TEALTH TO IN EVERY COUNTY OF

PROVIDENCE, Feb. 17, 1863.—The anti-liquer law passed the Senate, this afternoon, by a vote of aixteen to thirteen—some little alteration having been made. The act goes into effect in mediately; but it is to be submitted to the people at the April clection, and in the event of their voting not to quastan it, it is to be repealed ten days after the ricing of the next General Assembly. The House will concur.
