THE CONNELLSVILLE BAILBOAD. We are glad to find attention again directed We are glad to find attenues again to the Connellsville read. This road has always been a favorite with Pittsburgh. It has been a favorite with Pittsburgh. It has been number containing 16 pages, and beautifully been a favorite with Pittsburgh. It has been suffered to remain in the shade for some years, it is true; but while its claims to prominence have been postponed, they have not been aban-doned. The importance of having a railroad to the West, compelled the friends of the Connells ville spad to center all their efforts on the Ohlo and Pennsylvania project; but as that road it now secured and well advanced towards completion, the original friends of the Connelleville goad can return to their old favorite, and put i

The Democracy of Ohio, at their regular State Convention held on the 8th inst, openly repudiated the Platform adopted by the late, Baltimore in National Convention of the same party. When I it was proposed to enderse it, the resolution was laid on the table, and then, after a debate, the Convention delibertably refused a motion to reconsider, so as to allow it to be taken up. The Columbus Journal says that the sole reson why, the Baltimore Platform, was thus repudiate and kicked out of the Convention was to conciliate and obtain favor with the "Freesoilers."
