HOME MATTERS.

O'CONNELL, THE CELEBRATE TABLES Writer, will be in this city in a few days, when our citizens will have a chance of testing his skill.

LAWRENCEVILLE AND SHARPSBURGH PLANK ROAD COMPANY.—The following named gentlemen are the officers of the above named Company for the coming year:

President—James Blakely.
Treasurer—George E. Arnold.
Managers—W. C. Leslie, L. C. Noble, W. Wernsberg, Thomas Wallace, and T. W. Duncan.

THE INTEREST of the election, and the general scarcity of local news must suffice as an excuse for the slimness of our local column.

THE ELECTION yesterday passed off with unusual decency. A good deal of excitement was manifested by all parties, and there was a general turn out in spite of the inclemency of the weather.

DISORDERLY CONDUCT.—Michael Mullen was arrested and brought before Alderman Parkinson, charged, on oath of the toll-keeper on the Aqueduct, with refusing to pay toll, and being disorderly. The Alderman fined him three dollars and costs.

SELLING LIQUOR ON SUNDAY.—Alderman Parkinson, yesterday, issued a warrant for the arrest of Joseph Sailor who keeps a grocery on the corner of Pike and Factory streets, Fifth Ward, for selling liquor in less quantities than a quart, and also for selling liquor on Sunday, on oath of John Born.

ASSAULT.—John Born appeared before Alderman Parkinson, on Tuesday, and testified that a man named Joseph Sailor had followed him into the street with a butcher-knife, threatening to kill him, and at various other times had assaulted and threatened him. The Alderman issued a warrant for his arrest.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—Henry Benford was committed to jail by Alderman Major, charged, on oath of Susannah Benford, with assault and battery.

COUNTY JAIL.—During the last week there have been twelve commitments for assault and battery three for riot, one for making an affray, two for assault with intent to kill, twenty-two for disorderly conduct; eleven for larceny, two for robbery; two for costs of Court; one for highway, one for assault and surety of the peace, twelve for vagrancy, and nine for drunkenness—amounting to eighty-three commitments in all. During the same period about forty have been discharged.

OAKS BAIL.—Thomas Gallagher gave bail in $2000, to answer the charge of assault and battery on David Hunter, committed about two weeks ago, and $250 to answer a similar charge, on oath of Matilda Jones, committed last June, both of which cases were noticed in yesterday's paper.

DISORDERLY CONDUCT.—Mayor Fleming sent Andrew Conner to the hill for twenty days, on oath of Mary Keaver, for disorderly conduct.

VAGRANCY.—Mary Jackson and Samuel Yoe were sent to jail as common vagrants, by Mayor Guthrie.

POLICE NEWS.

HUCKSTERING.—Peter Britton was brought before his honor Mayor Fleming, of Allegheny city, for buying cabbage at a store in Allegheny, to sell again.

FALSE PRETENCES.—Mr. M. S. Johns appeared before Alderman Reinhart, and laid an information, charging James Murphy with having procured goods from him to the amount of $66. Murphy paid the amount, and the case was dismissed.

Alderman Reinhart issued a warrant on Monday for the arrest of P. J. Worth, of Moon township, who was charged by Mr. Wm. Harper, of the firm of Harper and Patton, of this city, with having obtained $230 from him under false pretences. The above sum was advanced to Worth for flour, which he engaged to deliver in June last. Having failed to do so, this suit was brought.

ACCIDENT.—As the Butler coach was being driven through Ohio street, Allegheny, on Monday evening, one of the horses fell into a hole dug for the gas pipe, which was left entirely unprotected. It was not much injured.

MARY HOWITT, in a private letter, thus speaks of the popularity in England, of Mrs. Stowe's "Uncle Tom's Cabin;"

"Of course you are aware of the wonderful excitement produced here by Uncle Tom's Cabin. Everybody is reading it. Hundreds of thousands of copies are in circulation. My daughter saw a baker's boy sitting on his bread-cart in the street reading it. Masters and mistresses read it in the parlor, and their servants at the same time in the kitchen. High and low all read it. It is acted at our theatres, and the excitement is intense. It acted at our theatres, and the excitement is intense. It is acted on the stage here, when our city will be in a flame. Every one is talking about it. Even the newspapers, answering letters, and the children to school, and giving orders for dinner. The first streak of light, the earliest purpling of the east, which the lark springs up to greet, and the deeper and deeper coloring into orange and red till at length the glorious sun is seen, regent of the day"—this they never enjoy, for they never see it.

Beautiful descriptions of the morning abound in all languages, but they are the strongest, perhaps, in the East, where the sun is often an object of worship.

