ANOTHER SCOTT RALLY.

The friends of SCOTT and GRAHAM will have another rally in the warehouse lately known as M'Fadden's, opposite the American Hotel, on this (Saturday) evening, Oct. 23d, at 7 o'clock. The meeting will be addressed by Gen. LESLIE COMBS, of Kentucky. Second Ward Glee Club will be about ROB'T MCKNIGHT, Chm'n of Executive Committee.

For various items of interesting news see first page.

MR. WEBSTER'S ILLNESS.—Our readers, without exception, will be deeply pained on reading the telegraphic despatches we give to-day, announcing the serious illness of Mr. Webster. Although the rumors have circulated for some days, that Mr. Webster was ill, yet the public mind was wholly unprepared to hear that this light of the 19th century, was in real danger of being soon quenched in the sombre shades of death. The announcement of his critical condition, yesterday, produced a sensible shock upon the community, and a quiet subdued seriousness, showing how great a hold Mr. Webster has upon the respect and affections of his countrymen. When he expires the greatest intellectual light of this age goes out. News from Marshfield will be looked for hereafter with the most painful interest.

Hon. LESLIE COMBS, the distinguished Kentucky orator, spoke in Cleveland last night, and will arrive here by the five o'clock train, this afternoon. He will address the friends of Gen. Scott at the Canal Warehouse, opposite the American Hotel, this evening.

PENNSYLVANIA ELECTION.—The official vote in all but twelve counties of the State gives Mr. Woodward, Dem., for Supreme Judge, Mr. Burlington, Whig, 142,518.—

Counties, in 1848, gave Gen. Taylor Cass, 159,187, Mr. Van Buren figures show a falling off in the vote of 40,713, of which the Whigs 30,198. The remaining counties gave, in 1848, Taylor, 13,019, Cass, 12,099, Van Buren, 3,478.

The Post, in its characteristic style, charges us with fraud and lying, because our figures in regard to one county, Fayette, were misplaced. We had discovered the mistake before we saw the Post, and had made the requisite correction. As we had not added up the figures, or made any use of the table as data in regard to the election, our "lying" and "fraud" seems to have been to little purpose.

In the same number of the Post, the editors, in speaking of the Whig meeting on Wednesday evening, say:

"We speak conscientiously when we say, that at no time during the evening were four hundred persons present; and while we were there, we could plainly see that at least one half of the audience were Democrats."

As to the fact stated, that the editors spoke "conscientiously," we have nothing to say; but we leave the vast crowd present to judge of what materials the consciences of those editors are made. We do not believe there was one man present, Whig or Democrat, who will say that the editors' consciences came any where near the truth in their estimate of the numbers present at that large meeting. The question arises, if the editors make such extraordinary blunders when they speak "conscientiously," what reliance can be placed upon their statements when they disregard that inward monitor?

The Locofoco State Central Committee have issued an address of congratulation to the "intimidated," filled with the glowing language of triumphant exultation. It commences on this wise:

"We congratulate, we honor, we thank you, for the effectual victory you have achieved. The night of doubt and fear has passed away, and 'AURORA from her dewy bed, with rosy cheeks,' rises, with beaming smiles upon you."

After pursuing this poetical strain for some time, the address makes this exultant declaration:

"The Whig party, like a dissolving view, is now fading away."

This is the solemn conclusion put forth with all the forms of authority, from the head quarters of Locofocoism in this State, and we copy it for the purpose of asking the Whigs of Allegheny county and Western Pennsylvania, whether they will ratify this judgment of their opponents, who are rejoicing not only over our defeat, but over our dissolution! Is the Whig party fading away like a dissolving view? Has it no cherished principles, and no cherished men, to sustain; no high and patriotic purpose in its origin and continued existence?

We feel assured, fellow whigs, that you will answer these questions, and the sneers of the Locofoco State Committee at the ballot box, when you will testify by a glorious majority for Winfield Scott, that you know how to defend your principles and reputation, and to honor one of the brightest stars in the galaxy of America's great, noble and patriotic men.

The Locofocos address concludes by calling upon Democrats to prepare for battle in November—to give one day to the country—to keep the second of November as a political Sabbath—and to see that not one stays away from the polls.

Let Whigs heed this advice of your opponents. They gain victories because they take means to win them. Will any Whig admit that their principles and candidates better deserve success than ours. If so he should go and join them. Are not our principles as precious to us, as their sham-Democracy can be to them? Is not WINFIELD SCOTT a name a thousand times more worthy of the generous devotion of his friends, than that of Franklin Pierce?

All this is true, but it becomes of little avail, unless you prove it at the ballot box. If Locofocism can give a day to the country; Whiggery certainly can. Whigs can hold sacred the 2d of November, as a day due to the cause of freedom and human rights, as well as those who have hitherto only used power for the promotion of selfish ends.

