Advertisements without directions, and not over fifteen lines, to be charged as a square and a half.

Publishers are not accountable for legal advertisements beyond the amount charged for their publication.

Announcing candidates for office, to be charged the same as other advertisements.

Advertisements not marked on the copy for a specified number of insertions, will be continued till forbid, and payment exacted accordingly.

The privilege of annual advertisers is strictly limited to their own immediate business; and all advertisements, for the benefit of other persons, as well as all advertisements not immediately connected with their own business, and all changes of advertisements in the month or quarter, will be charged at the usual rates. For all such transient advertising, payment will be strictly required, and promptness is due to dealers.

Notices of Marriages and Deaths, and notices for meetings, wards, township and other public meetings, and of the Fire, Hook & Ladder Companies, are published gratis in advance.

Marriage notices to be charged 50 cents.

Death notices inserted without charge, unless accompanied by notices of obituary notices, and when so accompanied, to be paid for.

Regular advertisements, and all others sending communications, or requiring notices to be inserted in the Daily Gazette, Concerts, or any public entertainments, will please to send the money. Bills against all policies of private associations—every notice designed to call attention to places where amusement or intended to promote individual interest, can only be inserted with the understanding that the usual rates will be paid for. If intended to be inserted in the local columns, the notice will be charged at the rate of not less than advertisements.

Bishop or Sheriff sales to be inserted triple price.

Orphans' Court sales, Executors' and Administrators' advertisements not to be counted under yearly rates, but to be allowed a discount of fifty per cent on the usual rates per cent. from the amount of bills.