King David speaks of taking to himself the "wings of the morning." This is highly poetical and beautiful. The wings of the morning are the beams of the rising sun. Rays of light are wings. It is thus said that the sun of righteousness shall arise "with healing in his wings"—a rising sun that shall heal every life, health and joy throughout the Universe.

Milton has fine descriptions of morning, but not so many as Shakspeare, from whose writings pages of the most beautiful imagery, all founded on the glory of morning, might be filled.

I never thought that Adam had much the advantage of us from having seen the world while it was new.

The manifestations of the power of God, like His mercies, are "new every morning," and fresh every moment.

We see as fine risings of the sun as ever Adam saw; and its risings are as much a miracle now as they were in his day, and I think a good deal more, because it is now a part of the miracle that for thousands and thousands of years he has come to his appointed time, without the variation of a millionth part of a second. Adam could not tell how this might be. I know the morning—I am acquainted with it, and I love it. I love it fresh and sweet as it is—a daily new creation, breaking from and calling all that have life and breath and being to new adoration, new enjoyments, and new gratitude.

Scrofula.

☞IT is due to Kier's Petroleum to say that it has been known to completely eradicate every vestige of this dreadful disease in less time than any other remedy, and at less cost or inconvenience to the patient.

The thousands of certificates in the hands of the proprietor, many of which are from well known citizens of the city of Pittsburgh and its immediate vicinity, go to show clearly and beyond all doubt, that KIER'S PETROLEUM is a medicine of no common value, not only as a local remedy in Paralysis, Rheumatism, Deafness, loss of Sight, but as a valuable internal remedy, inviting the investigating physicians, as well as the suffering patient, to become acquainted with its merits.

Those having a dread of mixtures are assured that this medicine is purely natural, and is bottled as it flows from the bosom of the earth.

The following certificate is copied from a paper published at Syracuse, New York, and bears date August 2, 1852, to which is also appended the certificate of the celebrated D. Y. Foot, M. D., of Syracuse:

"This may in truth certify, that I have been so badly afflicted with Scrofula for the last seven years, that most of the time I have been unable to attend to any kind of business, and much of the time unable to walk, and confined to bed, and have been treated nearly all the time by the best physicians our country affords; I occasionally got some relief, but no cure, and continued to grow worse, until Dr. Foot recommended me to try the Petroleum, or Rock Oil, as every thing else had failed. I did so without faith at first, but the effect was astonishing; it threw the poison to the surface at once, and I at once began to grow better, and by using seven bottles, I have got a cure worth thousands of dollars.

MRS. NANCY M. BARKER.

This may certify that I have been acquainted with Kier's Petroleum, or Rock Oil, for more than a year, and have repeatedly witnessed its beneficial effects in the cure of indolent ulcers, and other diseases for which it is recommended, and can with confidence recommend it to be a medicine worthy of attention, and can safely say that success has attended its use, where other medicine had failed.

COLUMBUS, S. C., Nov. 1.

MR. WEBSTER ON THE MORNING.

The following beautiful letter from the pen of Mr. Webster, was written to a friend. It will be read with much interest, not only for its intrinsic beauties, but as a purely literary production:

RICHMOND, Va.,
Five o'clock, A. M., April 29, 1852. }

My Dear Friend—Whether it be a favor or an annoyance, you owe this letter to my early habits of rising. From the hour marked at the top of the page, you will naturally conclude that my companions are not now engaging my attention, as we have not calculated on being early travellers to-day.

This city has a "pleasant seat." It is high; the James river runs below it, and when I went out, an hour ago, nothing was heard but the roar of the Falls. The air is tranquil and its temperature mild. It is morning, and a morning sweet and fresh, and delightful. Everybody knows the morning in its metaphorical sense, applied to so many occasions. The health, strength, and beauty of early years lead us to call that period "the morning of life." Of a lovely young woman we say she is "bright as the morning," and no one doubts why Lucifer is called "son of the morning."

But the morning itself, few people, inhabitants of cities, know anything about. Among all our good people, no one in a thousand sees the sun rise once in a year. They know nothing of the morning. Their idea of it is that it is that part of the day which comes along after a cup of coffee and a beef steak or a piece of toast. With them morning is not a new issuing of light, a new bursting forth of the sun, a new waking up of all that has life from a sort of temporary death, to behold again the works of God, the heavens and the earth; it is only a part of the domestic day, belonging to reading the newspapers, answering notes, sending the children to school, and giving orders for dinner. The first streak of light, the earliest purpling of the east, which the lark springs up to greet, and the deeper and deeper coloring into orange and red till at length the "glorious sun is seen, regent of the day"—this they never enjoy, for they never see it.

