PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.
MONDAY MORNING, FEB. 7, 1853.

THE Zeno of Independence.—Is the way of "doing business" that may be said to be fairly closed up? We know of nothing more striking than the following paragraph from a "gentleman" as he calls, in reply to an article asking him for "the amount of his bill":

"Mr. Stitchington is it indeed five years that I have "graced your board?" How fast it flies! It scarcely appeared to me so many months. Although I have never given you a note for the amount, how have the years passed by! You will guess my meaning, when I assure you it is the theory of mine that the "rings of time" are no other than five large gates, duly drawn and accepted. With these we bridge his three, six, or nine months into as many weeks. He is continually wasting the sand from his glass, drying the wet ink of promissory notes. But let me not moralize.

"You want money, you say—Mr. Stitchington, As I said in the like predicament, you are in a capital condition to sympathize with me. You say "you never yet found out a season as the present." Of course not. So tailor ever did. The present season is favorable to the worst of the lot, no matter how, bad, the shutters have been. It says much for the moral and physical strength of tailors, to see their still flourishing when worse to worse they really seem, like church-yard grass, to grow fat and rank upon decay.

"You teasingly observe that present profits do not pay for taking down the shutters. My good sir, then why proceed in a ruinous expense? In the name of prudence, why not keep them constantly up?

"You say you never press a gentleman. Now in families phrase we never "press a lemon," but then we squeeze it most inexorably. That man should go into bankruptcy, yet live and laugh afterward, is a great proof of the advancing philosophy of our times. A Roman tailor, incapable of meeting debts, would, heathen-like, have fallen upon his own needle, & hung himself."

* * * * * * *

"P. S.—My humanity suggests this advice to you: Don't go to any more expense, as your letter found me making up my accounts. An old acquaintance—I had just popped down your name as your letter arrived!"

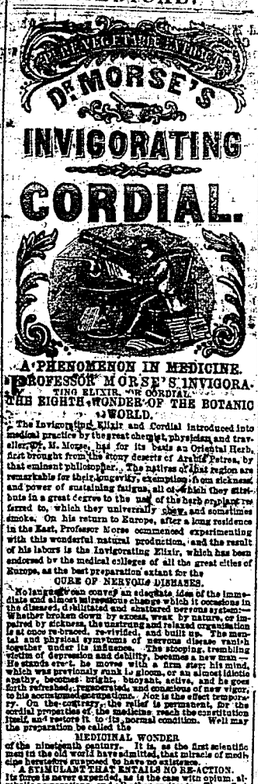
MEDICAL.



A PHENOMENON IN MEDICINE.
PROFESSOR MORSE'S INVIGORATING ELIXIR, OR CORDIAL.
THE EIGHTH WONDER OF THE BOTANIC WORLD.

The long-expected Elixir and Cordial introduced into medical practice by the great chemist, physician and traveller, Dr. M. Morse, had for its basis an Oriental Herb, first brought from the stony deserts of Arabia Petrea, by that eminent philosopher. The natives of that region are remarkable for their longevity, exemption from sickness and power of sustaining fatigue, all of which they attribute in a great degree to the use of the herb employed by Dr. Morse in preparing his Elixir and Cordial. By the combination of this herb with the choicest roots, barks and vegetables, the nauseating and relaxed organization of the system is re-braced, revivified, and its tone and physical symptoms of nervous disease vanish before its influence. The palpitating, trembling victim of depression and debility, becomes a new man. His stands erect—he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously rude, is restored to its wonted lucidity and activity, becomes bright, buoyant, active, and he goes forth restored to the enjoyment of new vigor, and to the accustomed occupation. Nor is the effect temporary. On the contrary, the herb is permanent, for the medicinal properties of the medicine, reach the constitution itself, and restore it to its normal condition. Well may this preparation be called

of the nineteenth century. It is the first scientific assertion in the old world have admitted, that miracle of medicine heretofore unknown, have no existence.

A REMEDY THAT IS SURE TO GIVE SATISFACTION. Its forms is never expended, as is the case with opium, alcoholic preparations, and the nervous irritants, the effect of these is brief, and it may well be said of him who takes them, that the last state of that man is worse than the first. But the Elixir is an exhilarant without a single drawback and its operation is perpetual in the happy influence upon the nerves, the mind, the entire physical system.

In cases of Neuralgia, headache, loss of memory, hypochondriasis, dyspepsia, liver complaint, general debility, nervousness, inability to sleep, liver complaint, sour stomach, and all diseases having their origin in derangement of the propagating functions, hysteria, monomania, melancholy, insanity, epilepsy or fits, spasms, consumption, &c. &c., from whatever cause arising it is, if there is any evidence, to be placed on human restoration, the Elixir is infallible.

