CITY MATTERS.

ORDINATION.—The Rev. Mr. Wilson was yesterday ordained and installed pastor of the Sixth Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Dr. Herron delivered the charge to the pastor.

The introductory sermon was delivered by the Rev. Mr. Howard, of the Second Presbyterian Church.

ENTHUSIASTIC WHIG MEETING.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the friends of Scott and Graham assembled yesterday evening in the yard attached to the American Hotel, and was organized by calling Governor William F. Johnston to the Chair.

Governor J. made a most eloquent speech, proving that the Whigs of Pennsylvania have nothing to fear. In order to show the manner in which the Democrats carried their Canal Commissioners at the late election, and that that result was no criterion of the general election in November, he read the following carefully prepared statistics.

Whig vote in 1852	1848	1851.
Allegheny,	7146	10,112	8797
Chester,	6878	5949	6350
Dauphin,	3165	3705	3699
Erie,	3237	3418	3610
Huntingdon,	2095	2590	2435
Lancaster,	9988	11,390	11,064
Phil. city and co.,	21,283	31,229	24,760
Schuylkill,	3747	4939	4069
	55,987	73,332	64,784
		64,784
		8,548

Now deduct 55,872 from 73,332, which gives a majority of 17,660.

In the above eight counties, it is manifest that 17,660 Whig voters were not at the election on the 12th. These alone would have changed the result. Now take eight locofoco counties and see how many of their people remained at home.

Col. ANDREW CURTIN, of Centre County, then delivered one of the most eloquent and effective speeches which we have heard during the course of the campaign. He held the immense audience in breathless attention for over an hour, at times convulsing it with peals of laughter at his humorous allies.

His remarks were received with loud applause, and at the close of his address, three cheers were given for Scott and Graham.

The Second Ward Glee Club followed and sang some of their exquisite Whig songs.

Robert M'Knight, Esq., announced that the Whigs would hold another meeting in the same place, on Saturday evening, which would be addressed by that eloquent speaker Gen. LESLIE COMBS, of Kentucky, and a number of other distinguished Whig speakers.

PROBABLE MURDER.—An affray took place on Thursday afternoon, in the house of Mrs. Jane Taylor, situated in an alley near Arthurs street, Seventh Ward. It appears that John Cavan and James Irwin were drinking together in a room, and when intoxicated commenced quarrelling. Irwin finally struck Cavan on the head with what is known among firemen as a "spanner," felling him to the earth, and so severely injuring him that the physicians testify there is no hope of his recovery. The matter was kept as quiet as possible, but came to the ears of Alderman Major, who went yesterday to a notorious house in the Sixth Ward, known as the 'Banshee,' and arrested Irwin.

The following is the substance of the testimony taken yesterday:

William Taylor, sworn.

I am acquainted with John Cavan; he boards with my mother, Jane Taylor. About 5 o'clock yesterday (Tuesday) John Cavan and Jas. Irwin were up stairs, at my mother's house; there were no other's persons present but my brother John, a child. I heard a fuss between James Irwin and John Cavan. I heard a fall and went up stairs; John Cavan was lying against the door bleeding; James Irwin was standing with a fireman's spanner in his hand. There was a bottle of whiskey on the mantle-piece. John Cavan is now lying at my mother's house, very low.

A second deposition was taken afterwards. It was as follows:

On Tuesday evening, the 19th of the present month, after John Cavan was struck, and about one hour after I found James Irwin standing near said Cavan with the spanner in his hand, he swore to in my deposition of this day, the said James Irwin proposed to me to assist him in taking the said John Cavan out to the coke oven, on the Minersville road, (to Cocaine's coke oven) and pitch him in and burn him. I told him I would do it; to him he then said I might go to hell. He afterwards said that he would advise that we would take Cavan into the woods, and cut his d—d throat, and dig a hole and put him in. He then got up and went out. This conversation took place in my mother's house, after Cavan got hurt; Cavan, at this time, was getting his face washed. Irwin and myself were up stairs setting at the fire. John Cavan had been down stairs and came up again with an old quilt, and then laid himself down on the floor. After Cavan laid down Irwin went away. Cavan, about some time since, that he would be G—d—d if John Cavan sued him, he would kill him. John Cavan brought the whiskey that was drank yesterday evening. At the time the fuss commenced, both were a little intoxicated.