If nothing else will arouse Whigs to the duty of discharging the sacred obligations they have taken upon themselves, to the great man who is our leader, as well as to themselves and the country, the sneers and exultations of our opponents will certainly have the effect. It is not in human nature to be treated with scorn and derision, and not resent it. We will see how Locofoco taunts will be buried back on the 2d of November.

NEW POST ROUTE TO CALIFORNIA.—By an advertisement which appears in our paper to-day, it will be seen that the Post Master General invites proposals for conveying the mail from New Orleans to Vera Cruz via Tampico three times a month in steamships, and for the extension of two of these trips a month, by suitable land conveyance, to Acapulco, and thence to San Francisco and back in steamships; the conveyance between New Orleans and San Francisco, to be performed in seventeen days. By means of this arrangement, a mail will ply between California and the Atlantic States once a week.

Judge Allison, of Philadelphia, has decided that no extra assessments of voters can be made between the State and Presidential election if this State, the law on the subject having been repealed. Under this decision, those not having paid taxes for the last two years, and having neglected to be assessed previous to the late election, will not be entitled to vote for Frost.

TO THE CITIZENS OF ALLEGHENY COUNTY.

FELLOW CITIZENS:—We are on the eve of another Presidential election; and in view of the important interests involved, and the great questions to be settled for years by the result, we desire to address you a few words.

We feel that the issue is one of vital interest, to every American, but especially to the citizens of Pennsylvania. It will decide, at least for the next four years, whether our farmers, our mechanics, our laborers and manufacturers are yet longer to be deprived of that aid, encouragement, and protection from the laws of our Government, which are so much needed, and so justly due; and which have been approved by nearly all our Presidents; Washington, Jefferson and Jackson included.

Remember that now, at least, there can be no doubt, as to which is the American party, pledged to carry out this doctrine, dear to every American; whatever fog and obscurity may have surrounded the question in former campaigns. Such Banners as Polk, Dallas and the Tariff of 1842, having flattered only to betray, have become obsolete: and the dangerous question of Protection to American Industry is artfully dodged by the Democratic leaders in Pennsylvania, who harangue from the stump, and newspaper editorially, upon all questions, except the one most important to every Pennsylvanian. Well do they know, that their own Dallas, by his casting vote stabbed to the heart the measure he was pledged on his party banners to support. Well do they know that the large Democratic majorities in both Houses of Congress, have for years disregarded the petitions from the plough, the forge, the loom and the workshop, praying for relief, even though backed by the earnest solicitations of a few Pennsylvania Democrats, who threatened the party with the loss of power in this State, if those prayers were unheeded.

Right well do they know that the British Press, 'London Times, Manchester Examiner, and Liverpool Times, are openly supporting their cause and their candidate, in language such as this. "As regards England, public sympathy, it is needless to say, is enlisted on the side of the Democratic candidate—not that General Pierce is considered the better man. Far otherwise, he is merely accepted as the nominee of that great party, in the Union, who desire to push the principles of Free Trade to its utmost limits."

With such powerful and valuable allies on the part of our democratic friends, we hear nothing said now of British influence and British gold. The above extract shows that they surely have the former, while it has been boldly charged, and as yet we believe, without contradiction, that British gold has been sent to our free country, to operate for British against American labor. We earnestly hope, that both will be alike spurned by the true Democracy of this Union.

There are other important questions involved in the contest, but we can only, in this brief address, allude to one, deeply interesting to the whole country, but especially so, to this section, at the head of the Mississippi valley, and destined, with proper and rightful aid from Government, to become the great entrepot of trade between the populous East and the mighty West: we mean the improvement of our rivers and harbors; a measure opposed by the other party and their candidate—and when a partial bill for the protection of life and property was recently squeezed through Congress, it was hooted at and proclaimed by Democratic leaders that it was the last Improvement bill which should be passed, provided Mr. Pierce was elected. What then is the duty not only of every river man, but every one interested at all in the trade and commerce of Western waters; whether as manufacturer, owner, forwarding merchant, engine and boat builder, or as one of a community in which these great interests abound? And who, among us, is not?

With such principles at stake, and with such a glorious leader as Winfield Scott, who has never known defeat; what patriot does not feel his heart stirred, and his pulse beat stronger at the prospect of triumphant success? Why, then, should any hesitate, or remain inactive, on political principles, and not be found at the polls on the 2d of November, and assist in rolling up your sleeves, and work like men, for the short time remaining—deserve victory, and you will certainly secure it. If Scott had wavered and despaired on the Canada frontier, you might not now be rejoicing in freedom from British insult and oppression. If Scott had wavered and despaired when surrounded by Santa Anna's legions, your flag would not have waved in triumph over the halls of the Montezumas.

