HOME MATTERS.

THEATRE.—To night Mr. Barney Williams takes his benefit, and on the occasion he offers a bill full of amusement. The Drama of 'Ireland as it is,' presents a true and moving picture of the sufferings, wrongs, and hopes of the Green Isle, and to this will be added the laughable Farce of the 'Limerick Boy,' and the highly amusing commechetts of 'Our Gal,' in which Mrs. Williams sustains the character of a Yankee girl to the life, and dances also form part of the entertainments. For programme, see advertisement in another column.

THE PANORAMA OF THE PILGRIMS' PROGRESS.—We hope none of our readers will neglect the present opportunity of witnessing one of the most instructive and pleasing exhibitions of the age. Many scenes taken separately would be well worth the price charged for an admission to the whole. The painting is soon to be removed to Cincinnati.

THE COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS assembled at the usual hour on Monday morning, when the following cases were disposed of:

Com. vs. John Park, Indictment, keeping a tippling house. The prisoner pleaded guilty to the charge, and was fined $20 and costs of prosecution.

Com vs. Francis Jamison, indictment, keeping a tippling house, Jamison pleaded guilty, and the same fine was imposed upon him.

Com. vs. Joseph Zimmerman, Indictment, keeping a tippling house, on oath of Thomas D. Hays, who charged him with having sold liquor to his son, a lad of about nine years, and with having sold liquor in less quantities than a quart at various times to other persons. The jury returned a verdict of guilty, and the Court sentenced him to pay a fine of $50, and the costs of prosecution.

The jury in the case of the Com. vs. Thomas Ferguson, charged with fornication and bastardy, returned a verdict of not guilty.

Com. vs. James Mackeral, Indictment, assault and battery, on oath of David Elder. This was a suit, growing out of the difficulty between the Street Committee and Mr. Mackeral, relative to the location of a cistern on Mr. Mc's. property. It appears that Elder was engaged by the Committee to remove the curbstone, and while in the act of doing so, Mr. Mackeral struck him over the back with a cane. The Court continued the case until afternoon.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The last case was resumed, and occupied the attention of Court all afternoon. The speeches of counsel were concluded and the court adjourned.

DISTRICT COURT.—We stated erroneously in yesterday's paper that in the case of Schneck vs. Sloane, the jury returned a verdict for plaintiff. On the contrary, the jury found a verdict for defendant for $71,50.

In the case of Henry White, surviving partner of H. S. Dally, reported in Saturday's paper, the jury returned a verdict for defendant for 61 cents.

Richard F. Sass vs. Carter Curtiss, No. 89, January term 1851. Magraw and Hepburn for plaintiff; Williams and Friend for defendant. In 1851, Sheriff Curtiss sold the steamboat Magnet, taken in execution as the property of D. W. Bees. The plaintiff alleges that the ownership of the boat at the time of the sale was in him, and not in Bees, and brings this suit to recover the value of the boat.

Nicklin vs. Edmundson, et. al. No. 121, January term, 1852. Magraw for plaintiff, and Hampton for defence.

ACCIDENT.—We learn from the Chronicle of yesterday afternoon, that a child of General Latimer fell out of the window of his dwelling house, on Monday morning, receiving injuries which places its life in jeopardy. It states no particulars.

HARRAS CORBUS.—In the Court of Quarter Sessions on Monday morning, Col. Samuel Black moved that John Bailey, who was confined on a charge of manslaughter, on Saturday night, be released from jail on bail. After hearing the case, the Court admitted Bailey to bail in $2,000, to answer the charge. It appears from the evidence before the Coroner, on Saturday, that Crosby, the deceased, had held a grudge against Bailey for some years, and that on last Wednesday or Thursday, he met Bailey in the street, and commenced an assault upon him.—Bailly kicked him in the stomach, from the effects of which he died on Saturday. The Coroner committed Bailey to answer the charge of manslaughter. From the testimony, it appears that Crosby was drunk at the time.

A RIOT.—On Sunday evening about half past nine o'clock, Water street, near Wood, a disturbance was started, the particulars of which could not ascertain, and bricks, stones, and other missiles were used in great profusion. Some two or three were a good deal injured, and one man had the side of his face broken in by a blow given with a knuckler. As far as we could learn, there were about twenty engaged in the riot. The houses in the vicinity were much damaged by the bricks that were thrown. No arrests were made.

BLOWN DOWN.—The chimney on the toll house on the Allegheny side of the old Bridge, was blown down by the heavy wind which prevailed on Sunday.

MARIA A FOTH.—George Hughes, who is confined in jail on a charge of disorderly conduct, is now laboring under the eighth attack of measle a note he has been in jail. He is not expected to recover.

Officers Dougherty and Reed started for Baltimore on yesterday afternoon, with Morris Reynolds, a fugitive from Justice, and John Myers, who is charged with bastardy, in custody.

FALSE ALAM.—The alarm of fire last evening about ten o'clock, was false.

The Lecture Committee for the Young Mens' Mercantile Library Association and Mechanics' Institute have the satisfaction to announce to the public that Rev. HENRY GILES will deliver a series of six lectures, on topics connected with Life and Culture, commencing either this week, or the beginning of next week. Mr. Giles is well known to be a lecturer of high distinction and ability, and as the expense incurred in engaging him is heavy, and the price of admission will be small, it is hoped and confidently expected that a large number of our community will be in attendance. Of time, place of first lecture, price of admission, &c., due notice will be given.

POLICE NEWS.

STEALING CRAVATS.—Mr. Geo. W. Lazzard appeared before Alderman the Mayor, and charged John Burrell, Geoffrey Kearns, Wm. Bushfield's Nerve and Bone Liniment.

Unsurpassed for the Cure of Rheumatism.

MR. S B BUSHFIELD—DEAR SIR—I have for a long time been suffering from very severe inflammatory Rheumatism, and have had the attendance of several physicians, who all failed to render me any relief. I then had recourse to several well known patent medicines celebrated as specifics for the cure of Rheumatism, such as 'Davis' Pain Killer, Radway's Ready Relief, Dr. ——'s Pain Extractor, and others, and used them all to no purpose. I had come to the conclusion there was nothing left for me but to endure my sufferings, when a friend suggested to me to try your Nerve and Bone Liniment, as the last several patients cured by the use of it. I had but little hopes of any relief, but, as it cost but little to try it, I procured it at once and commenced to use it. I soon found some relief, and by the use of a few bottles, have been cured sound and well, not a pain left, and all the inflammation and swelling gone, and I am now enjoying perfect health. Believing your Liniment the best article known for Rheumatism, and so many suffering from that dreadful complaint, I feel bound to recommend to all such, and advise to give it a trial, and I am certain the truth of my statement will be confirmed.
I am Yours, &c.,
RICHARD RENKERSON.