A number of witnesses, residing next door, testified that at about five o'clock they heard Cavan cry murder, and a little boy, who was in the room at the time, stated that he saw Irwin strike Cavan with the spanner. The Alderman committed Irwin to prison, to await the result of Cavan's wound.

It appears that the parties had had a previous quarrel, and that Irwin is at the present time under bonds to keep the peace towards Cavan. The defendant's character for peace is very bad, while Cavan, though addicted to habits of intoxication, is a kind and peaceable man.

At a late hour last night we learned that Cavan was still living, though he is not expected to survive till morning.

UNITED STATES COURT.—Before the Hon. Judge Irwin.

John Campbell, who pleaded guilty to a charge of robbing the United States Mail at Beatty's station, on the Pennsylvania railroad, was yesterday sentenced to an imprisonment of five years in the Western Penitentiary.

The case of the United States vs John Rice, charged with robbing the mail, near Waynesburgh, was then taken up. J. B. Sweitzer, Esq., for the United States, Jos. H. Hampton for the defendant.

John Feelan, of Waynesburgh, testified that he had mailed a letter, containing twenty dollars, on the 2d of last July, directed to James V. Buchner, Postmaster of Mount Morris.

Mr. Allison, Post Master at Waynesburgh, placed the letter in question in a mail bag, and sent it on.

Mr. Buchner, Post Master at Mount Morris, never received it.

The defendant was a post boy, and when arrested, confessed that he was guilty, and told the place where he had hidden the money, which was recovered, but the owner could not swear that it was the one which he had mailed.

The confession was ruled out, it appearing by a dexterous cross examination of Mr. Hampton, that the defendant was told that it would be better for him to tell the truth." The prisoner, who is a young lad about fifteen or sixteen years of age, will therefore probably escape.

Case still on trial.

DISTRICT COURT.—Before the Hon. Walter Forward, President Judge.

The jury in the case of A. B. Lindsay vs Linton's executors, before reported, yesterday returned into Court with a verdict for the defendants.

Thomas Farley and Jane Marlatt, administrators of Joseph Marlatt, vs Jacob Forsyth, et al., owners of the steamboat Atlas. Action to recover damages for the detention of one hundred and twenty-seven sugar ploughs, shipped from Pittsburgh to New Orleans on the Atlas. Verdict for plaintiff, $200.

Messrs. Magraw & Hepburn for plaintiff, Shaler & Eyster for defendant.

Peter Connor vs Levi G. Clover. Action to recover the value of two flat boats sold to defendant. Verdict for plaintiff, $165.

Mitchell and Palmer for plaintiff. Magraw for defendant.

SAD CASE.—Mayor Guthrie yesterday committed a little boy named M'Millen, to prison, for thirty days at the request of his mother who is unable to control him.

AROUSING HIS FAMILY.—Mayor Guthrie yesterday committed Richard Davis to prison for fifteen days on a charge of arousing his family and disturbing the public peace.

BEATING A WOMAN.—Daniel Center was yesterday committed to prison by Alderman Major, on a charge of beating Agnes M'Kee.

SUSPICIOUS CIRCUMSTANCES.—Mayor Guthrie yesterday committed John Barker to prison for thirty days, on a charge of prowling around the streets at a late hour, without any business.

RIOTOUS BEHAVIOR.—Alderman Major yesterday committed William Taylor to prison, charged, on oath of John Gordon, with rioting.

RIOTING.—Mayor Fleming yesterday committed Stephen Campbell to prison on a charge of riotous behavior, in default of a fine of twenty dollars.

FIRE.—A fire broke out on Tuesday night in a stable near Irwin street. The flames were extinguished before they had done much damage.

A block of marble of the finest texture, and receiving the most beautiful polish, taken from a quarry on the Rio Grande, has been contributed by the Legislature of Texas, to be placed in the Washington National Monument. This block is four feet in length, two feet in height, and eighteen inches in width, and is equal to the finest specimens of marble which have been received to be placed in the Monument, and it now completes the full compliment of blocks from all the States of the Union.

