correct and idea as we can of the present condition of the market.

ASHES—No transactions of moment have taken place, since excepting in the leading articles of Pots and Pearls, which, as the fall season approached obtained a better feeling, but with no advance in price. The sales of pots and pearls during the past week amount to some 250 casks at 5¾@5¾ ₱ lb, on time. Of other ashes sales have been trifling, at about the following rates—Pearl ash, 5¾c; saleratus 2@2¾, and potash at 4¼@4½ ₱ lb.

LEATHER—The market is well supplied with eastern and western manufacture. We note regular sales at Dull; almost at 29 for New York 16 to 16c.

MOLASSES—Sales of New Orleans at 30c ₱ gallon, which is about the ruling figures of the market. No. 1 Cuba is selling at 25, and No. 2 at 23c ₱ gallon.
