PENNSYLVANIA RAILEDAD.

We published yesterday a statement the recolpts of the above named road for the month of December, 1852, and also the gross receipts during the whole of that year. It was seen that the sum of revenue for the twelve months reached within a fraction of two millions of dollars, being an increase of nearly eightytwo per cent. as compared with the income of the road during the preceding year, and that in comparing the receipts in the ment of December 1851, with those of the same month in 1852 the excess of the latter over the former amounted to the prodigious difference of one hundred