BY TELEGRAPH.

THE LATE STORM IN FLORIDA.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 19.

The light-house keepers dwelling at Breaker's reef were washed away; not a boat was left on the beach.

The Wakulla bridge and Railroad building were destroyed and cracked, and washed up for half a mile.

The storm has had a disastrous effect on the cotton crop; there will not be one bale to ten acres. A large number of turpentine trees were also destroyed.

In Tallahasse there is great destruction.—Every store between the Capitol and the Court House is damaged. The roads are blocked up with falling timber.

The gale at Apalachicola was equally severe. The pilot boat Cypress was sunk at the wharf, and the Captain and two men were drowned.

A number of vessels were driven ashore; pilot boats upset and stores with their stocks damaged.

The steamer Palmetto was totally wrecked

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 20.

Judge Grier, of the U. S. Circuit Court, yesterday charged the jury in the case of the heirs of Stephen Girard against the city of Philadelphia, in favor of the heirs, who claim eleven tracts of land in Schuykill county, valued at $1,100,000, on the ground that when Girard's will was made he did not own the entire title to the land, therefore the will was inoperative. The jury returned a verdict in favor of the heirs.—The case will probably be carried to the Supreme Court.

A committee of citizens start at eleven o'clock to meet Gen. Scott at Tacony and escort him to the city. They will land at Southwark, when salutes will be fired. A cavalcade of citizens will then escort him to his quarters at the Girard House.

HARRISBURG, Oct. 20.

The Synod of Pennsylvania met in the Presbyterian Church last evening. A sermon was preached by the Rev. Mr. Sterling, Moderator of the last meeting. The Rev. Mr. Randy was then chosen Moderator for the ensuing year.

This morning Synod met again and accepted an invitation to visit the State Lunatic Asylum in the afternoon at three o'clock. An hour was appointed for hearing narratives of the state of religion.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.

The steamer Asia left here to-day at noon, with 50 passengers and $401,000 in specie.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.

There is a heavy run on the Potomac Savings Bank, of which John F. Cullen is President.—It has hitherto met all demands. The officers say they will be able to continue to redeem the paper, and at most, to suspend but a few days in order to convert the assets into cash.

OHIO ELECTION.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 20.

Full returns are received from 36 counties, and reported majorities from 37, which show a Whig gain on the State ticket of ten thousand. On the Congressional ticket the gain is much larger. Fifteen counties yet to hear from.

The Ohio election returns as far as ascertained, give eleven Democrats, seven Whigs, and two Freesoilers, elected to Congress. We have no further returns of the popular vote.

In the Methodist Book Concern of the Book Concern of Cincinnati, Judge Leavitt, of the U. S. Court decided adverse to the claim of the Church South. An appeal was taken.

ARRIVAL OF GEN. SCOTT.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 20.

Gen. Scott arrived in this city at two o'clock. He landed at Washington street wharf amid a loud salute. A large procession of citizens on foot and in carriages escorted him to the Girard House. The whole street was blocked up by an enthusiastic crowd. The General addressed them, and passed a high compliment upon Philadelphia and Pennsylvania; the gallant services of whose citizens in all the wars in which it had been his fortune to participate, had been worthy of the highest eulogium.

Gen. Scott will leave during to Lancaster to attend the State Fair, and will proceed hence tomorrow morning. He will probably attend Madame Sontag's concert to-night, and will be serenaded on his retirement to his lodgings.

BROWNSVILLE PACKET LINE.
BROWNSVILLE, 8 A. M., and 6 P. M.
WEST NEWTON, 8 A. M., and 4 P. M.

THE HELEN MAR.—This is the name of Capt. Cox's new Zanesville Packet, which is now receiving its finishing touch at our landing. The hull, which is beauty and exquisiteness of model, is equal to the best ever launched from the ways of Messrs. Brown & Co. It has hitherto met all demands. The officers say they will be able to continue to redeem the paper, and at most, to suspend but a few days in order to convert the assets into cash.

NOTICES, &c.
NOTICE—If Mr. Louis Baker, of this city, lately acting as United States Consul in Laguayra, South America, will call on the subscriber, he will hear of something to his advantage.
