HOME MATTERS.

CORRECTION.—In the notice of the proceedings of the Citizens' Meeting, held at the yard of the American Hotel, on Saturday, we stated, on information received from another, that the resolutions were passed by acclamation. We have since learned, that a negative vote was called for, but the Chairman refused to put it. We were also misinformed in relation to Mr. O'Neil's acting as Secretary. He informs us his only business there was reporting the proceedings.

DISTRICT COURT.—The following cases were tried before Judge Shannon, President:

Alexander Brown and James Brown vs. Geo. Elliot, list No. 218; No. 262 April term 1849. Mellon and Negley for the plaintiffs, and Stanton for defendant. The case was continued until the next term.

James Lindsay vs. Robert Wightman, list No. 208; No. 942 November term 1850. G. P. Hamilton, Esq., for the plaintiff, and Shinn for the defendant. This case was also continued until the next term.

James Treby vs. Alexander Byers, list No. 193; No. 644 November term, 1850. Hepburn for plaintiff, and Howard for defendant. The jury had not returned a verdict when the Court adjourned.

Before Judge Williams, Associate:

Shea and Pennock, for use, vs. H. S. Magraw, trustee of John D. and Agnes Mahon, list No. 171; No. 40 November term 1850. Loomis and M'Connell for plaintiff, and Williams, Hepburn and Mahon for the defendant. The jury returned a verdict of $1,801 60 for plaintiff, subject to a point reserved for the decision of the Court.

Joseph Pennock now for use, Mather, Hallowell and Walton vs. James Gilleland, and Agnes M. Irwin, administrators of James B. Irwin, trustee of John D. and Agnes M. Mahon; list 180; No. 328 November term 1850. Loomis and M'Connell for plaintiff, Mahon and Washington for the defendant. On trial.

COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS.—The Court assembled at the usual hour, and proceeded to the trial of the following cases:

Commonwealth vs. Wm. Harrast, indictment Assault and Battery. The defendant not being present, his recognizances were forfeited, and a process issued for his arrest.

Commonwealth vs. Curran, indictment Assault and Battery, on oath of Wm. Dunlop. The defendant was found guilty, and sentenced to pay a fine of six cents and the costs of prosecution, and stand committed until sentence was complied with.

Commonwealth vs. William Taylor, indictment Perjury. The defendant was the material witness for the prosecution in the case of the Commonwealth vs. James Irwin, indicted for the murder of Cavan, on the 24 of October. On the trial he swore that he was entirely ignorant of every circumstance connected with the case. It very clearly appeared, however, that he had made a deposition before Alderman Major, and gave evidence before the Coroner's jury, giving the fullest details of the manner in which Cavan had been killed, the number of blows he received, and the instrument with which the blows were given. It was proved by a colored woman named Nancy Madden, that Taylor was in the room when Irwin struck Cavan, and that he saw the whole occurrence.

The prisoner was ably defended by John H. Hampton, Esq., who was appointed his counsel by the Court. The case was closed by District Attorney Flanagin, for the prosecution.

The jury returned a verdict of guilty, without leaving the box.

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.

SENATE.—Mr. Seward replied to Messrs. Cass and Downs, concerning the Clayton and Bulwer treaty. He commenced by giving the provisions of the treaty called the Nicaraguan Convention, which was signed at Washington by Messrs. Clayton and Bulwer, as approved by the Senate and signed by negotiators, and which stipulated that the two Governments declare that neither one nor the other will ever obtain or maintain any exclusive control of the contemplated ship Canal, and agree that neither will occupy or fortify, or colonize, or assume dominion over Nicaragua, Costa Rica, the Mosquito Coast or any part of Central America. Subsequently an understanding or explanatory declaration was agreed to, that the engagements as to territory did not apply to Her Majesty's settlements at Honduras and its dependencies. Mr. Seward then referred to the charge made by Mr. Cass that this construction was given to the treaty without the consent or knowledge of the Senate, and that in this transaction the executive department of Gen. Taylor's administration had committed a great error.

Mr. Seward went on at great length, defending Mr. Clayton and arguing that the construction placed upon the treaty by him was well understood when the Senate passed upon it.

After further debate the committee rose and the House adjourned.

OHIO DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 10.

The Ohio Democratic Convention to-day passed resolutions reaffirming the platform of 1852, that the separation of the State monies from banking institutions is indispensably necessary to the safety of the funds; and that an Independent Treasury has accomplished all that has been expected from it. That the Democracy will favor a similar law or agreement for keeping and disbursing the public funds, and that the State and county treasuries should refuse the notes of all banks refusing to pay taxes. That the extension of European dynasties on any portion of the American continent, or in its vicinity, should be resisted by the whole power of the Federal Government, and the interference of Ohio regard the organization of adjacent provinces, at the earliest moment, as consistent with national honor, and as the manifest destiny of the American republic.

Full confidence is expressed in Franklin Pierce, and the Democracy of Ohio accord to his administration their cordial support.

A motion to endorse the Baltimore platform was considered, and after several amendments, and an animated discussion, it was laid on the table.

CLEAVER'S PRIZE MEDAL HONEY SOAP—The Award made by the Juries of the World Exhibition of 1851, has induced F S Cleaver to adopt the above title, and to improve, if possible, the quality of his Honey Soap, in order to perpetuate the honor that conferred upon him; and more particularly to permit the consumer to form his own opinion as to the claims clearly exemplify the difference offered at low prices. Honey Soap, and its so called imitation, Mink Brown Also—F S Cleaver's triple-scented and Mink Brown Windsor, the quality of which is unequalled. It possesses a delicate and permanent perfume, yields a quick lather and emollient lubricity, and may be relied on as being composed of such materials as will soften and beautify the skin.