Scott leads the column, let his friends close up their ranks with the shout of Scott, Graham and victory!—and in two short weeks that shout will be changed to one of triumph for SCOTT AND OUR GLORIOUS UNION!

October 20, 1852.

Gov. Wood, of Ohio, has issued his proclamation, setting apart the last Thursday of November next, to be observed as a day of Thanksgiving throughout that State. The same day has been set apart for Thanksgiving in several other States.

A son of Bishop Doane states through the New York Times that his father's illness is not so serious as has been represented. He suffers from a nervous prostration, brought on by excessive excitement, but having obtained some rest, is already much better.

The Florida election is still befogged.—Mr. Cabell, who is at Richmond, Va., is satisfied that he is re-elected to Congress, and that George T. Ward, Whig, is elected Governor.—On the other hand, a letter received at the Savannah Republican office, "from a reliable source," states that returns from all the State except two or three small counties, show that the Democratic candidates are successful in each case.

A destructive conflagration occurred at Ogdensburg, breaking out at about three o'clock in the morning, in the wagon shop of J. Lamb, on Isabella street, and raging with great fierceness, under the impulse of a strong north west wind, until near half the business portion of the town was laid in ruins. The St. Lawrence Republican printing office, and the office of the Daily Times, were among the buildings destroyed. The greater part of the loss is covered by insurance.

Capt. Brooks, of the bark Elizabeth Jane, of Philadelphia, denies the report that his vessel had been searched from stem to stern, and himself treated with great indignity at Havana. His letters, as usual, were demanded by the officers, and a slight search made, when the letters were politely returned, and the officers took a respectful leave. Capt. B. thought so little of the affair, that he forgot to mention it on his return, until he found some persons in New York manifesting great indignation at what they termed a great outrage perpetrated on his vessel.

The operations of the Mexican Boundary Commission have been suspended, because of a clause heedlessly inserted in the appropriation by Congress for this purpose, which it is now feared renders it void, and in consequence the work cannot be gone on with until the next session of Congress, when another appropriation will have to be voted. This will be a source of serious loss and inconvenience to those employed on the Commission, who have now been engaged on the work several months, for which services they can receive no compensation until that time. Almost equal inconvenience will be felt by the Commissioners in the employ of the Mexican government, who are thus compelled to suspend operations on account of the disgraceful negligence with which Congress, near the close of the session, disposed of such business as this.

The New York Times says that it is well known that Galliana, the Secretary of the Governor General of Cuba, is the confidential adviser of General Canedo, and the instigator of all his acts of oppression, is anxious to resign, but the Captain General apprised him that as he had got him into a scrape with the United States, by his advice, he should stand by him and see the play out.

The Indians along the Mexican frontier are committing most awful ravages. In the single partido of Sombrerete, on the frontiers, from the month of January to August, the Indians killed one hundred and fifty-four people, and wounded at least a fourth more than that number.

JUDGE DOUGLAS'S DEFAMATION OF GENERAL SCOTT.

We notice that Judge Douglas persists in misrepresenting the position of General Scott on the naturalization question. In a speech at Galena (Ill.,) on the 12th inst., the Judge is reported to have remarked:

"Gen. Scott was opposed to the naturalization of any foreigner unless he had served one year in the Army or Navy; that he had so laid it down in his letter of acceptance of the Whig nomination; that if General Scott's views were carried out, no foreigner could ever become a citizen of the United States unless he should serve in the Army or Navy; and as there were about three hundred thousand foreigners coming into the country annually, and the army of the United States contained only of ten thousand, the vast majority of the emigrants coming to this country could never be naturalized."

The least that can be said with regard to this declaration is, that the speaker who uttered it knew it to be contrary to truth, and only uttered it for the purpose of misleading naturalized citizens.

Early in the campaign, when the same speaker made exactly the same assertion, we were inclined to view it as an inadvertence, springing from an imperfect knowledge of the whole subject. The Judge's exhibition of his ignorance on a plain point of constitutional law strengthened the impression, which has, however, been effaced by his subsequent course. It is now apparent that he designedly misrepresents the Whig candidate, and attributes to him intentions widely different from those developed in his published letter of acceptance. The accusation is a grave one to prefer against a Senator of the United States, and a Judge, to boot; but it cannot be, and ought not to be, blinked. Judge and Senator are both lost in the bitter and unscrupulous partisan.—Republic.

WHO FORGED IT?

The following has been stamped and proved a forgery, yet it is kept in perpetual circulation. We cut it from The Union, Manchester, New Hampshire:

"You are instructed not to enlist foreigners, for the battalion of St. Patrucio has taught us that foreigners cannot be trusted."—Gen. Scott's Instructions to his Recruiting Officers during the Mexican War.