It is the only infallible remedy yet discovered for nervous debility and mind complaints. It is entirely free from any thing sought for, and never before found, the only material ingredient in the composition of the Elixir, is the best of all tonics, and the various other forms of nervous prostration, will produce a cure in an astonishing short period of time—it will also remove depression, excitement, a tendency to blush, restlessness, sleeplessness, dizziness, dimness of sight, inability for study or business, a loss of memory, confusion, noises about the head and ears, confusion of ideas, timidity, hysteria, indecision, wretchedness, thoughts of self destruction, aversion to society, &c. &c. Those who have used the Elixir and Cordial will bear testimony to the truth of what has been said, in the minutest particular.

THE COMMON EXPRESSION.

Of those who have used this Extract is: "I had heard your Cordial highly spoken of, but was prejudiced against it with regard to its merits—having tried various medicines sold by the name, and found them to be impositions, without deriving any benefit, I had almost given up all hopes of deriving any relief, and when I purchased some of your Cordial, I had no faith in it, but was induced to purchase it, but it has—I feel stronger, have although do not know exactly what is the matter with me, but I feel as though I could cure me."

Another says: "I had consulted several distinguished physicians. Some said I could not be cured—others prescribed this thing and that. But I found no relief until I purchased your Cordial, by the use of which I am entirely cured for."

Another says: "I was surprised at the effect it produced. Why did I not hear of it before? It would save me much expense, besides years of mental and bodily suffering."

MARRIED PERSONS,

or others, conscious of inability from whatever cause, to perform the connubial duty, will find in the use of this thorough Tonic and Cordial, the perfect restorative of offspring in a cause of regret, it is of inestimable value.

The nature of the disease which this Elixir and Cordial is usually sent to is leave the publication of certificates of cures to the discretion of the proprietor, would produce a host of the most conclusive testimony, to show that the great reputation it has been officially attained, is based not upon its positive and unquestionable virtues. In all directions are to be found the happy recipients of its blessings, and they are legion in number, but for this extraordinary preparation. And it is equally potent for the many diseases for which it is recommended. Thousands of young men have been restored by using it, and not in a single instance has it failed to benefit them.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

Boston Journal.

A Valuable Remedy.—Dr. Morse's Invigorating Cordial. We invite public attention to this preparation. We have repeatedly heard it warmly recommended by many discriminating judges as a valuable tonic and invigorator for the speedy cure of diseases of the genital organs, and those arising from a broken habit of youth. These disorders are often rebelled in their progress, undermining the constitution, soon sinking the sufferer into a fatal prostration or consumption. We understand that the directors are more numerous than the community have any idea of, and positively recommend the Cordial of Dr. Morse's invigorating Cordial we'll at once screw these complaints, and save the patient from the dangers that threaten him.

Salem Register.

We advise the young and inconsiderate, who are troubled with these complaints, so destructive to the mind as well as body, destroying all future happiness, to procure and use Dr. Morse's invigorating Cordial. We have been informed by many of its beneficial effects in the cases of several of our acquaintances, who, in consequence of the violation of those laws that govern man's social and physical being, were brought to the verge of the grave, secretly, and who were only rescued by a timely use of Dr. Morse's Cordial. (See Ads't.)

THE MEDICAL JOURNALS

Have not, in a single instance that has been authentically stated, given their sanction to any preparation for the scientific men in the old world have submitted, that miracle of medicine heretofore unknown, have no existence.

The Abdominal and Pleasure Supporters made by Mrs. Betts, of this city, I can recommend to the medical profession, and to ladies, after several months' experience in their use. These instruments are adapted to remedy the inconvenience and pain attending the displacement of the uterus. In this state of the organ, exercise is attended with so much pain and other suffering, as to be difficult or impossible.

Mrs. Betts is a lady of intelligence, education, probity and manners—the greatest confidence can be placed in her.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. ROSE'S CELEBRATED REMEDIES

—Dr. Jacob Rose, the discoverer and sole proprietor of those two popular and beneficial medicines, and also the inventor of the celebrated instrument for inhaling the Cubeb smoke, in effecting a cure of Chronic diseases, was a resident of that southern physician. Doctor Physic, and is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, and for thirty years since has been engaged in the investigation of disease, and the application of remedies thereto.

Through the use of his inhaling tube, in connection with his Prophylactic Syrup, and other of his remedies, he has gained an unparalleled success in curing those dreadful and fatal maladies: Tuberculous Consumption, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Rheumatism, Asthma, Fever and Ague, Fevers of all kinds, Chronic Erysipelas, and all those obstinate dis eases peculiar to females. Indeed, every form of disease vanishes under the use of his remedies, to which humanity is liable—but by the use of one compound only, for that is incompatible with Physiological law, but by the use of his remedies, adapted to, and prescribed for, each peculiar form of disease.

Dr. Rose's Pulic Alterative Pills, when used, are invariably to be superior to all others, as a purgative or liver pill. Inasmuch as they leave the bowels in perfect free from costiveness, as also his Golden Pills are adapted to female diseases, but being entirely vegetable, safe and efficient to establish what has been said, in the minutest the most exception.

The afflicted are invited to call upon the agent, and procure (gratis) one of the Inhaling Tubes, having a detail of the mode of using the same, and the application.

For sale by the following agents, and by no others throughout the country.