Beautiful descriptions of the morning abound in all languages, but they are the strongest, perhaps, in the East, where the sun is often an object of worship.

King David speaks of taking to himself the "wings of the morning." This is highly poetical and beautiful. The wings of the morning are the beams of the rising sun. Rays of light are wings. It is thus said that the sun of righteousness shall arise "with healing in his wings"—a rising sun that shall heal every life, health and joy throughout the Universe.

Milton has fine descriptions of morning, but not so many as Shakspeare, from whose writings pages of the most beautiful imagery, all founded on the glory of morning, might be filled.

I never thought that Adam had much the advantage of us from having seen the world while it was new.

The manifestations of the power of God, like His mercies, are "new every morning," and fresh every moment.

We see as fine risings of the sun as ever Adam saw; and its risings are as much a miracle now as they were in his day, and I think a good deal more, because it is now a part of the miracle that for thousands and thousands of years he has come to his appointed time, without the variation of a millionth part of a second. ☞ NOTE—The quotations given in the following Review, we would have our country readers to understand, are the Wholesale prices, except when otherwise noticed: and that in all cases in the selling, or small orders in the city, as well as the country trade, buyers must expect to pay from fifteen to five per cent above those quotations. We would further remark, that those are merely articles which it is exceedingly difficult to quote any further than the store price. But when we give the correct store price, we think the experienced country dealer will find but little difficulty in distinguishing from the regular store prices, as to what should be the first hand market price for his produce.]

REVIEW OF THE PITTSBURGH MARKET.

For the week ending November 2, 1852.

GENERAL REMARKS.—We have to record another week of dullness and apathy in the market, scarcely any thing of notice having transpired since our last weekly issue.

We are glad to announce to our readers at a distance, that we are just now upon the eve of an active business season here. The long period of drouth and low water has passed, the sand bar in the Ohio river is thrown up into ugly and discouraging visage, and our rivers are, at the present writing, rising finely. This is a happy circumstance, and next to the election of old WINFIELD SCOTT, which we firmly believe will take place on Tuesday next, has been the prevailing desire of our business community for a period so long, that we had almost become weary of it.

We shall have very little to say of our market to-day. It has, beyond question, been the dullest week of the season, and scarcely a sale worthy of notice has transpired. We will therefore confine our report only to the notice of some of the more important articles of trade, hoping that before another week she'll roll around we shall, by the general resumption of business, be enabled to present our readers with something of interest.

ASHES—With the exception of pots such very little has been doing during the week. Of this article, we notice the following sales; in lots as they occurred:—5 casks of Canada at 3½c ₩ lb., on time; 6 do at 3½; and 50 casks foreign at 3½c, 4 months, and 15 casks Maupratt's at 3½c, cash.—Pearls—Sales of 100 casks at 4½c, cash.—Pots—The following rates:—Pearlash—5¼@5½c; nearest 5¼@5¾, and potash at 4¼@4¾; ₩ pound.

APPLES—The receipts of apples during the week have been light. We notice a sale of 40 bbls choice, on the wharf, at $1.75 ₩ bbl. Common qualities are selling at $1.50@$1.62 ₩ bbl.

BACON—We have no material change to notice since last week. The following rates were reported to us:—5500 lbs at 5¾ for shoulders, and 9¾ for sides; 500 lbs shoulders at 5¼; 500 do at 5¾, and 1000 do at 6c, and 10 hhds shoulders at 5¼@5¾c ₩ lb.

BUTTER—The sales during the week have been confined to small lots of keg at 13c ₩ lb. Barrelled butter may be quoted at 12@12½c, and fresh roll, in bbls and boxes at 15@16c ₩ lb, from first hands.

BUCKWHEAT—Sales 500 lbs at $1.75 ₩ 100; 1000 at $1.75, and 3500 lbs at $1.80, and 2500 lbs at $1.62½ ₩ 100, from first hands.

BEANS—The arrivals of the new crop continue very light, and there is a good demand from first hands, for white, at $1.50 from first hands, and $1.62@$1.75 from store.

BROOMS—We quote at $1@$1.12½ from first hand, and $1.25@$1.50 from store.

BUTTER AND LARD—The current rates from store are $1.75 to $2 ₩ dozen, for buckets, and $5.00@$7 ₩ doz for tubs

CHEESE—Prices have improved a shade since last week, sales 170 boxes W. R. at 7½c; 50 do at 8c, and 75 do cream at 8½c ₩ lb. Stocks are light, and the market firm.

CRACKERS—The following is the current list of manufacturer's rates.

Water C ackers, ₩ barrel	$3.50
Butter "	3.00
Pyramids "	3.00
Soda Bread, ₩ barrel	3.00