ANTHONY C. CAZENOVE, Esq., an old and respected citizen of Alexandria, Va., died on Saturday last, at the age of 78. Mr. Cazenove was a native of Geneva, in Switzerland, but has been a citizen and eminent merchant of this city more than fifty years. Mr. Cazenove's first settlement in this country was at New Geneva, in Western Pennsylvania, in company with Albert Gallatin, and other Swiss, where he put in operation the first salt west of the Alleghanies.—The flags of all the shipping in port were displayed at half mast on Saturday last, in token of respect for the deceased.—N. Y. Times, Tuesday.

This gentleman, who was an eminent pioneer in the manufacturing interests of Western Pennsylvania, had few equals in our land, for intelligence, sound principles and personal worth. We have often heard him speak of his early business connexion with Albert Gallatin, in giving the first impulse to those industrial interests of the Great West for which it is so justly celebrated. He was proud of the achievements which they made in overcoming the first difficulties of their way. He brought with him from Geneva a staunch devotion to the Presbyterian Church, of which he had been for many years a ruling Elder and eminent supporter, at Alexandria, Va. His judicious counsels have often been heard in the General Assembly. He never put off the old-fashioned costume, but dressed in short-knees, and was a true Christian gentleman of the Old School. He had been passing the last summer at Brooklyn, N. Y., with his excellent daughter, Mrs. G. B. Lamar.

SERIOUS AND SUDDEN ILLNESS OF BISHOP DOANE.—We regret to learn that the Rev. Bishop Doane, during the performance of service yesterday morning, at New Brunswick, was seized with a sudden illness, which rendered it impossible for him to proceed. He was taken at once to the neighboring house of Mr. Carpenter, where we believe he still remains. The nature of his attack is not fully understood; but it is believed to be similar to the one by which he was prostrated about two years since. Solicitous apprehensions for his recovery are entertained. He attributes it to the excitement and exertion of the past week.

All his appointments for the visitation of the churches in his Diocese, and for other objects, are of course broken up by this event.—N. Y. Times of Tuesday.

CHOLERA ON THE OHIO RIVER—DREADFUL MORTALITY.—On Monday last, the cholera made its appearance on board the steamboat Financier, lying at Ripley, Ohio. She was immediately taken to the Cincinnati Quarantine ground, six miles below the city, where nine persons were taken into the hospital at that place, all in the worst stage of the disease. There were five corpses on board, besides which ten were buried between Wheeling and Cincinnati. The steamer, after the removal of the sick and dead, was thoroughly cleansed and purified, and detained at the above locality until one o'clock on Tuesday.

The Cincinnati Commercial states that the Financier left Pittsburgh a week ago last Monday, crowded with Germans and Irish emigrants, who had but a small supply of food, that was soon exhausted. At one of the landing places they bought a wagon load of apples, and all ate very hearfily, soon after which the sickness began.

MR. WEBSTER'S HEALTH.—We are most happy to say that we have seen a letter received this morning by Mr. Blatchford, written at Marshfield yesterday, in which it is said, "Mr. Webster's symptoms have taken a favorable turn. I believe he will be substantially restored to health."—N. Y. Com,

Scrofula.

IT is due to Kier's Petroleum to say that it has been known to completely eradicate every vestige of this dreadful disease in less time than any other remedy, and at less cost or inconvenience to the patient.

The thousands of certificates in the hands of the proprietors, many of which are from well known citizens of the city of Pittsburgh and its immediate vicinity, go to show clearly and beyond all doubt, that KIER'S PETROLEUM is a medicine of no common value, not only as a local remedy in Paralysis, Rheumatism, Deafness, loss of Sight, but as a valuable internal remedy, inviting the investigating physicians, as well as the suffering patient, to become acquainted with its merits.

Those having a dread of mixtures are assured that this medicine is purely natural, and is bottled as it flows from the bosom of the earth.

The following certificate is copied from a paper published at Syracuse, New York, and bears date August 2, 1852, to which is also appended the certificate of the celebrated Dr. Y. Foot, M. D., of Syracuse.

This may in truth certify, that I have been so badly afflicted with Scrofula for the last seven years, that most of the time I have been unable to attend to any kind of business, and much of the time unable to walk, and confined to my bed, and have been treated nearly all the time by the best physicians our country affords; I occasionally got some relief, but no cure, and continued to grow worse, until Dr. Foot recommended me to try his Petroleum, or Rock Oil, as every thing else had failed I did so without faith at first, but the effect was astonishing; it threw the poison to the surface at once, and I was soon able to grow better, and by using seven bottles, I have got a sure work thousands of dollars.

MRS. NANCY M. DARKEE.

This may certify that I have been acquainted with Kier's Petroleum, or Rock Oil, for more than a year, and have repeatedly witnessed its beneficial effects in the cure of indolent ulcers, and other diseases for which it is recommended, and can with confidence recommend it to be a medicine worthy of attention, and can safely say that it is the best medicine for the purpose it is recommended for that I ever saw.
