PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.
WEDNESDAY MORNING, NOV. 5, 1862.

It is a matter of considerable importance to the country that the Proclamation of Emancipation should be issued by the President of the United States on the first day of January next, and not before. The reason is obvious. The Proclamation will not be issued by the President of the United States until the Rebellion is crushed, or until the Rebellion is on the point of being crushed